Do You Think for Yourself?

(SEE WHAT THIS TEST TELLS YOU ABOUT YOURSELF?)

Do you turn down an unusual opportunity if it would alter a previously held plan for the future? YES NO

Do you feel your education would suffer if book and notes were allowed at examinations? YES NO

Do you think that a public official should do what the voters want him to do, even though he personally may feel it is wrong? YES NO

Can you honestly say you enjoy a game or sport as much whether you win or lose? YES NO

Do you let other people tell you what filter cigarette to buy for you rather than make up your own mind? YES NO

If you have answered "NO" to six of the three questions— you are a man who thinks for himself!"
LOOKING UP

With Al Ryder

Baseball is back for the interregnum conference for another year. Everyone is waxing nostalgic about their team and the games played in the conference during the winter months. "The baseball season is still a few weeks away," says Al Ryder, "but I can already see the excitement building up for the upcoming season." Ryder, a long-time fan of baseball, predicts that the upcoming season will be one of the best in recent memory.

Seattle Pacific First Hoop Foe

Eastern Washington State will have plenty to worry about this season as they prepare for their upcoming conference. The Eagles will be facing some tough competition, including the Seattle Pacific University Falcons, who are expected to be one of the top teams in the conference this year. The Falcons have a strong lineup and have been consistently competitive in recent years.

Changes Made At Fall League Meet

Allie Mae Kuchenbecker, University of Washington head coach, made some changes to her team for the fall season. "I wanted to bring in some fresh faces," said Kuchenbecker. "I think it will be good for the team to have some new blood." The team is looking forward to the new season and is excited about the changes that have been made.

Pacific Youth

Pacific Lutheran's youth league has been very successful this season. "We have a lot of潜力ous young players," said the coach. "They are working hard and are improving every game." The league has been well-received by the community and has helped to bring the community together.

Bauer Tops Statistics

Topp had just scored his 100th goal of the season, a milestone that he has been working towards all year. "I'm really happy to have reached this milestone," said Topp. "It's been a long season and I'm glad to have contributed to the team's success." The team is currently in the thick of the playoff race and is hoping to make a strong push for a championship.

Marksmen Not So; Lose ToGubby40

Despite a strong showing from their opponents, the Marksmen were unable to come out on top in their recent match. "We were outplayed in every aspect of the game," said the coach. "We need to work on our defense and improve our overall performance." The team is looking forward to their next match and is determined to bounce back from this setback.
