STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

N. D. SHOWALTER, PRESIDENT
CHENEY, WASHINGTON

April 22, '18.

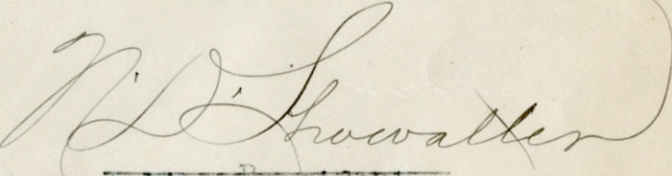

A Meeting of the Board of Trustees was called to meet at Davenport's at 12:00 P. M. Those present Mrs. Monroe, Mr. Tustin, Mr. Showalter.

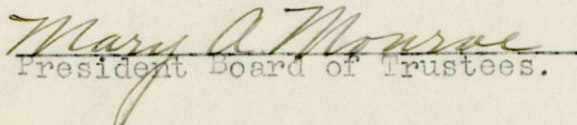

The report and recommendation concerning instructors for next year was made in accordance with the plan of last meeting but owing to the fact that Mr. McLean was not present final action was deferred.

Mr. Showalter made a report on the progress made in securing contracts for the Prouty and the Rolfe property - - a contract for the Prouty property being considered. Mr. Tustin suggested that a deed in escrow was necessary and that a statement be made in the contract to the effect that the deed would be turned over to the state upon the meeting in full the requirements of said contract. It was also thought best to require a statement from each mortgagee to the effect that full payment would be accepted by the state at any time and that all would be willing to continue said mortgages until May 1, 1919.

In accordance with the plans of last meeting the question was brought forth relative to a Commercial Department and Mr. Showalter was authorized to secure a teacher and to make such arrangements as seemed best to begin the Department June 1, '18.

Meeting adjourned at 2:20 P.M.

Acting President.

President Board of Trustees.
