Eastern Washington College

vs.

University of British Columbia

The EWCE Savages tonight are gunning for their first conference victory, and second victory of the season, while the UBC Thunderbirds are shooting for their first conference win in Evergreen conference history.

The two top running backs of the conference will be running against each other tonight when Thunderbird Bruce Eagle, 180 pound halfback, who is the conference leader with an average of 5.9 yards per carry, meets Ron Sullivan, Eastern, who has a record of 4.5 per carry.

The Savages are minus the services of three regulars and one reserve tonight due to injuries. Out with injuries are tackles Dick Nearants with a torn knee cartilage and Gene Siegel with a sprained ankle. Reserve center Don Anderson is out for the season with a sprained knee, and halfback Dewey VanDinter is out with a torn hip muscle which he received on the first play of the game against Carroll college.

Due to injuries and in hopes of finding a winning combination, coach Ed Chissus has shifted his starting lineup and will be starting freshman Pete Nelson at fullback in place of Keith Mortenson, and converted fullback Dick Huston at center in place of Dick Hollenbeck. John Sande and Jim Bauer will alternate at the quarterback spots, with Gary Davis, Clark Myers and Ron Sullivan working in the halfback spots. Ends will be Ron Sperber and Bernie Hancock, and at the guard slots will be Jack Collins and Ron Mensinger.

Next week the Savages take on the Whitman Missionaries here at Woodward field, starting at 1:30 p.m. for their Homecoming game. The game is a non-conference affair.
