Congratulations to Sherrie Helm who is taking a position with the Spokane Center for Higher Education. We will miss her excellent programming at the Women's Center. Goodbye and goodluck!

Wednesday, May 4
DAY CARE TODAY. Jean Payne, Spokane District 17 Parent Coop Coordinator, discusses the importance of quality day-care for the well-being of the child as well as the parent. Her focus will be on the dilemma working mothers face in finding child care that meets their standards and the guilt they experience when they are not able to do so. This discussion will follow the film "Day Care Today." 12:00 Noon.

Thursday, May 5
FITNESS ATTITUDE CAMP - Eileen O'Donnell, Camp Director, will give an overview of activities during F.A.T. Camp, July 24-29 and August 7-12, 1983, held at EWU. 1:00 p.m.

Friday, May 6
JAPANESE COOKING WITH TOFU. Join Yoko Hoekendorf in learning the many different ways of cooking with tofu, a food extremely high in protein and low in cost. 12:00 Noon. To be held in Hargreaves Food Lab.

Tuesday, May 10
Film: GEORGIA O'KEEFFE. At ninety, artist Georgia O'Keeffe discusses for the first time on film her work, her marriage to photographic pioneer Alfred Stieglitz, and the couple's involvement in the modern art movement in America. 12:00 Noon.

Wednesday, May 11
Film: GERTRUDE STEIN: WHEN THIS YOU SEE REMEMBER ME. This film portrays the writer's Paris years (1905 to the 1930s) and the creative world she shared with contemporary artists. 1:00 p.m.

Thursday, May 12
Film: ROBERTA FLACK. Black vocalist and pianist displays her repertoire of music with excerpts of performances at the Newport Jazz Festival and night club appearances. Also, discusses her personal life, childhood, and the music business. 12:00 Noon.

Also, on Thursday, May 12, the film "UNION MAIDS" will be shown. The film is a vivid oral history of women in the struggle to form unions in the 1930's and 1940's. 3:00 p.m.

Monday, May 16
DAY CARE COOP ON CAMPUS. Children, parents, students, and faculty are invited to a brainstorming session for a future daycare cooperative at EWU. We need to know what you would like to see on campus in childcare services. Discussion will be lead by Joan Niemann, Professor, Applied Psychology, and Gina James, Associated Students President. 1:00 p.m.

Tuesday, May 17
WOMEN AND SMOKING. The effects that smoking has on women will be discussed by Dr. Arthur Madsen, Spokane Cardiologist. The American Cancer Society will provide free literature on this health issue. 1:00 p.m.

Thursday, May 19
WOMEN'S STATUS IN TRIBAL SOCIETIES. Discussion with Elwyn LaPoint, Professor, Anthropology. Students in Women's Studies, Anthropology, and Sociology will find this topic of particular interest. 1:00 p.m.
Tuesday, May 24
BARB QUE WITH JIM MARSHALL. Weather permitting, Jim will cook Barbequed Brisket outdoors. Sign up at the Women's Center. $2.00 ensures your reservation. 12:00 Noon.

Wednesday, May 25
Film: DIET UNTO DEATH: ANOREXIA NERVOSA. Four young women discuss their struggle to overcome anorexia nervosa. The film also explores some causes of the emotional disorder and includes a demonstration of innovative family therapy techniques. Produced for ABC for "20/20." 1:00 p.m.

Thursday, May 26
Film: THE WAR AT HOME. Examines the anti-Vietnam War movement in the U.S. from the perspectives of men and women involved on college campuses in the 1960's. 12:00 Noon and 7:00 p.m. in Kennedy Auditorium.

Tuesday, May 31
Film: WOMEN IN CENTRAL AMERICA. A powerful portrayal of the daily life of rural and urban women in Central America, this half-hour slide/tape show examines the role of the U.S. and the effects of war on Central American women. 1:00 p.m.

Wednesday, June 1
Film: RAPPACCIINI'S DAUGHTER. Nathaniel Hawthorne's story of supernatural "romance" exemplified his conception of the "unpardonable sin": exploiting another human being to serve one's own ends. From the American Short Story series. 12:00 Noon.

DISCUSSION/SUPPORT GROUPS MEETING AT THE WOMEN'S CENTER:
Men's Growth Group, Women's Support Groups, and Gay Rap Group. If you are interested in any of these groups, please call the Women's Center.

Our art exhibit for the month of May is BATIK by META GIBBS. If you are interested in exhibiting your work or know someone who might be, please let the Center know.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:
Betty Schmitz, Director of the Northern Rockies Program on Women in the Curriculum, Montana State University, speaks at 9 a.m., April 29, Kingston Auditorium on "Women's Studies and Curriculum Integration in the 80's." A reception follows at 10:00 p.m. Call the Women's Center for complete schedule of Integration Colloquium.

Thursday, May 12 - "COMMUNITY BUILDING: WOMEN OF A SMALL COLLEGE TOWN" will be presented at Cheney City Hall, 7:30 p.m. This program is a culmination of a Women's Programs oral history project funded by Washington Commission for the Humanities and EWU Centennial Committee. Over 60 Cheney women were interviewed and taped. Project directors: Lee Swedberg, Dixie Massengale and Norma Smith. Admission is free.

Watch for a display of new Women's Studies books at the library starting April 15th.

WWU 1993 Annual Meeting
Washington Women United will hold its annual meeting Saturday, May 7, in the Spokane Convention Center. Highlights include: workshops, banquet, and exhibits. Seattle's Jennifer James, researcher and counselor in the areas of social and personal change, will be the keynote speaker. More information available at the Women's Center.

All Women's Studies minors and persons considering a Women's Studies minor are invited to a supper at Lee Swedberg's home at 5:30 p.m., May 6th. Instructors of Women's Studies courses are also invited. It's time we got to know our students better! If you are interested in coming, please call the Women's Center and get directions.

We are still in the process of updating our calendar and newsletter. If you know someone who is not presently receiving the calendar but would like to, please share our phone number and address with them.