In the Communist World

Dave Sherman, Eastern Student, Surveys Vienna Youth Festival

The Communists are quick to realize that these ambitious students are looking for projects which will help them achieve their goals. For this reason, the Communists have organized the movement to channel the energies of youth. However, many of the movements are not associated with communism itself but are front organizations.

The Department of youth organizations are inevitably those which deserve the sympathy of the party leaders, in a variety of interior dormitory organizations, they are associated with certain federal commands. The activities of these organizations are not associated with the federal command, according to Ron Mabon, Eastern ROTC commander and the president of the Archaeological Society at the University of Chicago.

The young delegates from these regions feel eager to tell the Western powers about the improvements of the reunification of the western powers, which they feel are not made correctly. The young people feel that they are the future of the world and that the world needs to be made a better place in which to live.

National Survival Needs
On Education, Eastern President Tells Students

This award is based on the student's academic rank and the seriousness of purpose and the values which have brought him to where we are today. We are on the threshold of a new era: the era of modernism. The Western powers, which are eager to win the battle of the minds of the youth, they hope to win these young people to the conviction that communism super-iority is not only inevitable but necessary.

The Eastern Student Association (ESA) has once again been named the Sorority of the Year. The ESA has been named the Sorority of the Year for the last three years.

For the purposes of the meeting, according to Paul Hooper, last year's president of the ESA, it is considered to be a prestigious honor, to nominate officers for the coming year.

“Homeschooling" of Chairwoman Lay Plans—Wally Kluever and Outstanding students prepare for this year's homeschooling celebration. Early planning indicates it should be one of the best.

General Prizes of Eastern ROTC

Facilities available for ROTC here at Eastern are unique and stand out in the sixth army area, according to Lt. Col. Dr. Michael Mabon, director of ROTC at Eastern University.

“Savage Dreams”

Many interpretations of “A Savage Dream” and the form of static displays in laws about the campus but particularly in front of Show- water hall, according to Ben Janson, Eastern Student association secretary. The activities of these organizations are not associated with the federal command, according to Ron Mabon, Eastern ROTC commander and the president of the Archaeological Society at the University of Chicago.

The Greatest Show On Earth

By Bill Bryophy

On October 7, the department of commerce announced that the current steel strike has erased all the gains in national income and productivity which had been made by the recovery from the recent recession. And in fact may force a reduction of the estimated total figures for the year.

I do not intend to argue the merits of the steel strike in this column. Rather I wish rather to point out that there is a third side which is, as yet, not represented in the bargaining table. That side is the public, and I.

To be sure, both the unions and the industry claim that they are deferring the principles of the past through their stand. This claim is as phony as a one-minute telephone commercial. They are pursuing the selfish ends of their own people.

ASB President Says

Student Council Discusses Perennial Questions

From time to time in this space some rather disassociated comments may appear. This is because Eastern rather ridiculously tries to fix an entire column on one subject just for the sake of continuity.

So set the record straight — Judy Miller is your student council secretary. Mr. Herman, the editor, who was in the mountains when Judy married Danny Miller, so I imagine the error might be excusable.

Some questions that the student council should discuss this year will be perennial ones. If at all possible the council hopes to take action that will dispose permanently of these problems.

Examples would be: What to do with Sarasota, how to keep the mailing list adequate, student insurance plan and bringing the ASB constitution up to date.

Your student council meets each Thursday at 5 p.m. in room 109 (Student Center) of the Little Man on Campus

Letters To The Editor

Sense Of Humor Missing

Congratulations to the Editor for keeping your editor's humor intact. All announcements are subject to editorial approval and are apt to result in a silly signature if withdrawn upon request or the editor's discretion.

Mr. Editor! I can't help but wonder what type of education you are seeking of when you write an article such as that which appeared in last week's Easterner.

I hope you are not referring to the one being educated, certainly not and write an article such as that. Just what do you hope to accomplish by making such derogatory remarks — "congratulating Ed Chissus on emphasizing football in the Easterner Conferences?"

Woo hoo, I am pleased to report that the student council is to be congratulated for the present technology of mass production.

How can you place yourself on such a high pedestal as to proclaim yourself as one of the top professors on Eastern campus. They are among a field to which you know absolutely nothing about.

I would think a person in your position should try to build up the school, rather than knock it by unbeque and unjust remarks such as yours.

I can think of no student, who in the past history of the school, has contributed more to the cultural development of Eastern than Armand Boatman, yet you have the immodesty to publish a scathing and ridiculous piece. If you had half of the talent in literary writing that he possesses in the field of music, I'm sure such an article of this would have never appeared.

And finally to top everything off you have the audacity to make a comment such as this about one of the top professors on Eastern's staff. Surely a person in your position must consider critically the articles which you write.

I can only resolve that you must have had some reason for writing such an article. Is it immunity? Line is common sense? Or just a desire to create a little fictional amity? Well I can readily say that if as the latter Mr. Ed, I should accomplish such a task, judging from the campus conversations I am barred 100%.

As a personal tip, clean up your remarks or move to a state with a little more "common sense" fill your position.

Recruiting Problems Of Athletic Department Need Consideration

The record of the EWU football team this season has caused much concern on campus. In the interest of justice we would like to bring certain facts to the attention of the student body, faculty and alumni.

Coach Chissus is trying to field a football team without a background. He has had seven assistant coaches in seven years — all of them undergraduate students. No salaries are provided for full-time trainers or assistant coaches. Further Chissus is put on all his own scouting and recruiting, mostly during the regular football season.

He is hopelessly handicapped in his recruiting because of the lack of financial assistance for players. He has only $45 available for football scholarships and only 24 jobs available for players. He has only 33 players on the squad last year. Only one has played three full years and the team is doing well as can be fairly expected of it.

We believe that Coach Chissus is doing the best possible job with the facilities and staff available to him. We believe the team is doing well as can be fairly expected of it. We do believe that Eastern will win titles under these circumstances.

The Elderly Lady On Campus

We believe that the Elderly Lady On Campus (ELO) was a non-profit organization. We didn't mean to be mislead by the lot of the names as "Bali," "Capri," "Tahiti," "Vashon," "Men's," "Women's."
A student union is something a campus needs, and if we get behind and push it, we will have a student union building any college would be proud of. This bit of enthusiasm came from Willard Sutphin, A.B. president in 1954.

A record breaking crowd of 82 EWU drama students turned out for casting in the 1954 production of "The Play's the Thing." They were auditioning for a successful radio comedy, "You Can't Take It With You."

Eastern's student body was planning a campaign to win a particular type of award in 1954. The object of the contest? The rolling of bandages and purchasing of war stamps. The women of Senior and Monroe halls were organizing a drive.

To Be Honored

A reception will be held honoring Miss Mary Robinson, Eastern's student body president, and Misses Roosevelt, chairman of Social, and Angland, chairman of Music, tomorrow, October 15.

Alumni Office Moves

Eastern's Alumni office, formerly located in 214 Showalter hall, has been moved to 505A (Old Kinnikinick Office) in Showalter. The telephone number remains the same: Hillomon 64291, Ext. 211.

Sir Isaac Newton is struck by another great idea!

As sure as little apples, Newton knew that what goes up must come down.

But when it comes down to a really pleasurable filter cigarette, it's what goes up—in front of the filter, that is—that makes the difference!

And there's where Winston Filter-Blend steps in. Winston Filter-Blend! Winston specially selects choice, mild tobaccos, then specially processes them for filter smoking. The result: Filter-Blend also makes it from Sir Isaac:
A fired up Eastern Washington College football team riding on a 10-0 first half lead went on to defeat pre-conference favorite Western Washington 16-14 in a game played in pouring rain on the Cheney field last Saturday.

Led by veteran quarterback Jack England, and Eastern's two smallest men, Joe Evans and Alfons Alt, the Savages were unstoppable in the first half.

Little Joe scored Eastern's first touchdown and Alt kicked the extra point. In the second quarter Alt kicked a 16-yard field goal to put the Savages in what seemed to be a fairly comfortable half-time lead.

England set up both of Eastern's scores with his timely passes and fmit kicking. In the second half the Savages again drew first blood as Stan Rhodes returned the kickoff to Eastern's 48. Pullback Tom Meier picked up 18 yards and England threw for 32 more in the drive that was capped by Evans' two-yard plunge.

That made the score 16-0 in favor of the Savages.

However, Western wasn't through as they played later Don Ladines scrambled 65 yards for the first down to score. They came right back in the fourth quarter as Ladines passed, this time gaining 50 yards out, set up by a pass interception.

Eastern was able to run out the clock, though, as England scrambled to the ground and the sticky fingers of Savage backs held on for the remainder of the game.

Outstanding for the Savages was a hard charging defensive line led by Captain Bill Palmer, Ted Schultz, and lineman Mr. Alt. They allowed the Vikings only three pass completions out of 11 attempts, three of them being intercepted by the alert Eastern secondary.

Schultz recovered the fumble that set up the first Eastern touchdown. Alt was a thorn in the Vikings' side all evening, as his red dogging of the Western line was definitely responsible for several fumble losses.

All-American candidate Palmer as usual played an all-around fine game and carried out his coaches' belief that he is the finest lineman in the Evergreen's conference.

Eastern's offensive line should also get a pat on the back for their hustle in giving quarterback England ample time to get away his passes.

Tom Meier and Stan Rhodes were once again the leading ground gainer for Eastern. Meier picked up 66 yards in 24 carries and Rhodes also picked up 60 yards on only 12 carries.

Eastern will play the Central Washington Wildcats next week at Ellensburg, and will face CWS in two weeks for the Savages' homecoming. Eastern and Central each have three conference records. Central lost last week to Whitworth 15-0, LWC 21-0.

Mr. Funk & Mr. Wagnalls

"In this matter of Good Taste," said Mr. Funk to his secretary, "take a definition."

"Taste: sensibilities... inclined... by the action of the gustatory nerves." "And add this," put in Mr. Wagnall. "Taste: the faculty of... appreciating the beautiful..."

"That," added Mr. Funk, "is you're up, Mr. Wagnall, will you join us in a Coca-Cola?"

"Do go on," said Mr. Wagnall. "And... in such good taste!"

Reese Starts Hoop Drills Tomorrow

More than 30 hopefuls are expected to greet head basketball coach W. B. "Red" Reese as the initial hoop practice of the year get underway tomorrow.

"This is the first time in five years that I've had all the squad back, except for those who graduated, and now we can start to get to work on our offense before the season is half way over," said Reese.

Seniors Few

Dick Koefed and Doug Cresewell are the only seniors back from last year's squad, followed by Gary Roberts and Walt Hartman, who make up the junior portion of the club.

Roland DeBoer, who cracked the starting lineup about half way through the season last year, and then was later benched with a kidney injury, is one of the top sophomore backfielders, according to Reese.

Gridders Ready for CWC Clash

Western gridders will be out for a repeat performance Saturday after last week's victory over Western Washington, as they go against last year's conference winners the Central Washington Wildcats.

Both clubs have registered a one win one loss record in conference action. Central stopped the College of Puget Sound in the opener, but lost to Whitworth 19-0 last week.

Eastern gets its initial victory of the season last week, downing Western 18-14.

CW coach "Abe" Poffenroth's crew is touted as being like we did last week we'll win this one," said coach Ed Chissus. "Central isn't as big as Western, so I think our line play should be better and last longer.

The starting lineup should be just about the same, according to Chissus. Gary Fuller, who was injured in the Western contest, may not be in uniform, which would call for an offensive' right end change.

Dave Crowell, who did not see action last week because of a bruised rib, is expected to be back at right tackle. The coaching staff has labeled Crowell as use of the top line men on the squad.
