EASTERN WASHINGTON PACIFIC LUTHERAN

The Eastern Washington Savages shoot for their third win of the season tonight at Woodward Field in their home opener after four straight games on the road, as the Red Raiders host the Pacific Lutheran Gladiators from Parkland.

The Lutes, once again coached by Marv Harshman, one of the finest mentors in the Northwest, are unbeaten in Evergreen conference play. Spark of the Gladiators is quarterback Tom Gilmur, one of the league's finest passers. Gilmur, a coolheaded signal-caller gets plenty of help in the Lute backfield from Galen Nusbaum and Johnny Fromm.

Coach Ed Chissus' Savages will be in good shape except for left halfback where Ron Sullivan will see limited action because of a pulled abdominal muscle. The Redmen will probably have George Foster at quarter; Myron Rassmussen at right half; Keith Mortensen at fullback with Dewey Van Dinter replacing the injured Sullivan at left half.
