W. B. "Red" Reese, is entering his 30th year at Eastern. He is now athletic director, basketball coach and track coach and during the past 29 years he has coached all major sports at Eastern.

Prior to his reign at Eastern, "Red" was a successful high school coach at Cashmere and North Central of Spokane and in 1930 won the state high school basketball championship.

At Eastern he has collected 19 track championships, 13 basketball trophies and taken four quintets to the NAIA tournament in Kansas City where one reached the semi-finals.

During the war years, he coached the second bomb brigade football team and made it one of the finest service teams in the nation.

In 1943, the team was undefeated and went on to beat Hardin-Simmons university in the Sun Bowl on New Year's day. In 1944 the team was selected to play in the Bond Bowl game at the Polo grounds in New York.

Reese is a 1925 graduate of Washington State university, a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and past president of National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Beginning his seventh year as head coach at Eastern, Ed Chissus welcomes a squad with little depth and experience, but some outstanding ball players.

Big Ed, who began his football career as a tackle for Eastern in his undergraduate years, was a successful high school coach in the Yakima valley before assuming his duties at Eastern. His high school teams won 55 and lost 21 while winning or tying for the Valley championship seven times during the seven years he coached in that league.

In the past six years at Eastern his football squads have compiled a record of 25 wins, 22 losses and 2 ties. His teams have always been noted for their tough defensive play and last year led the conference in total defense, were third in total offense and finished fourth in the conference standings.

Traditionally, Chissus teams have used the split-T offense, but this year's squad will run from the slot back-T and provide a more wide open and varied attack.

FRANK SMITH—Assistant Coach

A former Olympic junior college and Canadian professional football player, Frank Smith joins the Eastern coaching staff after a successful two years coaching in the Vancouver, B.C. Junior league.

The 1959 SAVAGES

Six starters from 1958 among 13 lettermen form the nucleus on one of the lightest squads to don the red and white in several years of Savage football history.

The largest and most experienced of the Redmen is Bill Palmer a 235-lb. all-conference tackle from Wayne, Nebraska. Palmer has played only one year of ball at Eastern, but is a veteran of service ball and earned one stripe at Wanye, Nebraska Teachers college.

Other outstanding linemen include Ted Schultz, guard, and Alfonso Alt, center, both honorable mention picks for the all-conference offensive team last year.

Gary Conner, Rich Hilty, Ron Lehtola, Bob Miner and Gary Fuller are the remaining Savage letter winners in the line and will make up this year's first team.

New to the line are freshman Gerald Richardson, guard; Pete Madsen, guard; Marvin Carroll, tackle and Harold Ellenberger, tackle. Stepping up from last year's JV squad will be Larry Liberty, end, and Paul Lerch, guard.

The backfield is led by veteran quarterback Jack England from Brentwood, Calif. Jack has lettered the past two years as a reserve quarterback and is expected to have one of his finest years as a junior. He is an excellent passer, competent runner and good field general.

At reserve quarterback will be a freshman, Mike Macaulay of Vancouver, B. C. Macaulay is a good all-around quarterback and will see considerable action this year. He should be an outstanding footballer for the Redmen before he graduates.

Other lettermen backs include Tom Meier, Jess Smith, Joe Evans and Stan Rhodes.

Meier, a speedy halfback from Kelso, Washington is a senior and played two years of ball at Lower Columbia Junior college prior to lettering at Eastern last year. He is one of the best defensive ball players on the squad and with the experience gained last year should be one of our top ball carriers this year.

Smith and Evans were both reserves last year and should see a good deal more action this year. Smith is a good offensive blocker and one of the top defensive backs on the squad. Evans is the smallest man on the team, but has the desire and hustle to handle the big boys. He is a shifty runner and a top pass receiver.

Rhodes is an all-city back from Central Valley of Spokane Valley and played one year of ball at Columbia Basin Junior college before entering Eastern. Last year as a sophomore he was hampered by injuries but earned a stripe as a defensive back. This year he will be a starter at the slot back and will see considerable action on defense.

In addition to the lettermen, the Savage backfield will be bolstered by transfers Bob Nance and Dave Crowell and freshmen Ron Van Horne, Lanny Willman and Jay Stierwalt, a 1959 Washington state high school wrestling champion.

Although the Savages will be smaller than in the past they will provide an interesting season with the new slot back-T offense and should have a better-than-average won-lost record.

ABOUT THE GAME

Welcome to Eastern's 35th annual Homecoming football game.

Although there have been many changes in our campus and student activities in the past 35 years, the major attraction at Homecoming time still remains the Saturday afternoon game.

This afternoon's ball game is a "rematch" between the Savages and the College of Puget Sound Loggers, as the two teams met in a non-conference game in September.

To date the Loggers have a three and one record and are considered favorites in today's game although they are not expected to do as well as they did in the original encounter, in which they defeated the Savages 27 to 7.

The Logger offense is led by junior quarterback Jerry Thacker who has averaged 140 yards per game thus far this season. He is a competent runner and one of the best passers in the Evergreen conference. Another Logger junior, fullback Dick Pruitt, has been an all-conference choice the past two seasons and gives the CPS offense power up the middle.

Nationally the Loggers are ranked second in passing offense among the small colleges and last week they proved they are tough defensively by stopping highly touted Whitworth, 6 to 0.

The Savages, who have had trouble combining their offensive and defensive performances, are a young team with only three seniors listed.

After a slow start they defeated Western Washington college two weeks ago and last week outplayed the Wildcats of Central for an entire afternoon only to be defeated on three miscues which resulted in an 18 to 12 loss.

Eastern's offense has been led by the running of Tom Melier and Stan Rhodes and the passing of Jack England and freshman Mike Macaulay. Rhodes has been a standout on kickoff and punt returns and last week Melier gained 113 yards against the tough Central line. England and Macaulay have completed 40% of their passes and gained 475 yards on 33 completions.

The Savage defensive line, led by Captain Bill Palmer, has proved to be real tough with little of the opponents' yardage gained up the middle. Because of a lack of speed, the defense has been vulnerable to the pass and wide runs.

The Redmen, who have taken their share of lumps this season and have a vivid memory of their first encounter with the Loggers, can be counted on to play one of their best games today. All things considered, we can expect to see a good ball game on the part of both clubs.
Continued

1952, played four years of high school football at Vancouver College prep prior to attending Olympic junior college in 1951.

He entered the Canadian pro Western league in 1953 as an offensive guard and linebacker for the Calgary Stampeders and played for the Edmonton Eskimos when they won the Canadian professional championship in 1954.

Smith retired from the professional ranks and entered coaching after an early season injury in 1957.

Here at Eastern Smith will handle the line coaching duties and assist head coach Chissus in the defensive department.

EWC LETTERMEN BACKS

JACK ENGLAND, Quarterback, 5'10", 175, Brentwood, Calif.
A junior with two years' experience, England has proven himself as a passer, runner, punter and field general. He is expected to provide the leadership and ability to make the Redmen go.

JOE EVANS, Back, 5'7", 155, Bonners Ferry
A sophomore halfback, Evans lettered last year and displayed speed and desire which should make him one of this year's outstanding backs.

BILL LAVIGNE, Back, 5'10", 172, Cheney
An ex-service man who hasn't played college ball for two years, LaVigne is a tough defensive back and good reserve quarterback.

TOM MEIER, Back, 5'10", 175, Kelso, Wash.
A senior fullback who played junior college ball at Lower Columbia JC, Meier has lettered one year at Eastern. He is a good blocker, hard runner and has the hustle to be an excellent ball player. He is one of the top defensive men on the squad.

STAN RHODES, Back, 5'10", 170, Greenacres
A former all-city back from Central Valley, Rhodes played one year of ball at Columbia Basin JC. He lettered at Eastern last year, but was hampered by injuries for most of the season. He is a hard runner and a good defensive back.

EWC 1959 BASKETBALL PROSPECTS

Coach W. B. "Red" Reese optimistically welcomes eight returning lettermen to the Savage basketball team, when practice workouts began October 15.

After a fine season last year, Reese feels that the experience and maturity gained by the young ball players will make this year's quintet one of the toughest in the conference. However, he feels Eastern may be a little short of the conference championship.

Reese, who is looking for his five-hundredth victory this year, will build his squad around a nucleus of one senior, two juniors and five sophomores. The squad will not be the tallest in the conference, but will have some height and enough speed to counter the big clubs from west of the mountains.
