MONUMENT TO MARK SITE OF MILITARY ROAD

Will Be Located at Crossing of Old Mol- lan Road and Chen- ney-Spangle Highway

MARKER TO BE BUILT OF BASKAL

Bronze Tablet With In- scription Has Been Fitted Up by State Historical Society

The proposed monument will be a small stone tablet located in the eastern section of western Oregon. It is to be set on a post 12 feet high, with a stone base. A dedication ceremony will be held in the spring of the year. The tablet has been for- matted and will be ready for installation in the spring.

The road was built by Capi- tol Mall John of the United States, between 1860 and 1862. It is said that the construction of the road was a great success and that it opened up the eastern section of the state to settlement.

Laughter, Thrills, Drama in "The Crowded Hour"

For combining real laughs, thrills, and theatrical drama, "The Crowded Hour" has been a hit. It is a comedy that has been well received by the audience.

"The Crowded Hour" was written by the director for the Broadway stage and is now being produced in the city. The play has a cast of 12 actors, all of whom are experienced stage performers. The setting is in a city street, with a large crowd of people walking by.

The plot involves a man who has been jilted by his fiancée and is looking for a new beginning. He meets a young woman who is also looking for a new start, and they decide to go on a trip together. The trip is filled with adventure and romance, and the two fall in love.
