PENNY EDWARDS—"MISS TIPARILLO"

What does she mean "cigars...cigarettes...Tiparillos"?

You'll be hearing that chant more and more—now that Tiparillos have arrived. And arrived they have. In all the right places. With all the right people.

The new Tiparillo has a neat, trim shape. It looks young and debonair. And its pearly, pliable tip pays more than lip service to your smoking pleasure.

And never before such mildness! The most careful blending of choicest imported tobaccos has seen to that. So, too, has the exclusive, veinless Ultra Cigar Wrapper* that burns so evenly and smoothly it insures complete mildness.

You can even see the mildness. The surprisingly whiter ash is visible evidence. Smoker's proof. Here is flavor you don't have to inhale to enjoy.

"Cigars . . . cigarettes . . . ?" Who knows, maybe someday it will be just "Tiparillos!"

Why don't you ask for one today?

*T.M. GENERAL CIGAR CO.

Tiparillos are on sale at this stadium.

BASKETBALL

First Home Game

Dec. 14

EWSC vs. Seattle Pacific

ABOUT TODAY'S GAME

Today's game shapes up as a contest that will go a long way toward deciding the Evergreen Conference championship. Central Washington State, last year's undefeated champions, is 4-1 in conference games this year, its lone loss a 20-7 upset by Eastern in the opening conference game.

Eastern is 3-2 in conference games, along with Pacific Lutheran University and Whitworth College; Western Washington State is 2-3 and University of Puget Sound, 0-5.

Although the Savages tripped the Wildcats in their first game, Eastern is again the underdog in this second game with Central.

Both teams come into today's game off impressive wins, Central with a 20-0 victory over Whitworth, and Eastern a 36-20 win over UPS.

An Eastern win today would put the Savages in a tie with Central at 4-2. In other games today, Whitworth is at PLU and UPS at Western. Looking ahead to next week, Central meets PLU while Eastern is at Western in the final conference games of the season.

The series with Central goes back to 1922, and in 41 games, Eastern has won 18, lost 20. Three games ended in ties.

Each team will probably start freshman quarterbacks, Butch Hill for Central and George Cross Jr., for Eastern. Bob Clark, the Savages' senior signal caller, injured in the PLU game, is expected to also see action.

There will also be changes in the remainder of Eastern's backfield. Mel Stanton, who aggravated an earlier ankle injury in the EWSC-UPS game, and played only half the game, is expected to be near full strength and will start at one halfback spot. Freshman Ernie Packebush will be the other half, and Keith Sterling will be at fullback.

Basketball Opens Under New Coach

Basketball Coach Ernie McKie

More than 50 players have turned out for basketball at Eastern under new head coach Ernie McKie. It is the largest turnout in many years.

Seven lettermen, several top transfers and a number of promising freshmen are included in the turnout for McKie's first year at EWSC. He succeeded W. B. (Red) Reese as head basketball coach when Reese retired this spring after 34 years at the college.

McKie came to Eastern from Cathlamet High School, the state class B basketball champions. He was B basketball coach at Central Valley for three years where his teams won 57 and lost only three games.

A 1950 graduate of EWSC, McKie has an overall basketball coaching record of 300 wins to only 99 losses for a .750 average.

Back from last year's team are lettermen Bill Brite, 6'5"; Dave Hansen, 6'1"; Vince Jarvis, 6'5"; Mike McGuire, 6'3"; Gene Nelson, 6'6"; Ralph Sharp, 5'11", and Jim Tutton, 6'.

Eastern opens Nov. 27-28 in Vancouver in the University of British Columbia tournament, then goes to Ellensburg Dec. 3-4-5 for the Evergreen Conference Tip-off Tourney.

A road trip to Montana, where the Savages meet Western Montana College in Dillon Dec. 11, and Carroll College in Helena, Dec. 12, will precede their opening home game Dec. 14 against Seattle Pacific College.
