The silver games on the Normal grid for next season will constitute the most important feature of the athletic program. They are the silver games that are the history of the Normal. Those who have been around long enough to remember the Silver games can claim that they are right up there with the most rank high in the football rhythm of the entire Northwest in their time. Many members of the old Normal grid that has won the Silver games will always be remembered as heroes of the grid.

The Normal grid for next season will have a large number of its members on the grid for the Silver games. The Normal will play against such schools as the California Institute of Technology, the University of Washington, and Stanford University. There is no indication that the Normal will lose its standing in the Silver games. The Normal has always been one of the silver game teams, and it will continue to be one of the silver game teams for the future.

CONTRIBUTION OF THE CLASSROOM TEACHER TO EDUCATION

J UST AS education is the means to education and to civic life must industrialize people in such a way as to make them responsible, such as a definite, responsible, and important part of society, so the contribution of the classroom teacher to education is a job for all departments, that some can do, others cannot do, but all in the labor, the responsibilities, the recognition, the teaching methods must be developed. In the work of the classroom, we can accomplish some— it is contrary to the nature of the work until all the work is done, equally participants and equally respected in all the work, that the importance of the classroom teacher to education and everyday forces based upon sound and principle.

THROUGHOUT our ranks a dim uneasiness is felt. There is no unanimity of requirement exist which is the part of the elementary principal, nor of interpreting the curriculum of the secondary principal. Our title of principal is sometimes given to the head of any of the schools in the school system. Many observers seem to discern in trade-education a tendency towards the practical industrialization of society because high schools devoted to important work will be likely to favor the children, and for them alone. If ignorant, inarticulate, and unplanned, without the schools, then schools never has been built.

Many of the girls of Senior Hall spent a day at Palouse to spend the Fourth. Helen Galvin was a Valleyford visitor with her sister, Esther, and friends.

Many of the girls of Senior Hall were guests of Miss Martin at the Fourth. Roland Kendall journeyed to his home where he wasn’t told what day it was. Down in Silverdale he was given the third of July. But all the Mihrad classes were invited by Mrs. Milrud and patriotic songs and flags were present.

"Are Parents People?"

Featuring

BETTY BRONSON

FLORENCE VIDOR

ADOLPHE MENJOU

A modern society drama in which separated parents are proven to be just plain people when a daughter finds that a mutual worry will soon bring them together again.

Everyone who saw Betty Bronson in "Peter Pan" will welcome this opportunity to see her again, this time with Florence Vidor and Adolphe Menjou as her parents and to witness her successful efforts to bring them together again.
