The Women's Center is for Everyone

Welcome to the Women's Center. We have a new staff this year who look forward to continuing the Women's Center tradition of being an active place. As in previous years, we will be having noon programs. You are encouraged to bring your lunch to the Center and eat while enjoying a host of films, panel discussions, and other programs. As always, we encourage your programming suggestions.

September 30th from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. there will be a reception for new women faculty and staff. The reception will be held in the Women's Center with refreshments provided. Come meet our new staff and greet the new women faculty and staff.
