Camp. Bates Sept 26th

Dear Sister,

It has been but two or three days since I did write but as I was not very well then I must write now to let you know that I have got well and back to camp again. I came out here to camp this morning and found the boys mostly well a few of them are complaining but I guess the most of them will be ready for a march soon & I would not wonder if they would have to try it but I don't know where. I got a letter from Cousin Mag. Td. yesterday and they are getting along about as usual. Joel is at Camp Chase in Conn. At 113 buggy. You is teaching.

Well Sallie I don't know as I have anything more to write so the sooner I quit the better. My love to all.

Brother Tom.

P.S! Remember my proposal.

for I want you to have the benefit of it if it should be a year hence.

Report in your next.
Dear Sister:
