W. B. "RED" REESE Athletic Director

W. B. "Red" Reese, is entering his 30th year at Eastern. He is now athletic director, basketball coach and track coach and during the past 29 years he has coached all major sports at Eastern.

Prior to his reign at Eastern, "Red" was a successful high school coach at Cashmere and North Central of Spokane and in 1930 won the state high school basketball championship.

At Eastern he has collected 19 track championships, 13 basketball trophies and taken four quintets to the NAIA tournament in Kansas City where one reached the semi-finals.

During the war years, he coached the second bomb brigade football team and made it one of the finest service teams in the nation.

In 1943, the team was undefeated and went on to beat Hardin-Simmons university in the Sun Bowl on New Year's day. In 1944 the team was selected to play in the Bond Bowl game at the Polo grounds in New York.

Reese is a 1925 graduate of Washington State university, a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and past president of National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

ED CHISSUS—Head Coach

Beginning his seventh year as head coach at Eastern, Ed Chissus welcomes a squad with little depth and experience, but some outstanding ball players.

Big Ed, who began his football career as a tackle for Eastern in his undergraduate years, was a successful high school coach in the Yakima valley before assuming his duties at Eastern. His high school teams won 55 and lost 21 while winning or tying for the Valley championship seven times during the seven years he coached in that league.

In the past six years at Eastern his football squads have compiled a record of 25 wins, 22 losses and 2 ties. His teams have always been noted for their tough defensive play and last year led the conference in total defense, were third in total offense and finished fourth in the conference standings.

Traditionally, Chissus teams have used the split-T offense, but this year's squad will run from the slot back-T and provide a more wide open and varied attack.

FRANK SMITH—Assist. Coach

A former Olympic junior college and Canadian professional football player, Frank Smith joins the Eastern coaching staff after a successful two years' coaching in the Vancouver, B. C., Junior league.

The 1959 SAVAGES

Six starters from 1958 among 13 lettermen form the nucleus on one of the lightest squads to don the red and white in several years of Savage football history.

The largest and most experienced of the Redmen is Bill Palmer a 235-lb. all-conference tackle from Wayne, Nebraska. Palmer has played only one year of ball at Eastern, but is a veteran of service ball and earned one stripe at Wanye, Nebraska Teachers college.

Other outstanding linemen include Ted Schultz, guard, and Alfons Alt, center, both honorable mention picks for the all-conference offensive team last year.

Gary Conner, Rich Hilty, Ron Lehtola, Bob Miner and Gary Fuller are the remaining Savage letter winners in the line and will make up this year's first team.

New to the line are freshman Gerald Richardson, guard; Pete Madsen, guard; Jimmy Nelson, end; Marvin Carroll, tackle and Harold Ellenberger, tackle. Stepping up from last year's JV squad will be Larry Liberty, end, and Paul Lerch, guard.

The backfield is led by veteran quarterback Jack England from Brentwood, Calif. Jack has lettered the past two years as a reserve quarterback and is expected to have one of his finest years as a junior. He is an excellent passer, competent runner and good field general.

At reserve quarterback will be a freshman, Mike Macaulay of Vancouver, B. C. Macaulay is a good all-around quarterback and will see considerable action this year. He should be an outstanding footballer for the Redmen before he graduates.

Other lettermen backs include Tom Meier, Jess Smith, Joe Evans and Stan Rhodes.

Meier, a speedy halfback from Kelso, Washington is a senior and played two years of ball at Lower Columbia Junior college prior to lettering at Eastern last year. He is one of the best defensive ball players on the squad and with the experience gained last year should be one of our top ball carriers this year.

Smith and Evans were both reserves last year and should see a good deal more action this year. Smith is a good offensive blocker and one of the top defensive backs on the squad. Evans is the smallest man on the team, but has the desire and hustle to handle the big boys. He is a shifty runner and a top pass receiver.

Rhodes is an all-city back from Central Valley of Spokane Valley and played one year of ball at Columbia Basin Junior college before entering Eastern. Last year as a sophomore he was hampered by injuries but earned a stripe as a defensive back. This year he will be a starter at the slot back and will see considerable action on defense.

In addition to the lettermen, the Savage backfield will be bolstered by transfers Ray Herron and Dave Crowell and freshmen Ron Van Horne, Lanny Willman and Jay Stierwalt, a 1959 Washington state high school wrestling champion.

Although the Savages will be smaller than in the past they will provide an interesting season with the new slot back-T offense and should have a better-than-average won-lost record.

ABOUT THE GAME

The 1959 edition of the Eastern football squad opens the season against the tough, experienced College of Idaho Coyotes.

Leading the Coyotes will be quarterback Charlie Alvaro, the leading passer in the Northwest Conference last year.

With Alvaro are veteran starters at all positions plus a 210-pound end in Jo Ho, a transfer from Boise junior college.

Coach "Babe" Brown's T-formation features the passing of Alvaro and the speed and power of halfback Ken Broke and fullback Gary Lappin.

The veteran line will be led by Jerry Ball, a 210-lb. tackle from Caldwell, Idaho, who has lettered three years for the Coyotes.

Coach Brown has depth and experience at all positions and says the Coyotes will be better today than they were at the end of last season, when they finished fifth in the NWC.

The Savages will be slightly bigger than the Coyotes with a team average of 195 lbs. compared to C of I's 185. However, the weight advantage comes in the back field, with both lines averaging 197 lbs.

The Savages have only six returning starters among 13 lettermen. The line will be strong offensively and should be fairly strong defensively depending on the production of some untested freshmen and sophomores.

In the backfield, the Redmen have speed and power in the running of Tom Meier, senior halfback from Kelso, and Walt Burnett, junior transfer from Seattle by way of Olympic junior college.

Bill Palmer is the largest and most experienced of the Savage linemen at 235 lbs. Palmer wears only one Eastern numeral, but is a veteran of service ball and was an all-conference choice last year at defensive tackle.

Other returning lettermen include Alfons Alt and Ted Schultz, both honorable mention picks from last year's Savages.

This afternoon will be the unveiling of Coach Ed Chissus's new offense, which will be more wide open and explosive than the traditional split-T teams of the past few years.

Following today's non-conference game the Savages will travel to Tacoma to meet the College of Puget Sound in another non-conference tilt next Saturday and then open conference play on October 3 against the Pacific Lutheran College Gladiators in Tacoma.

Conner

Fuller

ALFONS ALT, Linebacker, 5'9", 165, Bonners Ferry, Idaho

Junior center, honorable mention All-Conference 1958. One of last year's outstanding defensive ball players, Al plays a rugged, steady game. In addition to defense duties, Al will probably place-kick and kick-off for the team.

GARY CONNER, Tackle, 6', 215, Walla Walla

A junior, two-year letterman, Conner is expected to be one of the stalwarts of this year's line. He is big, aggressive and has the experience to become a tough defensive tackle.

GARY FULLER, End, 5'11", 170, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho

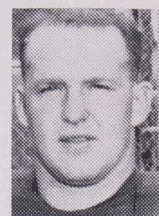

A senior end with speed and agility which make him hard to cover, Fuller can be considered one of league's top receivers. Fuller is also one of the Northwest's top hurdlers and placed in the National NAIA meet last spring.

Hilty

Lehtola

Miner

RICH HILTY, Center, 6', 200, Colfax, Wash.

A junior with two years' experience, Rich will probably be starting center with the offensive unit. He is quick, blocks well and is at his best when the chips are down.

RON LEHTOLA, Guard, 5'8", 220, Spokane

A strong stocky guard from Rogers high school, Lehtola has played two years of varsity ball for the Savages. He was a starter most of last season and is expected to see full-time duty again this year.

ROBERT MINER, Guard, 5'7", 170, Spokane

A sophomore with one year's college experience, Miner played high school football at Rogers and four years' service ball with the Air Force. A competent reserve last year, he is making a serious bid for a starting berth this year. He is a good offensive blocker and tough on defense.

BILL PALMER, Tackle, 5'11", 235, Wayne, Neb.

A junior letterman, all-conference choice last year, Palmer is one of the top linemen in the league. He is tough on defense and has speed and agility which make him a real good offensive blocker.

TED SCHULTZ, Guard, 5'11", 195, Harrington

A senior two-year letterman, Schultz was an honorable mention all-conference pick last year. He is a strong defensive player and works to perfection on his offensive assignments. Should be one of the top guards in the conference this year.
