SEVENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY
COMMEMORATIVE PROGRAM E. W. U.
ARCHIVES

Ruth Cheney Streeter, the 75th Anniversary Commencement speaker, is the granddaughter of Benjamin P. Cheney who donated the land and one building that became Eastern Washington State College.

For a number of years, Mrs. Streeter has been a resident of New Jersey. In the 1920's and 1930's she took an active part in health and welfare work in New Jersey.

With the beginning of World War II, she became the first Director of the Marine Corps Women's Reserve and served in this capacity for nearly three years. She was then known as COLONEL Ruth Cheney Streeter, and under her direction the Women's Reserve grew to 18,000 enlisted women and 1,000 officers.

"SOME REFLECTIONS ON GREATNESS" is the title of her Commencement address.

Degree Candidates

"Appearance of a name on this program is presumptive evidence of graduation, but it must not in any sense be regarded as conclusive. The diploma of the College, signed and sealed by its proper officers, remains the official testimony of the possession of the degree."
