TODAY'S GAME

Eastern Washington college's Savages face the tough Central Wildcats this afternoon in the annual Homecoming fray

The Wildcats are undefeated in league play and are tied with Western for first position. They have defeated CPS, 20-19, and Whitworth, 43-13.

The Savages have a 1-1 league record, having whipped Pacific Lutheran 21-0, and dropped a tough one to Western last week, 6-0.

One of the finest ball carriers in the Northwest is the star of the Central backfield. He's

EASTERN WASHINGTON'S TEAM CAPTAIN

DICK NEARENTS

Dick Nearents, the real husky of the Savage line, was chosen captain by his teammates the day before the opener against Idaho State college.

Nearents played his high school ball at Pasco, and was a four year letterman. After leaving high school, he enlisted in the Marines where he saw action during the Korean conflict. He played two years of ball while in the service.

Before coming to Eastern Dick lettered one year with the University of Idaho, and has picked up two letters with the Redmen.

Nearents, who tips the scales at 265 and stands 6 feet 2 inches, is one of the two starters back from last year's line.

Upon receiving his degree in education, Dick plans to go into teaching, but has high hopes of playing professional ball. The door might very possibly be open in the Canadian league.

EASTERN WASHINGTON COLLEGE SAVAGES

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Big Ed Chissus, (6'2"-215 pounds) begins his sixth year as head coach at Eastern. He was a successful high school coach in the Yakima valley before assuming his duties at Eastern in 1953 and his teams won 53 and lost 21 while winning or tying for the Yakima valley championship seven times during the seven years he coached in that league.

At Eastern, his football squads have compiled a record of 21 wins, 18 losses and 2 ties and have become known for their tough defensive play, especially against passers.

Last year the Savages were first in the Evergreen conference in both total defense and total offense, averaging 294 yards a game in offense while holding the opposition to 157. In addition, the alert Savages were second in the nation on pass defense, holding passers to 21 completions in eight games for an average of 31 yards a contest.

ED CHISSUS

DEWEY KEITH, ASSISTANT

Newly discharged from Uncle Sam's service, a former Washington State Cougar back will assist Ed Chissus this year with the backfield and defensive chores. Dewey Keith, who played ball for Washington State college in 1954 and 1955, is a native of Wenatchee where he played both high school and junior college ball. While in the service he played for the 15th infantry team in Germany

About the CWC Coaches

Wildcat head coach Abe Poffenroth is no stranger to Eastern's Woodward stadium. He's a former Savage ball player and coach.

Abe enrolled at Eastern in 1936 after graduating from John Rogers high school in Spokane, and played his collegiate football for Coach W. B. "Red" Reese.

After a stint at high school coaching, Abe took over the Savage gridiron duties after World war II and coached here from 1947 until 1953. His teams won or shared in four Evergreen titles. He was dean of men in 1953 and the following year left Eastern to resume coaching duties at the Ellensburg school.

Last year the Wildcats under Poffenroth were conference champions.

Beginning his second year as assistant football coach at Central is another Eastern alumnus, Adrian Beamer.

Beamer came to Eastern from Cashmere high school. He learned college football from his present boss, Abe Poffenroth, who was Savage head coach during Beamer's playing days.

Beamer was president of the 1948 class, a class which is being honored at Eastern's Homecoming today.

After graduating from EWC, Beamer coached at Central high school in Silverdale, Wash. He is also track coach at Central.

Corky Bridges, who runs, passes and punts well.

The Wildcats have 13 returning lettermen and boast a veteran line including Larry McGuire, an all-conference tackle. In last year's contest, the Savages couldn't get steamed up early and were down 20-0 at the end of the first half. They came back strong to dominate the second half and just missed tying the score before losing 20-13.

Competition with Central began in 1922 and since then Eastern has won 17, lost 13 and the two teams have tied three times.

THE 1958 SAVAGES

After losing five starters in last year's line but only one back from the starting four, Eastern Coach Ed Chissus rightly decided before the 1958 season started the team's success depended on the play of newcomers.

To date, that play, especially on the inside, has been better than might be expected. The team has been bolstered by several junior college transfers who brought experience to what would otherwise have been a very young and inexperienced forward wall.

Back from last year are tackle Dick Near-ents, at 260 the biggest man on the squad, and Dave McWhirter, switched from end to guard this year. Outstanding among the newcomers are Bill Palmer, 220-pound tackle, and Hugh Altman, 205, guard.

In addition, several newcomers are giving the line depth and last year's letter winners have looked good this year. They include Ron Lehtola and Ted Schultz at guard; Rich Hilty and Alfons Alt, center; Matt Finnigan and Gary Fuller at end.

Added to an experienced backfield are some fine junior college transfers. Veterans include quarterback Jim Bauer, an all-conference selection in 1957, right half Dewey Vandinter, left half Clark Myers and fullback Jess Smith.

New to the backfield are Willie Jones, via Lewis and Clark high school and Wenatchee JC. Willie carried the ball five times in his first game for Eastern and averaged nine yards a trip. Stan Rhodes, via Central Valley high and Columbia Basin JC, packed the ball nine times against College of Idaho and netted 80 yards.

Athletic Director

W. B. "RED" REESE

"Red" Reese, athletic director and builder of Eastern's fine athletic program, is heading into his 29th year of coaching at Eastern. He has coached every major sport and built a fine record in each. While building his impressive record he donated his time and talent as president of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics in 1953, and is now the chairman of District I of the association.

"Red's" record in track is legendary. In 23 years as mastermind of the cinder squads he has brought to Eastern 19 conference trophies.

In basketball the Reese "fives" have won 12 conference titles and tied for another. He has taken four teams to the NAIA tournaments at Kansas City, one of which reached the semi-finals.

Reese graduated from Washington State in 1925, and came to Eastern in 1930 after five years of successful prep coaching at Cashmere and North Central. At North Central he won the state championship in his last season.
