English Dept. Announces New Setup

The English department, in announcing that there will be a change in the English program next fall. All freshmen English classes will meet three days a week. This includes English 101, 102 and 103. There will be no A and B sections. However, a small group of students will go into an advanced 20-student section. No other students will pass the entrance examinations with an English 101. Those who fail will have to retake the test or try English 256 (the expansion class).

Pre-engineering students in this major like a new system. English will still be taught as core work, for English 103. This course is especially designed for students who wish to take an additional course in English. Students who take freshman English will get more individual instruction in freshman English. Beginners will schedule 20 minutes conferences each quarter with each student, the subject of conferences vary with the student's need.

New CAMEL

Have a real cigarette—have a CAMEL

For real, down-to-earth smoking, nothing else is like Camel. No other cigarette makes the rich taste and easy going, without a sense of coldly bland. More people smoke Camel than any other cigarette in America.

The best you could ask for in a cigarette.

Have a real cigarette—have a CAMEL.
Thincclads Eye Nationals

Western Washington finished second in the annual National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics championships. It had won the previous 11 years, but the Eagles finished second behind Oklahoma in '82.

The first-place team in the national meet was held in San Diego, California, last year. The top 15 finishers were all in the top 15 of the nation's top 15.

The Eagles won the title by 459-459, enough to give them second in the conference standings. Ted Butz added a 160 for the winning NAIA total of 793.
