Washington State native, Joshua Lindberg is an upcoming educator, conductor, and performer. He is a first year graduate student pursuing a Masters of Music in Instrumental Conducting studying under Dr. Donald Goodwin at Eastern Washington University. Lindberg holds two bachelor’s degrees in Music Education and Piano Performance graduating cum laude.

As a classical pianist, Lindberg has competed in and won several music competitions. Recently he was awarded the Gold Medal for his performance of the Shostakovich Piano Concerto No. 2 in the collegiate concerto division of the MusicFest Northwest Festival in 2011. Lindberg taught in the Pasco School District in Pasco, WA and has maintained an active piano studio where he taught in Kennewick Washington, and was appointed head piano teacher of the Columbia Music School in 2009.

Additionally, Lindberg has played clarinet in the EWU Wind Ensemble, jazz piano in the Repertory Jazz Ensemble, has sang Tenor in the Symphonic Choir, and served as the Drum Major of the Eagle Marching band. He has also served as the Co-President and President of the EWU Collegiate MTA Chapter.

Justin Peterson currently serves as a Graduate Assistant for Mr. Andy Plomondon and the Trumpet Studio of Eastern Washington University. When not performing or teaching at Eastern, Justin can be heard performing throughout the Inland Northwest with a wide array of groups and has recently performed with the Bob Curnow Big Band, the Spokane Civic Theatre, and for the annual Royal Fireworks Concert in Spokane.

Prior to his appointment at EWU, Justin was a freelancing and collaborative musician in Denver, CO. There he served as principal trumpet for multiple theatre companies including the City of Aurora Musical Theatre Company and Inspire Creative. The award - winning Justin Peterson Sextet was often featured on KUVO, Denver’s local jazz station, and a mainstay of Denver’s Dazzle Jazz Restaurant and Lounge.

Embracing both classical and Jazz Idioms, Justin played regularly with the Denver Philharmonic Orchestra and The Denver Brass. Justin has also toured the country with the Symphonic Anime Quartet, a philanthropic and education outreach program for young musicians. Justin has been a featured soloist with the Queen City Jazz Band and the Claim Jumpers Jazz Band touring and performing throughout the United States. Justin Peterson was also invited to perform for His Royal Highness Prince Harry at a private reception.

When not performing, Justin loves to take in new films, enjoys the outdoors, the company of great friends, and the shenanigans of his dog Sadie.
