ABOLISH WAR STRONG PLEA OF DR. HARPER

Armistice Day Speaker Says All Should Cooperate Toward Goal of Peace

Scientists, Financiers, and Newspaper Men Can Help to Develop International Peace

Declaring that the time has come for a strong demand to be made upon the world for the reform of the international system, Dr. Charles H. Harper, a speaker at the Armistice Day ceremony, said that scientists, financiers, and newspaper men have a responsibility toward the development of international peace.

The Armistice Day program was held at the Normal School, with Dr. Harper delivering his address.

The Armistice Day program was held at the Normal School, with Dr. Harper delivering his address.

The speaker, who is well known for his work in the field of international relations, stated that the world is in a state of unrest and that a strong demand must be made for the establishment of a system of international cooperation.

Dr. Harper also urged the development of international education, stating that it would be a powerful tool in the development of international understanding.

He further stated that scientists, financiers, and newspaper men have a responsibility toward the development of international peace, as they have the knowledge and influence to make a difference.

The speaker ended his address by saying that the time has come for all people to work together for the establishment of peace.

CHIEFTAINS TIE EUSTIS' MEN IN HARD GAME

Normal Team Takes Offensive Through Out, But Fails to Make Customer Yardage

The game was played on a slippery field, which caused several unforseen difficulties. The Chieftains took the offensive throughout the game, but were unable to make a significant impression on the Eustis' defense.

The game ended in a tie, with both teams gaining valuable experience.

SONG BOOK DRIVE

Many of the songs book in the student body are assemble in the auditorium, and every day during the week, the Rev. Joel Harper of Spokane, who is well known for his work in the field of music, gives a lecture on the subject.

The purpose of the lecture is to acquaint the students with the importance of music in the development of character and in the formation of a well-rounded individual.

The lectures are well attended, and the students find them to be both informative and inspiring.

MISS KINNIKINICK

Annual Must Be Self-Supporting

The Kinnikinick, which is the annual yearbook of the school, must be self-supporting.

The students and faculty are working hard to sell copies of the yearbook, which goes to print in June.

The price of the yearbook is $2.00, and every student is urged to reserve a copy now.

The yearbook contains information about the school and its events, as well as photographs of students and faculty.

The proceeds from the sale of the yearbook will be used to cover the cost of printing and other expenses.

WILL HAVE INDIVIDUAL PICTURES IN YEARBOOK

Each student will have a picture in the yearbook, and the yearbook will be filled with individual pictures of students and faculty.

This will provide a unique and personal touch to the yearbook, allowing students and faculty to cherish their memories from their time at the school.
The national State Normal School is the talk of the community – another evidence of the growing interest in the good hearty songs spirit.

We must keep the old Savage characteristics in our home. I am only your servant carrying out your wishes. Therefore if at any time you have some new idea of how we should study the spirit of the school, do not hesitate to present your idea. Remember your spirit is developed and maintained by constant encouragement and persistent effort of the entire student body.
