About Tonight's Game

Eastern, the only undefeated college team in the area, takes on another undefeated team tonight, Eastern Oregon College of LaGrande.

EOC has had only one intercollegiate game, that one last Saturday against Whitman College in Walla Walla. EOC defeated Whitman, 49-24.

EWSC, on the other hand, has had two wins. The first, a 32-18 victory over powerful Willamette University in Salem, Ore., earned "Athlete-of-the-Week" award of the Inland Empire Sportswriters and Broadcasters (SWABs) for offensive-quarterback defensive safety Bill Diedrick, and National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics district 1 "Back-of-the-Week" honors for Don Strate.

Last week's 24-0 win over cross-state rival Western Washington State in an Evergreen Conference game earned the Savages the "Team-of-the-Week" award.

Tonight's non-conference game isn't the first between Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington. The first contest goes back to 1930, which Eastern won, and won again in 1931. These two games are the only football contests between the two colleges.

EOC head coach Arch Dunsmoor has an outstanding halfback in three-letter senior Reilin Schimmel who three times went for long yardage and touchdowns against Whitman last week. Schimmel ran 29, 61 and 21 yards for TDs.

EWSC head coach Dave Holmes will go with the same starting lineups he used against Western Washington. However, the Savages will be without the services of senior letterman George Enie, who suffered pulled leg ligaments in the Western game and is out for the season.

YOU NEVER GET TIRED OF

The Rocket Action Cars are out front again!

After you've walked off with all the honors,
what do you do for an encore?

Meet Olds Toronado—'67 edition.

Awards for this. Awards for that. Awards for just about everything. But rest on its laurels? Not Toronado. Swinging new look outside. Posh new detailing inside. Doors with torsion-bar spring assists that open easier than ever to the flat-floored, room-for-six interior. Even that fabulous front-wheel-drive ride is smoother and quieter for '67. And front disc brakes and radial ply tires are available. Trend-setting Toronado: Proved and applauded by tens of thousands of satisfied owners. Greater than ever the second time around!

DRIVE SAFELY

Olds thinks of your safety, too, with the GM-developed energy-absorbing steering column that can compress on severe impact up to 8¼ inches; with four-way hazard warning flasher; outside rearview mirror; dual master cylinder brake system, plus many other safety features—all standard for '67.

Engineered for excitement . . . Toronado-style!

W. H. Davis (left), Alcoa's General Manager—Industrial Relations, says: "We've found that Army ROTC graduates with active duty experience as officers possess better than average initiative, foresight, and responsibility. These are qualities we rate very highly, and we gladly pay a premium to get them."

Why did Alcoa hire Rod Wilson?

Because Alcoa needs men to fill key positions—men capable of moving to the top; men who seek and measure up to responsibility. Rod Wilson is that kind of man. An Army ROTC Distinguished Military Graduate at Colorado State University, Rod won an officer's commission in the Regular Army along with his degree. Forty-four months of active duty, including 16 months overseas as an artillery commander, earned Rod Wilson 24-carat credentials as a leader, a man schooled in the demanding disciplines of command, the kind of man Alcoa looks for.

If you're this kind of man, prove it to yourself, and to the companies like Alcoa who are looking for you. How? Get in Army ROTC. Stay with Army ROTC, all the way to success.

Savages in the Spotlight

DICK ZORNES, senior letterman from Vancouver, Wash., is team captain, chosen by his teammates, and is defensive field captain. Zornes, a three-letter winner, is defensive halfback.

BILL DIEDRICK, Spokane sophomore quarterback, won "Athlete-of-the-Week" award by Inland Empire Sportswriters and Broadcasters (SWABs) for fine defensive and offensive work against Willamette.

DON STRATE, senior Davenport letterman, is Eastern's leading ground gainer. He was named NAIA district 1 Back-of-the-Week for his efforts in Eastern's 32-18 win over Willamette.

CHEER FOR MILK'S VITALITY

Put Vitality on your team... drink milk! A glass of cool, refreshing milk with meals and snacks helps see you through the busiest fall schedule. No other beverage helps you get the lasting energy found only in nature's Vitality drink... Milk. You'll cheer for milk's Vitality.
