Camp near Franklin La.
March, 14. 1864

Dear Parents

It has been sometime since I received a letter from home but got one from Orpha
a day or two ago.

Capt. Cline has resigned on account of ill health and started home yesterday. I should have have written a
few lines by him but
had not time & thought it would go about as soon by mail. Siggett arrived here yesterday and is in fine health and spirits. He got in all twelve recruits. My Boots came this morning by mail.

and I am very well pleased with them the only trouble is they are a little high in the instep, & by the way just while I am speaking of this if you have anything else to send me by mail direct to Sergt Leggett in my care then you can send it at home instead of letter postage and it will cost but a trifle

But be sure to send a letter by mail at the same time so I may know who they are for.

We have a fine camp here and have been enjoying it finely but suppose we will leave soon or move on I don't know where but we are so far on the same route we traveled last fall and will likely proceed on to Texas or at

ives
as far as Irene Port
but no one seems to know anything about it. There is several thousand cavalry connected with the expedition and if we find any rebels and I suppose we will
it is not likely the
the infantry will have much fighting to do
But I write this in very great haste & must close it now before the mail goes out Write soon & after to your affectionate
son

Dear Parents:

It has been some time since I received a letter from home but got one from Orpha a day or two ago.

Capt. Cline has resigned on account of illl health and started home yesterday. I should have written a few lines by him but had not the time and thought it would go about as soon by mail. Liggett arrived here yesterday and is in fine health and spirits. He got in all twelve recruits. My boots came this morning by mail and I am very well pleased with them. The only trouble is they are a little high in the instep and by the way, just while I am speaking of this, if you have anything else to send me by mail, direct to Sergt. Liggett in my care than you can send it at book instead of letter postage and it will cost but a trifle but be sure to send a letter by mail at the same time so I may know who they are for.

We have a fine camp here and have been enjoying it finely but suppose we will leave soon and move on, I don't know where but we are so far, on the same route we traveled last Fall and will likely proceed on to Texas or at least as far as Sreve Port but no one seems to know anything about it. There is several thousand cavalry connected with the expedition and if we find any rebs and I suppose we will, it is not likely the infantry will have much fighting to do but I write this in very great haste and must close it now before the mail goes out.

Write soon and often to,

Your affectionate son,

Thomas.
