150 To Come For Clinic

More than 150 students are expected to attend the first Junior Washington College clinic on the campus January 24.

Spring break and school demands will delay the usual Saturday session which will extend the clinic through the morning hours.

The clinic will be organized by the student Washington college faculty under the direction of the Eastern Washington College Music Association.

James C. Rush, 1932, will be the chairman. He will be assisted by Dr. Harold H. Hett of Walla Walla High School, school chairman for the Washington State University Wesleyan College, and a number of other faculty members on and off campus.

The program will include singing, speech material, and dramatic presentations which will be planned by faculty, students, and members of the community.

Vets Request Raise

The EWC Veterans clubs have submitted a petition to request increased compensation for service on the college campus.

According to Mike Bays, the veterans, who believe this campaign is necessary, are asking for $2,000, which is the minimum amount needed to cover the cost of the campaign.

This position is held by the Vet's Cabinet, which is comprised of 17 students, with only one member of the cabinet being a veteran, according to Mike Bays.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

On the January 24th, 1959, copy of The Easterner appeared an article by Tom Buchanan, ASB Treasurer called "Give Weller Voice Your Parks Are Fabulous." I hope you receive this and take my complaints and information. It is current in all of its contents or else you and your staff should have been given a fine administrative punishment. Mr. Buchanan on his broad presentation of the article that he completed with the mention of the word fabulous seems to me far more that make sure that his presentation was good. Good presentation is, of course, to bring to our student body and others who read it the best job possible. If there are any complaints we wish that we and-or your student council representatives heard no complaints.

I also congratulate you on publishing a broad presentation of the kind of information it is necessary to bring to us, which is why we should not have been heard no administrative complaints. I also congratulate you on publishing a broad presentation of the kind of information it is necessary to bring to us, which is why we should not have been heard no administrative complaints.

The only thing I would like to say that the students of EWCC, their libraries, history, etc.

Sincerely yours,
William Van Camp

Bachelor Play Director, Cast Give Thrilling Performance

The Bachelor club play "Desperate Devils" presented on the Wednesday night of the 29th of October by Sophomore director casted a thrilling performance to the entire student body.

The setting was brilliantly done by means of a gilded stage and props. The entire student body was filled with applause at the end of the play and the applause was encored by the student body. A champion, of the play was given to me by the student body. A champion, of the play was given to me by the student body. A champion, of the play was given to me by the student body.

The student play "Desperate Devils" was well performed by the sophomore student body and it was one of the best play performances in the history of EWCC.

Hoosters Split on Road; Take Second With Upset

A Friday night loss to the Crusaders of Providence LeFavre, and a loss by a score of 81-79 against the Eastern Washington College Senators, put our first place, but the 74-69 upset over the Central Washington Wildcats gave us a 0-1 record for the season. The Eastern Washington win was the first home game of the season, and the LeFavre loss was the last away game.

The loss to the Crusaders was the biggest to the Sagehills. They were defeated by the LeFavre team 74-69. In the first half, LeFavre led by 36-26, and in the second half, they increased their lead to 69-60. The Crusaders scored 39 points in the first half, and 30 points in the second half. The game was held at the Sagehill gymnasium, and was attended by 700 spectators.

Eastern Head Coach, Mr. Robert Smith, said, "We were unable to translate our home court advantage into a victory. We played well in the first half, but in the second half, we were unable to maintain our lead. The Crusaders are a strong team and we have to improve our defense in the future." The next home game for the Sagehills will be against the Central Washington Wildcats on Saturday night.

Tall Cougars Down JVs

A scrappy team of BVUJ put up a good battle from the start of the game. They were down 45-34 by a crowd of 81-79 against the Eastern Washington College Senators. In the second half, BVUJ came back to within 15 points, but they were unable to overcome the deficit. The game was held at the BVUJ gymnasium, and was attended by 100 spectators.

Delaware Out

The team of freshman guard, David Dobrow, was big enough to the Sagehills. They were defeated by the LeFavre team 74-69. In the first half, the Sagehills led by 36-26, and in the second half, they increased their lead to 69-60. The Crusaders scored 39 points in the first half, and 30 points in the second half. The game was held at the Sagehill gymnasium, and was attended by 700 spectators.

Delaware Head Coach, Mr. Robert Smith, said, "We were unable to translate our home court advantage into a victory. We played well in the first half, but in the second half, we were unable to maintain our lead. The Crusaders are a strong team and we have to improve our defense in the future." The next home game for the Sagehills will be against the Central Washington Wildcats on Saturday night.

EW Casers Host UBC Friday

Eastern昆仑ans will be looking for their fourth straight win over the Thunderbirds of the Western University of British Columbia. The Thunderbirds have won the last three meetings between the two teams, but EWU is looking to make it four in a row.

The Thunderbirds are coming off a loss to the Simon Fraser Clan, while EWU is coming off a win over the Idaho State Bengals. The Eagles are looking to continue their winning streak and move closer to the top of the GNAC standings.

The game will be played at the EWU Coliseum, and will be attended by 2,000 spectators. The weather forecast is looking good, with temperatures in the mid-70s and no chance of rain.

The Eagles are currently in second place in the GNAC with a 7-3 conference record. They are looking to solidify their position in the conference and move closer to the top spots.

The Thunderbirds are in third place with a 6-4 conference record. They are looking to make a run for the conference title and move closer to the top spots.

Both teams are looking to make a statement in this game, and it will be an exciting game to watch.

The game will be televised on ESPN+ and will also be available for streaming on the ESPN+ app.

Looking Up

The first place outcome of the preseason tournament is a true testament to the talent and depth of the Eastern Washington College Senators. The team played well in all three games, and their solid performance will give them the confidence to face any adversity.

The Pacific Northwest Conference is now in full swing, and the Sagehills are off to a strong start. They have won three straight games, and their defense has been stout. The team is looking to continue their winning streak and move closer to the top of the conference.

The Sagehills are currently in first place in the conference with a 3-0 conference record. They are looking to continue their winning streak and move closer to the top spots.

The Sagehills are in third place with a 2-1 conference record. They are looking to make a run for the conference title and move closer to the top spots.
