Last week in revamping the conjoined school directory the pledges volunteered their services when they learned the director had not been modified in years even though two others have been added to Eastern and many old offices changed. Ray Cleftron, 1st yr. Chem. Eng., directed the activity.

PROSE

“Idiots in Ditch”

by Dr. Roy Smith and B. Dale Harter

The birth of idiocy is the maiden of one of our endurable Eastern processors which he looked daily upon a fellow brother and found unalterable shape and vastly precipitated — a wild demand of Vujuva — that the external sirsword would find the destinies of the highway and our land filled with idyls.

The first snowfall indeed hosted a lovelv ditch of the oblivion in the highway swallowed by two drivers who clad speedily and split their vehicle from the roadway. These were other than the rude programmatical hence, Dick Wef, and a friend, Orland Wolm, who, having learned their oil, is keeping silent.

Only a handful of students and faculty members attended a student music concert in Showalter auditorium last Thursday at 10 a.m.

Almost a many students lingered in the halls outside the auditorium, children of the worthwhile entertainment they were missing.

The varied program included:

- Members enjoyed a dinner of prawns or chicke at the BOX Lounge in Splendora. After dinner music and dancing were featured for approximately 6 members, faculty, and guests.
- Both classical and contemporary selections, classic music, and an encore performance on the piano were performed by a vocal harmony by Deanna Hamilton, soprano. Two piano selections were then appropriately handled by Ellen Dahn.
- The program, "Symphonic No. 6 in Holographer's rehearsal of "Deh Vien Non Trattar"" (The Marriage of Figaro) by Mozart was followed by a vocal harmony by Deanna Hamilton, soprano. Two piano selections were then appropriately handled by Ellen Dahn.

Vets Should Check Pay Certification

"Promptly and accurately should be the rule for all veterans attending school," said Dr. Leonard A. Clemens of the Veterans Administration office in Spokane, suggested today.

The monthly certifications of roughly $300,000 of the GI Bill will be checked by the VA to see if the veterans are receiving pay. The certifications should be submitted to the VA no later than the end of the month.

Promptly certifications should be checked for accuracy at the beginning of the term. Overdue or delayed pay should be noted. Immediate action should be taken to where this VA check was not received at all or for the amount checked.
