EWCE Graduates Fill Two Positions

Fred Heinemann

Two Eastern graduates will return to the college under action taken by the board of trustees during the Christmas vacation.

Dr. George W. Lotzenhizer, now associate professor of music at the University of Arizona, will become head of the division of music at Eastern effective at the start of the 1960-61 college year.

Lotzenhizer succeeds William L. Rowles, head of the division since 1929, who will retire in June.

Dr. George W. Lotzenhizer

Lotzenhizer is a graduate of the class of 1947 and has been at Arizona since 1948. He holds a master of music degree from the University of Michigan and a doctorate in education from the University of Oregon.

Fred Heinemann, who succeeds K. Ladd Kaffin as manager of the student union building, graduated from Eastern in 1938.

He has been employed by the John W. Graham company for the past eight years.

Winter Talent Show Slated For Jan. 22

"A Night On Broadway," the 1960 winter talent show will be presented January 22, at 8:15 p. m. in Showalter auditorium, according to Don (call me Mr.) Williams.

The show is being directed by Paul Barton and Wendell Exline.

Highlights of the program will be songs by Mona Lake, The Men's Quartet, The Blue Notes, Fred Sharp, Larry Lael and Howard Ball and dance routines by Teri Bybee, Bob Lael and Rita Foy.

Fire Problem Solved By Entrance Change

A new policy has been adopted to prevent congestion in case of fire at all home basketball games, it was announced by Dr. Robert F. Bender, Business club adviser.

In the future, all Eastern students will enter the gymnasium through the south and north end doors. The main entrance, which was previously used by Eastern students, will be used by paying customers. This will prevent the congestion at the doorway of the main entrance, Dr. Bender said.

Medium Set For Jan. 14 Convocation

"All of us have a certain amount of psychic ability," says the world famous medium Arthur Ford, who will be heard in the convocation tomorrow. "Some have more than others, but we can develop our potentialities in this exciting field," he said.

Arthur Ford has had incredible psychic experiences most of his adult life and has acquaintances among the "dead" as well as the living.

The breaking of the famed "Houdini Code" in 1928, and seances with clergymen, musicians, authors, physicians and scores of professional people have helped them to believe in survival of personality after death and have brought him international recognition in the field of extra-sensory perception.

Ford returned to college after World War I and took extensive psychology courses. Encouraged, he began to cultivate his psychic sensitivities, he studied with an Indian Swami and learned to slip into a self induced trance instead of being hypnotized.

Ford lectured in Europe, Australia, New Zealand and Hawaii, and studied in the Near East and in India. However, it was not until the late 1920's with the breaking of the famed Houdini Code that Ford received real attention.

Ford had never met Houdini, the renowned magician who was one of the most passionate exponents of mediums in his day. However, before he died, Houdini left a widely publicized message that if there were anything to survival, he would get through to his wife with a code message which only she would be able to decipher.

In November, 1928, the first word of a ten-word code came through from Houdini. When the final message of the code was received by Ford, Mrs. Houdini went on record to say that this was the first disclosure of the correct code, known

Four Named Fellowship Candidates

Four candidates for the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation have been named by Eastern, according to Dr. Raymond L. Schults, EWCE assistant professor of history and campus representative of the foundation.

The four are Fred R. Broyles, 1959 Eastern graduate now teaching English at Rosalia high school; seniors Donald R. Smith Jr., and Michael K. Green, both of Spokane, and Clifford McCulloch, Cheney, a graduate student.

The foundation provides fellowships for first year graduate work leading to a career in college teaching, Dr. Schults said.

Candidates will appear before a regional committee in Seattle later this month. It is the first time EWCE students have been nominated, Dr. Schults said.

Student Loan Fund Gets More Money

A supplementary allotment of $16,289 for national defense service loans has been made to Eastern, Dr. Daryl Hagie, EWCE dean of students, reported.

This brings Eastern's total allotment of $56,289 for the 1959-60 school year, Dr. Hagie said.

Eighty EWCE students obtained loans before the original allotment was exhausted. Seventy-five of the loans went to students who intend to become teachers, Dr. Hagie said.

The money is made available to colleges and universities through the national defense education act of 1958.

Of 181 Eastern Washington College of Education students named to the fall quarter honor roll released today by Registrar C. W. Quinley Jr., 11 received perfect grades.

They are Jessie C. Conboy, Michael K. Green, Katherine W. Snipes, Marilyn K. Turnbow, and W. Bruce Wilsey, all of Spokane; Fred E. Yokom, Fairchild; Thomas E. Murphy, Cheney; Shirley C. Bowden, Kennewick; Janice J. Morris, Newport; Marilyn M. Puckett, Seattle, and Gerald L. Losh, Priest River, Idaho.

Based on four points for an A, three for B, two for C and one for D, a student must score 3.25 or more for a quarter's work to be eligible for the honor roll, Quinley said.

Other students from Spokane named to the honor roll include C. David Acree, Lorraine Allgaier, Ralph V. Anderson, Roger V. Anderson, L. Alwinn Angell, Ronald E. H. Ballo, Betty E. Baker, Roberta R. It's The Cheaters Who Cheat Themselves

Would you allow your best friend to steal your coat or your car?

Students who cheat in college are being robbed every day. They are stealing both knowledge and money from themselves. It is easy to see how they are robbing themselves of knowledge but it takes more serious thought to understand the monetary loss.

The first monetary loss occurs when Mr. Cheat pay his enrollment fees.

The second and more important loss comes in later life when Mr. Cheat gets a good paying job and finds he can't handle it because his alma mater didn't teach him the things it should have.

Is this deficiency in knowledge entirely the fault of the student or should the faculty take the blame?

Perhaps the responsibility should be shared by both the faculty and the student.

The January 9 issue of "The Saturday Evening Post" carries a shocking story concerning cheating in our colleges and universities.

It is interesting to note that our western colleges and universities are not mentioned in this article. Was the west omitted because we are free from cheaters or because the author didn't know there are institutions of higher learning in the west?

Whatever his reason for omitting the west, it is doubtful if it was because we are free from Mr. Cheat.

What can be done about cheating in our colleges? Should we find a new way of evaluating the student's work? It hardly seems fair for Mr. Cheat and Mr. Student to receive the same diploma and job opportunities.

No remedy for the elimination of Mr. Cheat is proposed. But take a look around during your next exam. See how serious this situation is in our own college.

Letter To The Editor

Eastern's Student Government Criticized For Apathy

To Those Concerned:

I feel obligated to voice a criticism of our student government at Eastern; and, proceeding under the assumption that no government has ever been beyond question, I have no qualms for being critical in this case. I hope this criticism will prove constructive in that it might lay a foundation for arousing that extra iota of interest necessary for a government to come alive in its structure.

It seems obvious to me that unless all facets of our student government can muster the interest and drive to show a more positive and progressive program than they presently do, the prerogative now "exercised" is in danger of justified administrative restrictions.

The fault for this recent complacency quite obviously falls on both the students and their governmental leaders. As Randolph Bourne suggests, people in a democratic society often welcome a chance to "escape from freedom" and the obligations implied by freedom.

To this extent the students are guilty, but the preponderant fault must fall upon the executive branch as they have failed to provide the leadership necessary for the student body to avoid such a chance.

The most common method of creating group action appears to be that of facing the group with a challenge, or vice versa, which inevitably is following by an inspired attempt, the degree of which, depending on the challenge, to counter the problem.

As the present student council has few, if any, projects before it that could be considered a challenge or could result in benefit of any consequence to the student body, it would seem an opportune time to find such and profit from the results of meeting it—before the time is too late.

The elimination of a general problem as well as a rising standard of interest and support for student government would seem to be sufficient reason to warrant the effort.

There exist many project possibilities at Eastern that could serve as a means to the before-mentioned benefits. Recent criticism of the operation of the student union certainly warrants an evaluation of the total operation by qualified personnel.

An evaluation of the effects the elimination of compulsory ROTC would create, or the promotion of a dormitory building campaign would be beneficial toward the ends mentioned.

Certainly an accelerated program to promote greater student interest in the national and international realms would be of great value to both the government and the governed. As a note of interest, the council recently rejected participation by Eastern in one of the finest international student programs in existence—the Foreign Student Leadership Program.

Regardless of the means chosen, the ends of such a choice are more necessary to Eastern students now than ever before, if they wish to remain self-governing.

Though the benefits of such programs may not have any immediate or profound effects on the student or his environment, they are potentially great enough that no conscientious student body or its leaders can afford to overlook them if they sincerely desire to find the real meaning of a full educational process.

Perhaps the essence and purpose of this entire letter can be summarized in the words of James Kweder, program vice-chairman for the National Student association, stating that the "development of creative and courageous leaders steeped in wisdom, faith and courage should be the foremost concern of all facets of our college and universities."

Are we doing this at Eastern?

Sincerely,
 Paul F. Hooper

Gonzaga Investigates Clubs

A committee headed by senior class president Larry Smith has been appointed to investigate academic clubs at Gonzaga university. The committee is to "determine by investigation whether each and every academic organization is suitably implementing the object for which it was founded in accord with its proper constitution."

Students of Pacific Lutheran college voted unanimous acceptance from the faculty-administration committee the nickname "Knights" which will replace the present "Gladiator" name tag. The change will become effective next fall.

In contrast to our EWCE "Ugly Man" contest, Washington State university holds a "Handsome Man" contest to choose the Handsome Harry of the campus. Entrance fees received from living groups sponsoring candidates for Handsome Harry go toward financing a directory of all campus buildings.

University of Puget Sound's new student center was officially opened December 4. Because of the lack of a name for the new building, it is going by the handle of "X."

The Big Question

Question: Why didn't you get better grades last quarter?

Bud Allen (2.71) "Well, I work 40 hours per week, commute from the Spokane Valley, went through bankruptcy, moved and had one five hour course that required 16 hours a week outside work."

Ralph Nelson (3.06) "I got a 'D'."

Stan Shenefelt (2.13) "I work 40 hours a week, my wife had a baby, and I commute 50 miles a day in a '39 Chev. that sticks in second gear."

Gary Lauhead (2.50) "I attended national guard meetings five times a month, commute, work 32 hours a week, go bowling one a week, and play basketball twice a week."

Larry Lasz (0.00) "I wasn't here last quarter."

EW Sets Special Quarter For Mid-Year Grads

An accelerated winter quarter for mid-year high school graduates will begin at Eastern February 1, Dr. Don S. Patterson, EWCE president, announced.

Students who graduate from high schools the last week of January each year must often delay their college careers six to eight weeks, Dr. Patterson pointed out, unless they enter a college which is on the semester system.

"January high school graduates can now enter Eastern without wasting any time," Dr. Patterson said. "A program of studies will be offered in the accelerated winter quarter which will permit students to fit into the regular spring quarter."

Superintendents and principals of 125 high schools in the 20 counties of Eastern Washington have been informed of the program to accommodate January graduates, Dr. Patterson said.

Students enrolled for the accelerated program will be permitted to take approximately 12 hours of normally required work. The reserve officers training corps program will be available for men students, the EWCE president said.

"This adaption to our program to fit student needs and to attract superior students is the first of several changes we plan to announce during 1960," Dr. Patterson said.

This contest is open to all student and faculty groups. The contest will include songs of the Gay Nineties era with accompaniment.

Judging will be based on the following rules: Technique, 40 points; style, 30 points; showmanship, 20 points; appropriateness of selection, 5 points and appropriateness of costume, 5 points.

Williams said if the response to the local contest is good, the winning quartet will be sent to the All Northwest Barbershop Ballad contest in Forest Grove, Oregon, February 26 and 27.

Money Group Meets

The student loan committee will meet next Monday and every Monday thereafter throughout the winter quarter at 9 a. m. in the dean of students' office.

Students are reminded that the second and third payments for meal tickets will be due on January 25 and February 22.

The January payment is for $50 and February for $40.

Those needing loans in order to make these payments should plan to meet with the loan committee in advance of these dates, Dr. Daryl Hagie, dean of students, said.

'Zags Defeat Savages For Second Time, 81-59

A lowly 23 percent shooting average by the Savages in the first half, and the marvelous eye of Frank Burgess gave the Gonzaga Bulldogs an 81-59 win over Eastern Monday night in the Spokane Coliseum. It was the second 'Zag win over Eastern this season.

The Redmen took an early 8-2 lead as the Zags went four minutes without scoring from the field, but then the Eastern bucket seemed to shrink and

Gymnasts Prepare For WSU Opener

EWCE's gymnastic team will open its official season Friday, January 22 at 5:45 p. m. against Washington State university at Pullman.

Eastern coach, Dave Kaufmann has only two returning lettermen, Jack Benson and Bob Caruso. Benson specializes in the high bar and the rings, Caruso is a specialist in the trampoline and the long horse.

Kaufmann speaks highly of Dale Shirley, a freshman from Seattle. In a recent open meet at Richland, Wash., Shirley took two second places, one in free exercise and one in the high bar.

the Zags ran the score to 17-8. The zone defense thrown up by the Savages made the going tough for the home team and held Burgess to 11 points in the first half. George Morrison had the range from the outside to keep Eastern defense from sagging.

As the second half got going the Redmen cut the Bulldog lead to seven, mostly on the efforts of senior postman Dick Koford, who rolled up 25 points, Eastern's high.

Burgess kept them from getting any closer however, and displayed shooting ability that gives him the ranking of being one of the nation's top scorers. He was high point man for the evening with 35, scoring 14 field goals and seven from the charity line.

Coach Reese added a new name to the starting lineup, that of Don Warwick, a freshman. Although he didn't score, he showed himself to be one of the squad's better playmakers.

Cellar-dwelling Maplemen Look For Initial League Win

Coach Red Reese's basketballers open their 1959-60 home conference season this weekend after dropping two in the first round action with Pacific Lutheran and Western Washington colleges.

The two winners went to the top of the Evergreen standings, as they both beat back the eastern invaders, the Pirates of Whitworth college and the Savages.

The Puget Sound Loggers topped Central Washington, 62-61, taking third and fourth places respectively.

The Redmen now sport a 5-7 record for the season, excluding the Monday night Gonzaga contest, losing the last four.

Pacific Lutheran handed the Savages their first conference defeat, 81-60, while Western was handling Whitworth 71-64. Saturday night Western outscored the Easterners, 73-59. PLU stopped the Bucs, 85-68.

However, the Pirates lost the services of Dave Morley, starting forward, that weekend.

The Savages, who were expected to be one of the real teams to beat in the conference this season have yet to come up to expectations. With evident scoring balance lacking, Coach Reese has been juggling his front men for the right combination.

The loss of Walt Hartman, who sparked the Redmen last year as a sophomore with some outstanding scoring performances, has left a hole not yet filled.

Dick Koford, moved back to the post after two years as a front man, has been the star so far this year, he leads the squad in total rebounds and tops the scorers with a 16 point average.

Gary Roberts, who drew praises from coaches and fans during his freshman year as a post man and then followed with a somewhat dismal record last year, has been the top performer among the front men, with a double figure average.

WWC Next Tanker Foe

Eastern's swim team will be trying to vindicate itself this weekend as it takes on the University of Idaho, Saturday and Western Washington college Friday after bowing twice last week to the University of Puget Sound and the Western Vikings. Meet time is 2 p. m.

It was the first meet of the season for the Redmen, and though losing both a larger turnout this week is expected to put Eastern in contention for the conference crown, now held by UPS.

Several individuals received praise from coach Dr. Richard Hagelin.

Grayson Hand retained control of the sprint events, displaying form in the 50 and 100 freestyle that gave him first a place blue ribbon in last year's conference meet.

Clair McKie with first and seconds in diving for the weekend, placed second in the 100 freestyle behind Hand.

The 400 meter freestyle relay squad of McKie, Hand, Bob Short and Dick Burger turned in an excellent 4:28.9, one of the top marks in the two days of swimming. Expectation from the coaching staff are that this should be an easy first come conference meet time.

EW Bowlers Lead Area Conference

After bowling six of 18 three-game matches, EWCE's bowling team boasts of a six point lead. The team is rated as the best in EWCE's history, Captain Bruce Wong believes.

Small but powerful Don Heyn leads the team with a 197 average for 18 games. Other averages include Wong, 187; Dick Hoering, 187; Larry Pember, 185; Roger Twiss, 179; Don Nusser, 179, and up-and-coming Dick Burger, 170.

Eastern has been tabbed as the winning team for the Inland Empire Intercollegiate conference championship, Captain Wong said.

Savages Lose 2 On Coast Trip

The opening of the 1960 Evergreen conference basketball season brought nothing but bad news for the Savages of Eastern, as they lost both games of a weekend pair against PLU and Western Washington.

Eastern dropped the first game against PLU on Friday, 81-60, at Tacoma, and lost the second game, 73-59 to a rugged Western team Saturday night.

Big Ron Crowe of Western proved to be too much for the Savages as the big center of the Vikings poured 25 points through the hoop.

Eastern again had trouble getting started and trailed by 13 points at halftime. The only bright spots for the Savages were the fine shooting and rebounding of Dick Koford and John Nugent. However, the Savages couldn't seem to jell, and once again a strong second half spurt came too late.

On Friday night, PLU looked as though they could once again dominate the league even though they lost three all-Americans by graduation last year. The Lutes, still using the Marv Harshman offense, were led by little Bruce Alexander, who seems to be filling the shoes of Roger Iverson, PLU great, very capably.

Alexander scored 24 points for the night, all on field goals, and most of them jumpers from about 20 feet out.

Gary Roberts, Roland DeBoer, and Koford combined to tally 35 of Eastern's points. Roberts was high with 13, followed by DeBoer with 12, and Koford with 10.

Wong To Start Elims, Entries Due Jan. 20

School eliminations for the Northwest Student Union tournament have been scheduled for this quarter for ping pong, billiards and bridge according to Bruce Wong, student union manager.

In order to complete the eliminations by April, the month-scheduled for the University of Washington tourney, they will have to begin immediately, Wong added.

Competition will run for straight rail, three cushion, and continuous billiards, along with table tennis.

Eastern's bowling teams are already set up. Members of the women's team are Shirley Dyer, Shannon Babcock, Dorothy Dahl, Barabara Beechold, Billie Reed, Sandy Inman and Betty Biehl.

Entries are still needed for the bridge and billiards teams and students have until January 20 to enter, Wong said.

Anyone For Tennis?

A formal call was issued last Monday by Coach John Woods for all students interested in gaining a berth on the 1960 varsity tennis team.

Workouts will be held every Monday and Wednesday from 4 to 5:30 p. m. in the girls' gym.

Coach Woods said that he is expecting a 16-match schedule including some travel around the area.

The EWC college basketball team entered conference play last Friday all even in the won-lost column with five apiece.

In games played over the Christmas vacation the Savages didn't fare quite as well, winning only two while dropping four.

In their last pre-conference game, January 2, the Savages lost by a score of 80-81 in overtime to a tough College of Idaho team. It was a see-saw battle that was characterized by sharp passing and fine shooting. With Eastern leading 73-71, Gene Laca, 6'11" C. of I. center sank two free throws after the final buzzer. A pair of bad passes and a fumble were very costly for the Savages in the overtime, but C. of I. just barely squeaked through with the victory.

Koford Gets 30

Dick Koford was outstanding for Eastern as he picked up 30 points. Gary Roberts followed with 19.

The previous night Eastern was badly outmanned by a talented Northwest Nazarene team, and inability to hit a field goal made matters even worse. Eastern played five minutes in the first half without scoring a field goal, and when they finally did start to connect, it was too late.

Nugent Shines

John Nugent played his finest college game, picking up 20 points and dominating the backboard.

On December 29, Eastern thoroughly trounced St. Martin's by a 66-47 score in a game played in Moses Lake to dedicate a new gymnasium in that city.

Roland DeBoer performed well in his home town dumping in 20 points on seven field goals and six free throws.

December 28 again saw the Savages trounce the boys from St. Martin's, this time by a 75-53 count. Gary Roberts and Dick Koford paced the Savages with 19 and 16 points respectively.

Eastern took it on the chin twice as they invaded the Montana country. December 19. Montana State, one of the leading teams in the Northwest had little trouble disposing of the smaller less experienced Savages 88-52.

The following night Eastern reserves took on the bulk of the load and put up a gallant fight before bowing 79-74 to Western Montana.

'60 CHEVY! ONLY WAY YOU CAN BUY A CAR FOR LESS IS TO BUY A LOT LESS CAR!

THRIFTIEST 6 IN ANY FULL-SIZE CAR—Chevy's Hi-Thrift 6 is the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the latest Mobilgas Economy Run—more than any other full-size car.

NEW ECONOMY TURBO-FIRE V8—Here's a V8 with the "git" Chevy's famous for—plus a new economy-contoured camshaft and other refinements that get up to 10% more miles on a gallon of regular.

EASIER-TO-LOAD LUGGAGE COMPARTMENT—The trunk sill is lower and the lid opening is more than a foot and a half wider than Chevy's nearest competitor's. There's over 20% more usable space!*

MORE ROOM WHERE YOU WANT MORE ROOM—Chevy's trimmed down transmission tunnel (25% smaller) gives you more foot room. You also get more head and hip room than in any other 2- or 4-door sedans in the field.

WIDEST CHOICE OF POWER TEAMS—A choice of 24 engine-transmission teams in all—to satisfy the most finicky driving foot. There are seven engines with output all the way up to 335 h.p. and five silk-smooth transmissions.

EXTRA CONVENIENCES OF BODY BY FISHER—No other car in Chevy's field gives you crank-operated ventpanes, Safety Plate Glass all around and dozens of other Fisher Body refinements.

QUICKER STOPPING BRAKES—Long-lived bonded-lining brakes with larger front-wheel cylinders for '60 give you quicker, surer stops with less pedal pressure.

SOFTER, MORE SILENT RIDE—Chevy's the only leading low-priced car that gentles the bumps with coil springs at all four wheels. Noise and vibration are filtered to the vanishing point by new body mounts.

NOT CHANGE FOR CHANGE'S SAKE, BUT FOR YOURS—There's only one person we consider when we make a change—and that's you. That's why we don't think you'll find anything more to your liking at anything like the price.

The more you look around the more you'll find to convince you that no other low-priced car has so much to show for your money as this new Chevrolet. Here's the kind of styling sophistication and subtle detail that only Fisher Body craftsmanship can create. Here's the kind of Full Coil comfort that neither of the other two leading low-priced cars—and only some of the smoothest riding higher priced ones—build into their suspension systems. Here's more room inside (where you want it) without an inch more outside (where you don't want it). And with all these advances Chevy has managed to hold the price line! Your dealer will be delighted to fill you in on all the facts.

Maier Named Coordinator For 'Project Talent'

Eastern's director of guidance and counseling, Dr. Glen E. Maier, has been named regional coordinator for the Inland Empire for "Project Talent," the forthcoming national census of aptitudes and abilities of high school students.

Seniors at eight Inland Empire high schools, among the 1000 selected as representative of all secondary schools, will be given a special set of examinations and questionnaires, Dr. Maier said.

Dr. Maier is one of only 100 regional coordinators who will oversee the nation-wide two-day battery of tests to be given the first week in March. The schools themselves will administer the examinations.

"Project Talent" is a survey supported by the United States Office of Education and other government agencies and is being carried out by the University of Pittsburgh.

"Our country needs the full use of all its talents," Dr. Maier said. "This aptitude and ability census will tell us what is available."

"The basic goal of the project is to get information to help American youth to develop themselves and their nation," he said.

Visual Aids Class Offers Instruction

"Students interested in learning operation of audio-visual equipment may now obtain this training every Tuesday from 1 to 2 p. m., in Martin hall 201 and adjoining rooms," Dr. John G. Church, director of instructional materials center, said.

"Persons attending these training sessions are required to handle the operation of the equipment in three campus classroom showings for every lab session attended, thus acquiring not only the training but the necessary experience in learning effectively the use of this equipment," Dr. Church added.

Staff Increased

Organization of the Kinnick-inick staff has reached its peak this quarter by a number of appointments, Editor Ron Wolfe said.

Carolyn Davis and Gary Wallace were named assistant editors; Denny Martin and Jim O'Connell, photographers; Dick Blair, art and sports editor; John Nugent and Dean Owen, assistant sports editors, and Anita Verdick, assistant art editor.

Teachers Earn Less Than Other Grads

Eastern's graduates with a bachelors of arts degrees earned $357 a year more their first year out of college than graduates with BAs in education degrees, according to the annual report prepared by Ramond M. Giles, director of placement service at Eastern.

The average teaching position paid $4401 compared with the average $4758 earned by the other graduates.
