The budget for Student Union Programming is a new budget. The funds from this budget are to be used for improving the services to the students in the student union. This request came from the Student Union Board of Control, with (Continued on page 2)

DON WILLIAMS, FATHER

Baby Girl, born Friday, May 22, at 2:25 p. m. Deaconess hospital in Spokane, to Mr. and Mrs. Don Williams. Baby's name is Kathryn Elaine. Its weight was seven pounds 14½ ounces.

Don Williams is assistant in student personnel at Eastern.

Ted Teitzel, 22 year old musician from Chehalis, Washington, recently won the Ruth Sampson Ayers award of $100 for an organist in the Young Artist Class. Ted is a music major at Eastern and studies the organ with Robert Koe.

Eastern Oregon President To Speak At Graduation

Dr. Frank B. Bennett, president of Eastern Oregon college, will speak at commencement exercises in the field house Sunday at 2 p. m. His topic will be "Our Concern for the Gifted."

Mrs. Hazel Laughon, member of the Eastern Washington college board of trustees, will present degrees to 157 students. Dr. Don S. Patterson, EWC president, will preside at the ceremony.

Candidates for the BA in education division. Dr. Jack R. Leighton, head of the physical education division, will present the BA candidates and Dr. Raymond P. Whitfield, director of graduate study, will present the master of education candidates.

Chorale To Sing

The college chorale under the direction of Wallace B. Peley will sing Mozart's "Gloria" from "Twelfth Mass," and the college concert band under the direction of W. W. Thomas will play "Opus 45" by Beethoven.

Father Arthur Mertens, pastor of the St. Rose of Lima Catholic church in Cheney, will deliver the invocation and benediction.

Candidates for the master degrees include: Callie T. Carlson, Bernard M. Iverson, Donald S. Johnson, Marian A. Morgan, Verda R. Renner, Margaret W. Safranek, Patrick J. Vitulli, Robert L. Pryor and Maxine C. Davidson, all of Spokane; Sandra A. Clark and Patricia A. Smith, both of Cheney; Marvin D. Smith, Opportunity; Andrew M. Gray, Newport; Merle R. Craner, Benge; Ruby E. Maher, Post Falls, Ida, and Raymond M. Lawrence, Brawley, Calif.

Senior Plans Completed

Eastern Washington seniors will receive degrees next Sunday for the work they have completed during their school days in college.

But the seniors' final act as students starts today at the annual senior breakfast in Louise Anderson hall at 9 this morning. At this breakfast all of the graduating seniors will meet together to prepare for the commencement practice at the basketball court in the field house.

The seniors have definitely decided to have the commencement exercises in the field house regardless of how nice the weather is. They felt that the weather is entirely too unpredictable to enable them to tell whether or not it will be possible for the commencement to be held outside. They also felt that this plan should make the commencement practice "easier and better for all concerned."

After the commencement practice this morning the seniors have planned a picnic at Sutton park located near the field house or if the weather is bad the affair will be held in the Student Union.

The seniors are reminded that they must pick up their caps and gowns before Friday.

One hundred and forty-one seniors will receive degrees at commencement exercises May 31. C. W. Quinley, Jr., registrar, said today that 104 students will receive the bachelor of arts in education degree and 37 will receive the bachelor of arts degree.

Eleven students are graduating with high honors. They are Ruth C. Collier, Deanna S. Hamilton, McLaren L. Harris, Vern F. Lewis, Carol A. Manfred and Ruth W. McMullin, all of Spokane; Faye R. Lucke, Kennewick; Mary Morgan, Richland, and Barbara K. Morrow, Sunnyside, BA in education; and Lester Shaw, Grangeville, and Kuang-Fan Chang, Formosa, BA candidates.

9 With Honors

Nine seniors, all BA in education candidates, are graduating with honors. They are John P. Bigelow, Kenneth M. Bumgarner, Donald F. Davidson, Claudia M. Lynn, Norma J. Staudacher and Mary Wham, all of Spokane; Doris M. Barclay, Liberty Lake; Beverly J. Glidden, Lewiston, Ida, and Masako Sawada, Japan.

Oty ROTC Queen; 450 Attend Dance

An estimated 450 persons danced to the music of Joe Elson and his band.

A lavish party theme was the center of the Ball decorations. More than 1500 balloons seemingly hung in mid-air over the dance floor, while a beautiful center piece adorned the center of the Ball floor. Rising on a six-foot platform was a flowing fountain in the middle of four sculptured-ice swans, each weighing in the vicinity of one ton. Blue lighting highlighted the glamorous center piece, and Queen Judy's blue and silver decorated throne.

Party type tables were done in the blue and silver decorations, as was the bandstand.

Queen Judy was selected from a group of 23 Sponsors, on a popular vote of the cadets. She was escorted by Daniel Miller.

Cadets, Sponsors, their dates, and honored guests attended the party type Ball from 8:30 p. m. to 12:00 midnight in Martin hall.

Beaudreaux is Spurs 1958-59 President

Shirley Beaudreaux was elected president of the newly formed organization, the Spurs. The group will resume the activities of the now disbanded Tawankas.

Tawankas held their last meeting Monday May 18 and joined the Intercollegiate Knights in honoring the New IK's and the Spurs at a coke party May 19.

Uniforms for the Spurs will be white wool shirts and blouses with red blazers and shoes. The emblem of the group will not be worn by this pledge class because EWCE is on probation for one year.

The officers to fill the cabinet are: Kay Newland, vice president; Kathy Carter, secretary; Betty Biehl, treasurer; Janet Morrow, editor; and Dorene Rosenbaum, historian.

Linton Named Top Cadet At ROTC Achievement Day

Cadet Colonel James E. Linton, a senior from Walla Walla, was named the outstanding cadet and the outstanding senior at Eastern's military achievement day ceremonies last Friday.

Linton received the C. A. Batelliffe company award as the outstanding cadet selection for an excellence in military leadership, aptitude, intelligence and superior performance of duty.

Hallbritter Awarded

Outstanding second year cadet award went to Cadet Sgt. Fred Hallbritter, and Cadet Lt. William Bumgardner received the outstanding military science III award.

Cadet Colonel Ronald Campbell was awarded the outstanding second year advanced cadet medal. Cadet Colonel Karl Nehammer was named the most aggressive cadet for his contribution to the corps.

Three Sponsor corps awards went to senior Sponsors. Patty Jean Shinbo was named the outstanding Sponsor. Merrie Jane Haney and Judy Acree received the Sponsor Corps commander's award of a silver saber and scabbard.

Marksmanship awards went to three freshmen cadets for their rifle accuracy. Cadet Cpl. Richard Knowles received a gold medal for the highest score recorded. Cadet Pvt. Roger Bean won a silver medal for the second high, and Cadet Pvt. Charles Braden won a bronze medal for third high score.

Superior Awards

Named for superior endeavor

in military leadership, and academic standings were Cadet Captain Michael Poitras, Cadet Second Lt. Doug. Cresswell, and Cadet Cpl. David Acree. They were awarded Superior Service cadet ribbons.

Five cadets were named outstanding in military science subjects. Cadet Colonel Kent Matheson was chosen for high proficiency in material as a senior cadet. Junior cadet award for tactics went to Cadet Second Lt. James Smith, and the outstanding freshman cadet in light weapons was awarded to Cadet Cpl. Knowles. Two sophomore awards went to Cadet Sgt. Kendal Morley for map reading, and to Cadet Sgt. Hallbritter for gunnery.

The Captain James A. Coomes award went to a cadet in each class for being outstanding in dismounted drill. Cadet Fred Boutz won the M. S. I drill award for his performance as a member of the drill team. Cadet Sgt. Robert Short, Cadet Lt. Cresswell, and Cadet Captain Carl tolz took the military science II, III and IV awards respectively.

"C" Top Company

Company C, commanded by Cadet Captain Stolz was named the brigade's top company. Company E, commanded by Cadet Captain Michael Ryan won the best platoon and best squad competition during the morning drills. The platoon led by Cadet Lt. Cresswell was judged best, while the squad led by Cadet Cpl. Jon Driessen received the award for E company.

Boatman Booked For Jazz Concert In Spokane May 31

Jazz Pianist Armand Boatman and his Sextet will present an afternoon jazz concert at the Riverside theater in Spokane on May 31. The concert is scheduled for 3:30 p. m. Admission is free.

Armand Boatman

The concert will feature some of the groups new arrangements as well as some of the numbers they presented at the Jazz Workshops earlier this year.

At the show jazz enthusiasts will once again be able to hear some of Eastern's finest musicians playing some of the best jazz this side of "Brubeck." In the sextet are Bill Sanders, flute and tenor sax; Phil McClintock, alto-sax; Bill Watson, drums; Kyle Pugh, bass; Tom Hill, trumpet, and Ellis Evans, trombone.

Tachibana Heads AWS

Janiece Tachibana was installed as the 1958-1959 president of the Associated Women Students. The installation program was held Thursday, May 21, in the Louise-Anderson hall lounge.

Janet Morrow was announced as the outstanding freshman girl of the quarter. She was chosen from a field of two other candidates—Esther Kunitake and Shirley Beaudreaux.

The traditional bracelet was presented to Judy Gibson, the outstanding senior woman. Her name also was engraved on the plaque which is in Showalter.

Crafts were presented to Miss Douglas, the advisor, and Karen Wheeler, the past president by the girls.

SUB Cafeteria Closed; EWC Students Comment

Question — What do you think of the Cafeteria being closed so long?

Chuck Stewart—"It was the only place I could conveniently purchase my lunch. As a commuter it is the only real value I get out of the Union for my $5.00.

Dick Blair—"It cuts down on the social life. ... forces us to eat downtown on Sunday.

Don Stevens—Showed poor planning on the part of somebody.

Ron Zimmer—"I don't like it, they should have it open by now—shows poor planning.

Kyle Pugh—"It has certainly been closed long enough—helped to continue the "dead-ness" on campus.

Allis Morris—"Remodeling was necessary but should have had adequate plans before they began the work.

Cic Myers—"It looks like they leaped before they looked.

Larry Lang—"The whole idea of remodeling during this quarter was out to lunch! Very inconvenient.

Frank Leedle—"It is a poor time for remodeling, showed all the earmarks of bureaucracy.

Barbara Rowe—"I'm tired of going without Sunday dinner because I'm too lazy to walk downtown.

Gamon Accepted At Medical School

Ken Gamon, Spokane, has been informed that he has been accepted at the University of South Dakota Medical School next fall, said Dr. Dana E. Harter, chairman of the division of science.

Mr. Gamon is a senior majoring in mathematics and chemistry with minors in physics and biology.

This makes the second student of Eastern to apply and be accepted for further study in the field of science, Dr. Harter added.

In April, the Easterner reported that Robert Harris was granted a National Science Foundation fellowship at the University of Washington.

Station Signs Off

Radio station KEWC will end another successful year of broadcasting on campus this Friday, said station manager Bill Bumgardner.

Next year the station will broadcast from its new quarters at the student union. KEWC has been at its present site since 1952.

Applications for next year's staff are now being taken. Students interested in announcing, copy writing, news gathering and reporting are urged to contact Bumgardner for positions on next year's staff.

"We had an excellent staff this year," stated Bumgardner, Frank Clark, Paul Aust, Frank Leedle, Barbara Rowe, Dick Heckroth, and Jim O'Donnell for all the work they have done this year.

LETTERS . . . To The Editor

OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF EASTERN:

I would like to express my gratitude to the people of Eastern for making the foreign student's "Pot Porri" such a success and especially Don Williams, who assumed the responsibility and arrangements.

Through the combined efforts of the foreign students at Eastern, the people were treated to a balanced exhibition of songs, dances, costumes and customs of other countries.

The function netted $46.20 which was turned into a foreign student fellowship fund to help bring another foreign student to our campus.

Anyone interested in contributing to this fellowship, may still turn in their contributions to either Don Williams or myself and we will see that it is deposited to the fellowship.

Yours in gratitude
 Miss Alice Kessler,
 Foreign Student Advisor

an original request for $9000. The finance committee pared down this request because this would be the first time that the budget would be in existence, according to Rich Hilty, ASB treasurer.

Eleven Budgets Cut

Eleven of the eighteen budget requests were cut from the original figures submitted by the persons responsible.

Other action of the finance committee was to approve the allocation of necessary funds, not to exceed $1500, for the purpose of sending five delegates to the U. S. National Student Association 12th national congress in Champaign-Urbana, Illinois. The convention will take place this summer from August 20th through September 3rd.

Delegates scheduled to attend the congress will be Tom Ennis, ASB president; Don Duncan, ASB vice president; Paul Hooper, campus NSA coordinator; Rich Hilty, ASB Treasurer and Maggie Jeffers, ASB activities coordinator.

Ennis was also given approval by the finance committee to use up to $300 during the summer months to be used for the purpose of compiling and printing publications to be used by student government next year.

At the finance committee meeting, the last session of which lasted until 12:15 a. m. Friday, approval was given to Ann Johnston to purchase dishes and equipment required for improving student union food service in the amount of $2981.91. According to Miss Johnston, food service manager, this was the amount necessary to completely stock the food service area.

Brophy's News Highlights

By Bill Brophy

In my last column I predicted that due to the present stalemate in military power between the east and the west, the two super-powers might find it to their mutual advantage to reach a settlement, if only temporary, on some of the more dangerous issues between them.

Basic to such a settlement would be a secret agreement dividing the world into separate spheres of influence. I now appears that the current meeting of Big Four Foreign Ministers is moving rapidly in this direction. The reason for the haste is obvious; the Soviet Union feels that if such a "deal" must be made, the Communist world can sweat better terms out of a "lame-duck President" and a short-term Secretary of State than they could expect from any new administration which might be elected in 1960.

Debate Begins

The Conference began with the now famous debates over the relative merits of round vs. square tables. Ridiculous as it sounded to the layman, this question and the manner in which it was settled have tremendous significance. The real issue, of course, had nothing to do with the shape of table to be used. The question was, "Will Germany be seated at the table, and if so, which Germany?" As even an incoming Freshman can tell you a square table has only four sides, and with one of the Four Major Powers sitting at each of these there could be no place for Germany.

The agreement on a round table limited to the Four Great Powers is the key to the coming world settlement. Neither Germany will be represented at the conference table, but both will be present—only as advisors. Both sides demonstrated a great willingness to compromise, and to disregard completely the rights and the wishes of the German nation.

Proposals Made

Next, the Soviet Union and the United States made their final and maximum proposals for settlement of "the German Question." Both proposals were summarily rejected by the opposite side. The stage was set for the 20th Century "Peace of Augsburg".

The proposal by Mr. Gromyko that since a workable plan for unification of Germany seem impossible both the U.S. and the U. S. S. R. should sign separate peace treaties with both Germanies seems to be the cornerstone of the coming settlement, and the headstone over the grave of the German Nation.

Step Taken

By the time this column appears in print the United States will probably have taken the fatal step toward appeasement by proposing that all further meetings of the Foreign ministers be held behind closed doors. In reality this has already been the case. Several private meetings have taken place over lunch and cocktails without press coverage and without representatives of either German state being present.

It is too early to be certain of the trend of events, but it now appears that the coming "Peace of Augsburg" will call for: The division of the World along the present Outer Perimeter of Western defenses into Spheres of Influence guaranteed by the two Super-powers. A ban on Nuclear weapons. (Since neither side dares use them now anyway, such a ban would be meaningless, intended only to appease pacifist and humanitarian elements in Europe and Asia. Limited trade between East and West. A peace treaty between the former Allied Powers and representatives of both Germanies. Some sort of disarmament agreement or limitation of armaments seems likely. (Both nations face financial ruin due to tremendous defense budgets, and the main advantage of such a settlement is the opportunity somehow to reduce these outlays in order to invest in capital expansion.)

Such a settlement could result in one of two things: It could result in the end of Militant Communism just as the Peace of Augsburg took the starch out of militant Lutheranism; or it could allow the Soviet Union to surpass and overpower the United States, eventually destroying her. The outcome will be in the hands of our generation.

Bermuda Shorts Discussed By ASB

Discussion at last week's student council meeting ranged from Bermuda shorts to the Vienna Youth Festival, as the last business meeting chaired by retiring ASB president Graham Johnson.

The meeting began with comment from the council on a recent ruling from Eva Johnson, dietitian in charge of Louise Anderson dining hall. Many of the members of the council disagreed with her recent ruling concerning the prohibition of men wearing Bermuda shorts. Graham Johnson informed the council that he would discuss the matter further with Miss Johnson. ASB officers made no direct comment on the matter; however, Johnson, Betty Muraoka and Don Duncan all were attired in Bermuda shorts for the meeting.

As a result of last week's Koffee Korner discussion on the Vienna Youth Festival, the council was sounded out on their feelings toward sending one individual from EWCE, though not representing the college, to the Festival. This was merely a request for opinion from the council as a representative group of college students, and not a request for financial backing.

This was the not on which the last business meeting of student government ended the deliberations for the year. The group was almost evenly divided on the question.

During the meeting, Stan Rizzuti (Gary Hall) representative, introduced the representative from Gary Hall for next year. Rizzuti led the round of applause for the representative, which turned out to be Stan Rizzuti.

IR Book Drive Begins This Week

The International Relations club announced that its annual drive to collect books for needy Asian students begins this week.

According to Masako Sawada, club president, cartons will be placed in the dorms and in Showalter hall, and students wishing to contribute to the program may deposit books there.

The books sent to Asia by the U. S. aid the Asian students and scholars to better understand the American way of life. Through better education, these students can better evaluate the misinformation spread throughout the far East by powers hostile to the U. S.

The different types of books needed are: University, college and secondary level books in good condition, published after 1945. Works by standard authors, published before and after 1945. (Examples of standard authors are: Dickens, Hawthorne, Hemingway, Plato, W. James and T. Huxley.) In the secondary level, all categories except foreign languages are needed.

The Asia Foundation is a non political organization founded by private American citizens. The Foundation supports individuals and groups in Asia who are working for educational, cultural and community development. The Foundation maintains 18 offices in Asia, from Japan through Southeast Asia to Afghanistan.

International Relations club members are hoping that all Eastern students will do their share in this book drive. They expect to have the collection boxes filled several times before the end of the quarter.

Art Press Now On Sale

With the appearance of volume 7 of the ArtPress, this student magazine enters a new and exciting period. From the money realized by its sale (25¢ a copy), the editors hope to be able to award small prizes to the best pieces of fiction, poetry, or art submitted for the next issue.

The magazine is generally issued four times a year, once during each quarter and once during the summer session. The editors are anxious to make this magazine the true expression of the best literary and graphic arts talents of our college and community, and anyone who has a manuscript or piece of art work is invited to submit it to the editors.

Ritter Literary Editor

As stated by its literary editor, Jess Ritter, Jr., "Generally, the ArtPress has no fixed editorial policy. The editors seek imaginative literature, without any restrictions on subject matter. However, this Spring issue of the ArtPress contains a special section devoted to the writer's consciousness of the Atomic Age." Thus, the magazine now on sale on the campus should be of vital interest to everyone.

The editors hope all students will find this issue stimulating. They invite your critical comments and contributions. If you are unable to contact the editors personally, submit your literary material to Jess Ritter, Jr., Department of English; send your art work to Robert Hanrahan or Carl Morrison, Department of Art.

Alumnae Prominent

Eastern Washington college alumnae hold prominent offices in the Washington State Council of Administrative Women in Education, according to Miss Daphne Dodds who attended the state council meeting Friday and Saturday, May 15 and 16 at Wenatchee.

Mrs. Helen C. Woody, guidance consultant, Everett, retiring board treasurer, gave a considerate and pertinent report on scholarships as incentives for professional advancement in administration.

Miss Barbara Lou Larson, Marysville; Miss Daisy Beemish, assistant principal, Sultan, and Miss Alice McGrath, Ephrata, well represented Eastern in this state educational leadership program.

At Saturday's luncheon meeting, state representative Iva Anderson's address, "Inside-Outside Russia," drew quick affirmation regarding the problems facing us as weighed by Mrs. Anderson during her recent visit in Russia.

Plans For Final Grades and Exams Are Announced

"All English Composition final examinations will be held at the hour that the final would normally be held for that class. In the examination schedule that appears on page 11 of the Schedule of Classes, it states that all Eng. 103 classes will day, June 3, from 12:30 to meet at one time on Wednesday, 2:20. This line should be deleted from the spring quarter final examination schedule. The only classes that will meet at special times will be Hum. 203, Nat. Sci. 102, Nat. Sci. 103, and Soc. St. 109."

"Natural Science 102 will have the final examination in Showalter Auditorium on Wednesday, June 3, from 12:30 to 2:20."

Spring Grades

"Those students who wish to have their spring quarter grades mailed to them will be required to put a stamp and their address on an envelope provided by the Registrar's office. The envelope will be near the Registrar's Office door, S216, and will be available day and night.

Students will print on the envelope their name and the address where they want their grades mailed. They shall also affix a 4 cent stamp (7 cents if they wish their grades sent air mail), and drop the envelope in the slotted box by the Registrar's Office, Room S216.

Grades will not be mailed to those who do not leave a stamped, addressed, envelope.

Grades may be picked up on the second floor foyer, Showalter Hall, on or after registration day for those not wishing them mailed.

This new method of distributing grades will be in effect during all future quarters, including summer school.

Summer Camp Beckons 27 Cadets

Capt. Oscar Padgett announced the authorization of orders for 27 ROTC cadets to report to Fort Lewis, Washington, June 20 for six-weeks of summer camp.

Capt. Padgett said the 27 advanced corps members will spend the time from June 20 to August 31 in learning the field application of principal subjects taught in the classroom. He said the cadets can learn the use of their weapons, maps, and tactics in the classroom, but the actual application of them is afforded good opportunity during the six weeks encampment at Ft. Lewis, Wash.

The summer program gives the cadets an actual look at day-to-day living in a military encampment and pertinent post regulations.

Stevens and Nelson Lts.

James L. Stevens and Robert L. Nelson will receive their commissions in the Army following their completion of summer training. Stevens will be commissioned into the Army reserve, while Nelson will be commissioned into the regular Army, Quartermaster corps.

Others receiving orders to report to Ft. Lewis for the summer encampment are: Richard Anderson, Paul Aust, Armand Boatman, Robert Brumbly, William Bumgardner, Bernard Carlson, Ace Cossairt, Douglas Cresswell, Wayne Fleming,

English Dept. Announces New Setup

The English department has announced that there will be a change in the English program next fall.

All freshman English classes will meet three days each week. This includes English 104, 105, and 106. There will be no X or Y sections. However, a small group of students will go into an advanced (Z) section. All other students who pass the entrance examination will be in English 101. Those who fail will have to retake the test or pass English 299 (the extension class).

New Course

Pre-engineering students may take a new course, English 208, Technical Report Writing, for English 103. This course is also designed for students who wish to take an additional course in writing.

Students in freshman English will get more individual attention than before. Instructors will schedule several 20 minute conferences each quarter with each student, the number of conferences varying with the student's need.

Track Crown Goes To Whits, Eastern 2nd

AWARD WINNERS—These four varsity athletes received baseball and track awards at the annual Intercollegiate Knights' spring sports banquet last week. (l-r) Del Bareither, baseball most valuable player; Randy Auvil, baseball inspirational award; Bill Palmer, diamond team captain; and Gary Fuller, track team captain and an outstanding trackster award.

Six league records fell Saturday afternoon as Whitworth college won the Evergreen conference track title for the second straight year. The Pirates finished with 88 1/3 points to second-place Eastern's 79 1/3.

Western Washington finished a strong third with 69 1/3. The University of British Columbia had 31, and Pacific Lutheran had one. The College of Puget Sound failed to score.

Records fell in the first four events of the day, the shot put, broad jump, mile and 440 yard dash. Later the half mile mark fell, and the meet ended with the mile relay being broken. A seventh mark, the high hurdles, was equalled.

Warren Lashua bettered the 51 feet 5 1/2 inch mark he had set in the qualifying round the day before, by more than a foot. This time he bounced one off the short retaining wall, and the heave was measured at 52 feet 7 inches.

New Broad Jump Mark
Jim Klein, Pirate team captain and high man in the meet with 29 points, set a new standard in the broad jump. He topped the 22 feet 9 1/2 inch mark held by Ollie Wright by seven inches, going 23 feet 4 1/2 inches.

He also picked eight more points with a 149 foot 10 1/4 in. discus throw, enough for first place. He shared first place honors in the high jump with Sam Guley, also of Whitworth, at 6 feet 2 inches. A third in the 100 yard dash and a fifth in the high hurdles gave him his 29 point total.

Clyde Carpenter of Eastern erased the old mile run mark of 4:20.9 set by Pete Harris of UBC in 1955. He finished a good 20 yards in front of Jim Moore of the BC squad, lowering the record to 4:18.8. In the third lap he increased the pace to finish the last quarter mile in an unofficial 56 seconds.

Roland DeBoer was the second Eastern runner to post a new record. He clipped four-tenths of a second off the old 440 mark, touring the oval in 48.5. Gary Phillips of Western, who had set the mark in 1957 finished sixth.

Western's Page Leads 880

Dave Page, Western, trimmed two-tenths of a second off the 880 yard run mark, set last year by Cole Harris of UBC. He stayed some three yards off the pace for more than half the race, but as they came off the first turn of the second lap he began overtaking the leader, and ended with a final burst of speed for an easy seven yard victory.

Eastern's relay team of Carpenter, DeBoer, Art Wildey and Tom Shelton, finished the day by touring the mile in 3:20.7 for the final record-breaking event. Whitworth held the previous mark at 3:22.6.

Gary Fuller equalled his 14.5 conference high-hurdle record, set in 1957, for another Eastern first. He finished four yards ahead of second-place winner Tom Davis of WWC. Davis was just four tenths of a second off the low hurdle mark of 24 seconds with a winning 24.4. Fuller traded places with Davis and took second.

DeBoer was second high-point man behind Klein with 18 points. He added a 220 first to his record quarter mile and anchor leg on the relay team. He was only two-tenths off the record, with a time of 21.7.

Moultrie Wins Vault

Dick Moultrie of Whitworth got their fifth and last first for the afternoon, winning the pole vault at 13 feet, some seven inches below his conference record.

Sherm Stapleton made it six first for the Savages with a :09.9 100 yard dash. He also took second behind DeBoer in the 220.

UBC Takes First At Conference Meet

The University of British Columbia finished a strong first in the Evergreen conference, and Western Washington topped the NAIA golfers in the combination Evergreen-NAIA district medal tourney at Indian Canyon Saturday.

Gary Pudar led the three-man UBC squad with a 36-hole total of 150; Grieg Can-dish took 155 and Chan Buck-land ended with a 154 for a 459 team total.

Paul Rudis collected 152 to take NAIA medalist trophy. His Western teammates, Bill Wright and Dave Erwart, shot 178 and 163 respectively for a total of 493, enough to give them second in the conference standings. Ted Butz added a 180 for the winning 653 NAIA total.

Eastern Washington trackmen travel to Walla Walla Friday for the annual National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics district track and field meet, with possibilities of capturing six first places.

A first place in the district qualifies for the National meet to be held in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, early next month.

Results of the Evergreen conference meet showed the Savages could come away with honors in the high hurdles, 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes, the mile run and the mile relay.

Clyde Carpenter turned in his best time of the season Saturday to set a new conference record in the mile. His 4:18.8 was two seconds better than the league mark, and was the best reported time in NAIA district one this year.

Gary Fuller equalled his conference high hurdle mark of 1:14.5. His best time this season was 1:14.3, when he won the Martin Invitation 120 high hurdle event. Fuller placed fifth at the Nationals in San Diego last year.

Roland DeBoer clipped off an excellent 48.5 in the 440 yard dash, a new conference record and his best time this year. He also won the 220 in 21.7, one of the top district times.

New Mile Mark

Eastern's relay team toured the mile in 3:20.7 for a new conference mark, which looks good for a district first. Art Wildey, Tom Shelton, DeBoer and Carpenter make up the mile squad.

Sherm Stapleton was another first place winner at the league meet, winning the 100 yard dash in 9.9 seconds. It was his sixth dash win of the season, a promising note for district competition.

Mr. Pacific Coast

Eastern Washington college has one of the outstanding competitor on the Pacific Coast.

He's Robert Felker, Spokane, and his field is body development. In Amateur Athletic Union competition he's won more area titles than many well-known athletes and he holds 15 trophies.

His most recent awards came at the Pacific Coast AAU meet in Portland over the weekend when he was named second in the Mr. Pacific Coast competition and second in the Most Muscular competition.

Modern-Day Marve extends the season for outdoor evening entertaining with patio lighting and electric heat units.

THE  CRESCENT

Wins Scarce In 19 Game BB Schedule

The EWCE Savage baseball team may not have won many games this year, but they certainly finished in fine style. The Savages won their last three games in a row, however, they won only two other games all season in finishing with the five won, fourteen loss record.

The Savages' last game of the season was a 9-3 victory over arch-rival Whitworth. Bill Palmer pitched the win for the Savages with four at bats, including two doubles.

For the season, Darwin Springer was the leading hitter with a .302 average, and Gary Roberts was the leading pitcher with a two won three lost record, and a 3.97 earned run average.

The Savages had a team batting average of .244, and a slugging percentage of .314. Doug Thomas led the slugger's with a .511 percentage.

Savage fielders committed a total of 92 errors this season, which was a major factor in many Eastern defeats.

Del Bareither was the defensive star for the team, as he committed only five errors all season from his catchers position.

Hudson Sweeps Meet THREE TRACK RECORDS BROKEN

Hudson hall had things pretty well their own way in the intramural track meet as they out distanced Sutton hall by a 71-40½ score. The Commuters were a distant third, with 12½ points, and Monroe and Gary halls tied for fourth with 12 points each.

Hudson won a total of eight out of the fourteen events. Three records were broken during the day, two of them by Dennis McCoy of the Commuters. McCoy threw the shot 41 feet 9½ inches to better the mark of 40 feet 53/16 inches held by Bruce Grambo. He threw the javelin 144 feet 8 inches to extend the mark of Jim Finigan who threw it 133 feet 7 inches last year.

The other mark was set by Spike Anderson of Hudson who ran the 440 yard dash in 53.7 second to erase Estel Harvey's mark of 54.8 seconds set in 1956.

IK's Honor EW Athletes At Banquet

Jim Borgardt and Gary Fuller walked off with five awards between them last week at the annual Intercollegiate Knights spring sports banquet.

Borgardt received the three tennis awards for team captain, most valuable and inspirational player. Fuller took the team captain and most valuable track awards.

Bill Palmer was voted captain of the Savage baseball team. Randy Auvi received the inspirational award, and newcomer Del Bareither was named the most valuable player.

Grayson Hand was named the swim team's outstanding competitor. Jim Stevens got the inspirational award and Claire McKie was chosen as the tank team captain.

Track inspirational award will be made later in the year.

Harry Misildine, sports editor of the Spokesman-Review, was the guest speaker.
