Dear Parents,

Yours of June 16th is the first news from home that I have received since the 9th of June. I am still in good health and so are those who are from my reg. If you received my letter written two months since, read it, suppose it to have this date, and it will answer every purpose of one written now so monotonous is it here. Write soon if more than before.

Tell Is to keep in as good health as ever I saw him.

Give the dates of the letters you receive from me. This is the first I have written for two months. I may perhaps if kept here may not get the next two months.

My warmest love to all your affectionate Son,

T. D. Evans

Dear Parents:

Yours of June 10th and Orpha's of June 9 came to hand to-day, the first news from home since March. I am still in good health and so are all who are from my Reg. If you received my letter written two months since, re-read it and suppose it to have this date and it will answer every purpose of one written no so monotonous is it here.

Write soon and more than before. Quill is in as good heal as ever I saw him. Give the dates of the letters you receive from me. This the first I have written for two months and perhaps if kept here may not for the next two months.

My warmest love to all.

Your affectionate son,

T.L. Evans.
