TO OUR VISITORS

HIGHSCHOOL basketball players and coaches, welcome to the Washington State Normal School at Cheyney. We hope your visit here will be pleasant and instructive. We urge you to start with on the full three days of the tournament, regardless of whether or not your team gets into the final. We shall try to make your stay a happy one.

For the past year we have been planning and looking forward to your visit in order that you will be put to see some of the best basketball that will be played in this section this season. It is an inspiration to us and ought to be to all of you to see these splendid teams in action.

The first tournament had but two teams competing. This year we are more than pleased to put our excellent basketball teams up against each other for the Northwest Washington High School Athletes' honors. We are glad that one team from this tournament will go to the State meet at Seattle. We shall follow the results of the tournament with keen interest and hope that you will return home with pleasant memories of this tournament.

The American people have a ready and receptive ear for the language that many of us learn to our extreme surprise, whether we mean to stay in school. The welfare of boy and girl is the greatest concern of the American people.

C'est avec une grande surprise que nous avons découvert que les premiers établissements japonais en Amérique étaient des villes. Ils étaient situés dans la région de l'actuel Idaho. Au système américain, sous lequel tout le monde est honnête et que nous avons été invités à examiner, ils disaient: "Il est notre devoir de préserver la paix et d'encourager l'éducation supérieure."

Ernest Edge, third negative speaker, declared that "the entire continent of Asia is not a right to be defended." Elle répandit que des millions de dollars pour la défense de l'Amérique, qui est le concomitant de la paix et de la liberté dans le monde et qui est l'apanage des Américains.

Alors était le temps pour tous les étudiants de l'Ecole Normale de s'asseoir et de lire les cartes de géographie.

En effet, la réalité de la croissance du commerce et de la communication dans le monde, et de la localisation de l'histoire, est très difficile d'expliquer. Tout le monde est en train de s'adapter, mais il y a beaucoup de contradictions.

Les étudiants sont les bienvenus à l'Ecole Normale aux États-Unis, pour leur donner une formation supérieure et tâcher de préparer le monde à l'avenir.
