Summer Session Workshop Courses On Russia Set

Two workshops and two courses dealing with Russia will be presented during the summer session at Eastern, Dr. William Newsom, director of summer school, announced.

"The Soviet Union," a two-week workshop, will start June 20. It will be conducted by Nicholas DeWitt, associate director, Russian Research center, Harvard university and Dr. Donald F. Pierce, EWCE assistant professor of history.

"Education in the USSR," another two-week workshop, will be conducted by Dr. Albert Vogel, assistant professor of education, American university Washington, D. C. It will start July 5.

Both DeWitt and Dr. Vogel have studied in Russia, Dr. Newsom said.

The two courses dealing with Russia will be given during the regular seven-week summer session starting June 20, Dr. Newsom said.

One course, on Russian literature, will be taught by Dr. Kenneth A. Halwas; the other, history of Russia, will be taught by Dr. Pierce.

ASB Considers Constitution, Car Road Blocks

Discussion in last Thursday's student council meeting centered mostly around plans for revising EWCE's constitution. A plan submitted by the constitution committee appears to be inadequate and a new structure will soon be submitted for approval by an enlarged committee—one which includes the newly-elected student body officers.

Student council is now taking action upon diverse items of business, including the relocation of school plaques and trophies, especially the Dressler memorial plaque.

Student council recommendations will be submitted on the stopping of cars by police to distribute school election material, and upon the possible placement of a new streetlight at the corner by Hargreaves library.

3-College Confab Here March 4-5

The Northwest geography conference will be held on March 4 and 5 on the Eastern campus, Francis J. Schadegg, EWC geography department head, said.

Conference participants will be faculty members and students of Central, Western and Eastern Washington colleges.

This is another series of conferences, which have been held three or four times during each year to promote better teaching and preparation in geography, presenting members' ideas of college curriculum of geography and research, and for exchange of ideas in the field for better teaching, Schadegg said.

Next meeting of the series will be held in the spring at the University of Washington.

Vets: Sign Now

Veterans should sign their monthly payforms today through Friday, Mrs. Win Glessner, secretary of veterans affairs, said.

By doing it at this time, unnecessary rush and confusion will be avoided at the last minute, Mrs. Glessner said.

'Song Of Norway' Booked

Hudson Hall Gets One More Boarder

Dr. Glenn Kirchner, assistant professor of physical education at Eastern, looks after 130 men students as director of Hudson hall.

But today, Dr. Kirchner has 131 males to look after. It's because Queen Elizabeth wasn't the only person to become a mother February 19.

A 7 lb., 6 oz. boy was born to Dr. and Mrs. Kirchner that day, joining another son, Grant, 13 months old.

And it's appropriate, Dr. Kirchner believes, that his son and the new prince have the same birthdays, for the Kirchners are both Canadians.

Eastern Fathers Form Dads' Group

An Eastern Dads' association has been formed by a group of fathers of students attending the college.

Formation of the association was first planned at EWCE's annual Dads' day earlier this month. Fathers of alumni have also been invited to join.

Elected president was George Ils, Ritzville; vice president is W. B. Wheeler, Kennewick and Frank Shaw, Medical Lake, has been named secretary-treasurer.

Purpose of the group, Ils said, is to provide grants-in-aid for athletics, academic scholarships, jobs for students, closer relations between parents and faculty and promotion of the college in members' home communities.

Two committees have been named, Ils said. One is drawing up a constitution, the other working for grants-in-aid and scholarships.

The constitution committee members include Jack Hopkins, Deer Park; George Freese, Ritzville; Dr. Richard H. Hagelin, EWCE professor of physical education, Wheeler and Shaw.

Members of grants-in-aid and scholarship committees are Howard Jaeger, Rosalia; Stanley Averill, E9623 Fairview court, Spokane; Dr. Raymond L. Schults, EWCE assistant professor of history; Orland B. Killin, assistant professor of industrial arts, and Ils.

Vets Set April 28 For 'Sac' Benefit

April 28 has been set as the date for the Sacajawea benefit show, Creed Morgan, Vet's club president, said. Admission for this benefit is set at 75 cents per person and $1.25 per couple.

Advanced sale of tickets will begin early in April with all proceeds going into the Sac fund.

A majority of the college talent groups have been contacted and are willing to devote their time, Morgan said. These groups, as well as numbers of Spokane area performers, have indicated a willingness to participate.

The life of Edvard Grieg, as told in music adapted from 250 of Grieg's own works, will be presented in the operetta, "Song of Norway" by Eastern's music division.

In two acts and seven scenes, the operetta will be seen two evenings, March 8 and 9, in Showalter auditorium on the EWC campus.

A Spokane junior, Gloria Schlenker, E1921 Mallon, and a freshman from Cheney, Rhoda Paulsen, co-star in the fem-

Tickets For Students Must Be Picked Up

Students who wish tickets to "Song of Norway" may get them by showing their activity cards and picking up their operetta tickets.

There will be a booth located in the hall on the second floor of Showalter hall on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 1 and 2 for the convenience of the students.

Admission to the show will be by "Song of Norway" tickets only; students will not be admitted at the door on activity cards.

Activity cards may be shown at the box office either night of the operetta and tickets secured if any are available.

It is necessary to handle student admissions in this manner in order to be sure that all who have tickets for a specific performance will have seats.

Schools 'Greatest', EW Prexy Says

"The school systems of this nation have been one of the greatest inventions of all recorded history," Dr. Don S. Patterson, president of EWCE said at the dedication ceremony of South Pines elementary school in the Central Valley district in Spokane last Thursday.

"The contributions they have made supplement those of the home, the church and other community agencies which have brought us to where we are today. The future of this community, state and nation will be to a large extent dependent upon what this school and others like it provide for today's and tomorrow's children."

Dr. Patterson, as he aided in the dedication of the new school, pointed out the national as well as local affects which a school can have, but stressed the fact that no one should be misled by the bigness of the various school systems. Size, he said, should never be mistaken for quality in the schools themselves.

The young people in these schools, Dr. Patterson said, will be a segment of the nation's greatest resources. "Tomorrow's America can not afford the luxury of yesterday's undiscovered talent and undeveloped ability. Within these walls must be gathered dedicated teachers with great wisdom and infinite skill in helping children grow and achieve commensurate with their native capabilities. Teaching that does not assist a child to live up to his best efforts will not suffice."

ine leading roles. Miss Schlenker will be seen as Nina Hagerup, who later became Mrs. Grieg. Miss Paulson plays the Countess LeLoup.

Ronald Jones, freshman music major from Nampa, Idaho, has the male lead, playing the part of Edvard Grieg.

Others with major roles include Gary Van Horn, Walla Walla, as Richard Nordraak; Edward Barnhart, East Wenatchee, Count Peppi LeLoup, Frederick Boutz, Walla Walla, Father Grieg; Bonnie Palmer, N2527 Upriver court, Spokane, Mother Grieg; David Coe, Chewelah, Father Nordraak, and Judith Thaut, Ritzville, Sigrid.

The entire production is under the direction of Dr. Wallace B. Pefley, EWCE assistant professor of music. The college orchestra will be heard with Janice Morris, Newport, featured as piano soloist accompanist.

Covering a period of several years, scenes in "Song of Norway" are laid in Norway, Denmark and Italy. There are two scenes in act one, five in act two.

ROTC Cadets See Fairchild Air Base

Nearly 70 Eastern reserve officer training corps cadets attended the AUSA-sponsored tour of Fairchild air force base February 19, Capt. Robert L. Gregory, AUSA adviser, said.

The tour of the base included a visit to the B-52 simulator and the KC-135 transport. The cadets were shown the officers' quarters and were guests at the base commissary and the base exchange. In addition, they were shown the base gymnasium and swimming pool.

The day concluded with a trip to the officers' club for coffee and a question period.

Fitness Manual Published By Eastern's Dr. Kirchner

A manual for classroom teachers titled "Elementary School Physical Fitness Test" has been published by Dr. Glenn Kirchner, assistant professor of physical education at Eastern.

The book has been recommended by the Washington Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation and is designed to test the physical fitness of elementary school boys and girls 6 to 12-years-old.

"This physical fitness manual represents a great step forward in the field of elementary education as it fills a gap in our knowledge of the children at this level," Darwin Seeley, supervisor of health, physical education, and recreation for the state department of education wrote in a foreword to the manual.

"The manual offers elementary school teachers an objective instrument with which to measure the physical status and progress of their students," Seeley wrote. "It provides an evaluation tool for a comparative picture of the individual child to the group."

Dr. Kirchner developed the manual for the association with the cooperation of many public school physical education instructors who administered the tests.

The manual sets up norms to measure strength, endurance,

Officer Promotions Won By 13

Promotion of 13 Eastern reserve officers training corps cadets has been announced by Capt. Thomas R. Whalen, adjutant of the college ROTC unit.

Promoted to cadet major were Charles T. Borg, William H. Bumgardner, Douglas R. Cresswell, Darrell B. Maertens, Theodore D. Schultz and Donald L. State.

Four new cadet captains were named, Capt. Whalen said. They are Paul M. Aust, Ace A. Cossaint, Gary L. Gillespie and Dean M. Owen.

New cadet first lieutenants are Richard C. Anderson, Robert L. Childress and George E. Gruber.

The promotions are effective immediately, Capt. Whalen said. They are based on academic scholarship, leadership ability, interest and achievement in the ROTC program and on seniority.

Four of the students promoted to cadet major were on last quarter's honor roll, Capt. Whalen said.

Beginning in the spring quarter, additional promotions are scheduled. One student officer will be promoted to colonel and brigade commander; two will be named lieutenant colonels and will be battle group commanders, and nine majors will be appointed.

The Eastern corps of cadets will then consist of one brigade of two battle groups each, three companies in each battle group, Capt. Whalen said. There will also be the Sponsor corps, drill team and ROTC band.

The annual formal inspection and brigade review has been scheduled for May 12, Capt. Whalen said.

ROTC achievement day, consisting of competitions, a formal review and achievement awards, will be May 20. The annual military ball will climax the ROTC year that evening.

power and speed, which are considered to be the basic elements of physical fitness, Dr. Kirchner said.

Power is measured by the standing broad jumps, strength and endurance by bench push-ups, curl-ups and the squat jump, speed by the 30-yard dash. Sex and age are factors determining ratings in each test. Ratings vary from superior to very poor.

Machine To Replace Teachers?

Several scientists are working on an "Automation Aid" for teachers, and one prototype has emerged at the University of Connecticut. It is "slightly bigger than a typewriter but considerably less complicated," explains its inventor, Dr. James Sakoda, University of Connecticut social psychologist.

Students can ask the teaching machine questions in arithmetic, spelling, poetry, foreign languages, and science. And a whirring moment later, the machine will spit out an answer.

"Dogmatic claims should not be accepted uncritically," the inventor states. "Carefully planned research is required to establish basic principles on how they are to be utilized before they are introduced on any large scale."

Dr. Sakoda has a $14,950 United States public health service grant to help him with this project.

No matter how much the machines mimic the teachers, and even when they are mass-produced, the teachers should not fear losing their jobs, the inventor reassures.

"The machines will only be an assistant," he explains, "a tool which permits the teacher to give more individual attention to students."

And then again, the machines will always need teachers to whisper hints to them and feed them the right answers.

The Big Question

If this were the last and only statement that you could make before leaving Eastern, what would that statement be?

Shannon Caldwell:—"If less people thought ignorance was bliss, it might be a little more bearable here."

Herman Frump:—"If I'd have known four years ago what I know now, I never would have come to school."

Mike Green:—"If I had my four years to do over at Eastern, I wouldn't waste any time in some of the near useless courses required by the education department."

Bill Pickarel:—"People who are dissatisfied with the education program here at Eastern should keep still unless they can offer some constructive criticism."

Joe Commuter:—"How come refills are 10 cents?"

Letter To The Editor

Coat Theft Spurs Anger Of Writer

To the Editor:

I would like to know what kind of a person would steal a coat from another student. I can see taking something from someone who would not miss it too much, but for myself I work and go to school, too.

My coat was stolen from Louise Anderson hall a few days ago while I was eating lunch. There was a personal letter to me in the pocket and taking the letter alone is about as low a crime there is.

I am not the biggest person in the world but I sure would like a few minutes alone with the thief who took my coat.

If you are reading this letter, thief, you know who I am. Why don't you gather a few guts and come to see me?

State Once Sought To Make Eastern Detention Home

There was a bill proposed and introduced in the state senate in 1945 to convert Eastern Washington College of Education into a detention home for juvenile delinquents. Arguments against this were: Our buildings were built for students who live under comparatively few regulations, they were not built for people under detention. And already the college had begun its training of men under the G. I. bill and the work could be expected to expand as more veterans were discharged.

The novelty of a double-bill was presented by the music department in 1940 when Gilbert and Sullivan's "Trial by Jury" and Bizet's "Carmen" were heard on the auditorium stage. The college symphony orchestra gave a repeat performance of the popular "Carmen" suite as an interlude between the two operas.

The moon is no place for a man to live, The Easterner announced in 1935. Mountains as high as 25,000 feet and cavernous craters equally deep are reported existent on the lunar body. Lack of a protecting air layer, such as the earth has, and a peculiar loose pumice which composes the moon's surface and does not retain heat, gives the moon a wide range of temperatures.

Crowded conditions create a conundrum for cartoon converts but certainly can't discourage them. Attendance a week ago Thursday was 106.

ASB President Says

By Tom Ennis

ASB President Answers Critics

In view of the fact that elections are now over and any statements that I may make cannot be construed as endorsing a candidate, I would like to take this opportunity to answer some questions brought up since this fall.

Tom Ennis

These statements are for purposes of information only and are not meant to be causes for starting arguments. They are only given because of queries by some students requesting certain information.

To Dave Gurr: I agree that proportional representation does not exist on the student council, but neither does it exist in terms of interest groups in our national government.

Also, the student council meetings are open to all students at 6 p. m. each Thursday in the Cove and if Dave could see his way clear to attend one of these meetings, I am sure that the student council would be most happy to listen to any suggestions he may have, or to anyone else for that matter.

If anyone can propose a more equitable representative system on the student council, then the council would be most appreciative if that person would present such a plan for their consideration.

And I might say that if the council does not agree with the proposed plan, then any student may present a petition to the council requesting a constitutional amendment, and if this petition is signed by 10 per cent of the student body, then a general election MUST be held within two weeks for the purpose of voting on the amendment by the entire student body.

To Don Smith who commented on students being stopped by police road blocks to receive information on candidates for election. He asked if this practice was legal. In view of the fact that it was a police road block it would seem that it is. It did not violate any rules of the election committee; however, it is my understanding that a rule prohibiting such a practice will be added to the present rules regarding election practices.

To our illustrious editor, Mr. Herman: In order for the "of education" to be dropped from the title of the school it is necessary that a bill to that effect be passed by both house and senate of the state legislature. I would ask what student government can constructively do along these lines when the legislature will not be in session during this administration's tenure.

If when Mr. Herman asks for a "revision of the rules governing absentees," I presume he is referring to absentees from class. This is outlined in the college catalog, which is a suggested procedure to be followed by instructors. The individual determination in respect to absentees from classes is left up to the instructor.

Another point of Mr. Herman's was that a more opportune time might be found for student council meetings. The council and myself are open to suggestions.

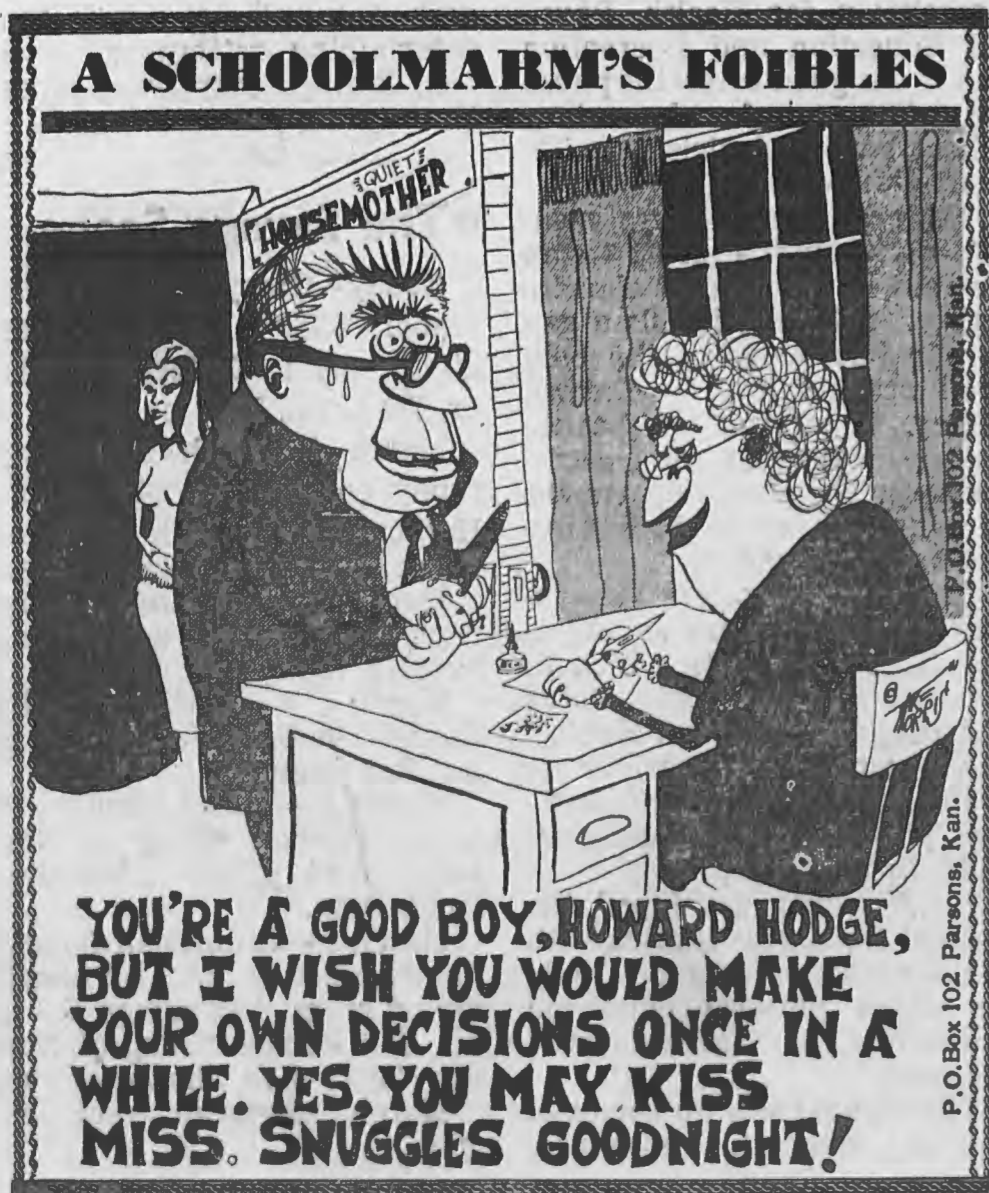

Concerning the lable of "Mugwump" administration: If a few more students would use their "mugs" a little more constructively, and get off their "wumps" they might find out that with their help student government could do a great deal more.

Persons are needed for work on various student government projects and without their cooperation, student government can only advance in relation to the amount of effort put out by interested students.

In relation to Paul Hooper's remark concerning elimination of compulsory ROTC: The reason that no action has been taken by myself concerning this matter is because I am not in agreement with Paul that compulsory ROTC should be eliminated.

It is my opinion that discipline within the ROTC program should be tightened up, rather than eliminating the compulsory aspect. This is purely a matter of opinion as to whether ROTC should be compulsory or not and I happen to be of the opinion that it should be.

I may not agree with what people say concerning student government, and if this be the case I will inform them accordingly.

Five Attend EW Under War Orphans Program

By Ron Taylor

"... We are met on a great battlefield... It is for us the living rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here so noble advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us..."

A program designed to carry on just that idea of Abraham Lincoln is contained in a Veteran's administration program called the War Orphans Education program.

According to Mrs. Jeraldine Caviness, a student attending EWC on this plan, it is a program of financial aid for the education of young men and women whose parents—World War I, World War II or Korea veterans—died of injuries or diseases resulting from military service.

The purpose, as stated in law, is to give these young people an opportunity to get the education they otherwise might have obtained; had their parents lived.

Eligibility is determined by the age of the deceased veteran's children, and the manner in which the deceased veteran died. He must have died of a disease or injury incurred or aggravated in line of duty in active military service.

Further, if death occurs after military service, the veteran must have been discharged under other-than-dishonorable conditions.

The orphan's age must generally be between 18 and 23 years, although if the VA finds that it would be in his best interests to begin training before he reaches his 18th birthday, it may be arranged.

The length of training is up to 36 months, or the equivalent of 36 month if he is enrolled in part-time schooling.

The monthly allowance paid the recipient is $110 if he attends school full-time. It is paid at the end of each month of school the recipient finishes, and is paid by check to the parent or guardian of the student.

JERALDINE CAVINESS

A unique function of this program is that it provides for special restorative training to the veterans' child who is unable to pursue a program of education because of some physical or mental disability.

Each of the students who is, or who expects to be enrolled in Eastern under this law agree that it is a profound advantage to their future.

These students include Mrs. Caviness, Wayne Archer, William Gant, Sandra Lynn Kurtz and Wolda Jean Gosney.

PTA Talk Set

Dr. Roland Lewis, Eastern education division head, will speak at the Coulee Dam PTA March 14 at 8 p. m. in the Columbia school.

2 EW Art Staff Exhibit In Union

Currently on exhibit in the Isle-land are a series of paintings by Opal Fleckenstein, EWCE art instructor, and a display of sculpture by Nan K. Wiley, chairman of the art department.

Mrs. Fleckenstein is showing 15 of 30 pieces which have just recently been on display in Spokane at the Art and Design Showcase and in the Palouse room of the Bon Marche, where she had the distinction of holding the Bon's first one-artist show.

All pieces reflect the theme of summer in Mexico, painted while she attended the Instituto de Allende last summer. Her works consist of oils, water colors and batiks. The batiks, in which Mrs. Fleckenstein utilizes the pre-Columbian media as an expression of modern art, is of special interest.

Miss Wiley is using stone, wood, metal and ceramics as media for the sculpture which she has on exhibit. Among the 12 pieces on display are some which have never previously been exhibited. One piece, a clay Madonna, had formerly been shown at the Radio Central building in New York city as part of the first national exhibition of American art. The piece had the distinction of representing the state of Oregon.

The combined exhibit will be located in the Cove and in the upstairs Isle-land reading room. It will remain on display until March 18.

Navy Team Here

Eastern students interested in the navy's officer training program will be interviewed and tested today in the student union.

The navy information team, which will conduct the program, consists of Lcdr. R. G. Stimmel, USNR; Lcdr Earl Case USN.

Two Faculty Men On Advisory Board

Appointment of two Eastern members to the state advisory committee on teacher education and certification has been announced by Dr. Don S. Patterson, EWCE president.

The two are Dr. Roland B. Lewis, head of Eastern's division of education philosophy and psychology, and Dr. Donald F. Pierce, assistant professor of history.

Both men attended a meeting of the committee in Seattle last Thursday and Friday.

Hall And Kennedy To Tour Schools

Wayne Hall, Alumni association executive secretary, and Kenneth K. Kennedy, assistant registrar, have a busy schedule next week when they will be attending high school conferences in eastern Washington.

Monday, March 7, they will be at Clarkston, speaking to students from Anatone and Asotin.

Tuesday they journey to Colfax, where they will speak to students from Colton, Endicott, Garfield, LaCrosse, Oakesdale, Palouse, Pullman, Rosalia, St. John and Tekoa.

Wednesday they will be at Chewelah, speaking to students from Columbia, Colville, Inchelium, Kettle Falls, Marcus, Northport, Springdale, Valley and Wellpinit.

Thursday they travel farther north to Cusick, and talk to students from Ione, Metaline Falls and Newport.

Friday they will be in Spokane Valley, at West Valley, speaking to students from Central Valley, Deer Park, Fairfield, Freeman, Mead, Medical Lake, Otis Orchards, Riverside and Spangle.

The Evergreen conference conclude last week with Pacific Lutheran university and Western Washington college sharing first place honors. Western completed its schedule February 15 with a win over the University of Puget Sound to give them a tie with PLU, both having 10 wins and four losses in conference action. It was the first time the Bellingham club has ever gained any part of the title.

UPS finished in third place with a 8-6 record. Eastern upset Central Washington in the teams' last action of the season to anchor itself in fourth place with six wins and eight losses, while the Wildcats ended fifth with 5-9.

Whitworth finished last with four wins against 10 losses.

The Central win upped the Savages' season record to 10 and 16.

Swim Team Readies For Title Meet

Eastern's swimming team wound up its season last Thursday downing Central Washington college, 57-38.

Grayson Hand won the 50- and 100-yard freestyles. Dick Burger won the 440 and 220 yard free styles. The 200-back and the 200-individual medleys were taken by Chisato Kawabori. Bob Short won the 200-yard butterfly with Clair McKie winning the diving event. The team of Short, Hand, Kawabori and Burger won the 400-yard free relay.

The team will travel to the University of Puget Sound Friday and Saturday for the Evergreen conference championships. Hand is expected to retain the 50- and 100-yard free style championship he won last year. Kawabori, McKie, Burger and Short are expected to make a good showing in their events.

Eastern has a potential team record in its' 400-yard free relay. Beaten only once in conference meets, they have recently shaved two seconds off the conference record.

MSU Places First In EW Rifle Match

EWC finished fourth in the fifth annual invitational rifle match held at Eastern February 20, M/Sgt. Jack Harlan said.

Eastern, with an aggregate score of 1371, finished only 24 points behind the leader, Montana State university. The University of Idaho army and Washington State university were the other teams to finish ahead of Eastern, placing second and third, respectively.

Gonzaga university finished fifth, followed by the University of Idaho's air force and navy ROTC teams, which finished sixth and seventh in the seven team field, Sgt. Harlan said.

Dave Meredith of Eastern placed second in individual scoring, finishing only one point behind the leader, Nybo of Montana State university, with a combined score of 284.

12 Ski Clubbers Enjoy Sun Valley

The Ski club made a journey to Sun Valley over the three-day weekend, where all 12 travelers enjoyed skiing and ice-skating. They even swam, according to Dr. John Church, adviser of the Ski club.

Also along to enjoy the fun was Dr. Graham Conroy, associate professor of humanities. Ed DeChenne and Dr. Church represented the college in the giant slalom race. DeChenne didn't win, but finished ahead of Dr. Church.

Vern Inkster, a club member, took eighth place in the rough B1 jumping competition at Leavenworth, Wash., said Dr. Church.

Next meeting of the Ski club will be tomorrow night at 7 p. m. in the union San Juan room.

NAIA Berth Choices Are Challenged

Last week in Tacoma the NAIA basketball committee met to determine the four teams to compete for the District 1 nomination to the national tournament in Kansas City, Mo. later this month.

Pacific Lutheran, Western Washington, and the top independent in the state, Seattle Pacific got the nod for the western half of the district. The committee then passed over Eastern to take the fifth place Evergreen conference team, Central.

Eastern's hoop coach and athletic director, W. B. "Red" Reese, expressed disappointment with the eastern choice.

The faculty athletic committee expressed sterner measures, and Friday sent a formal objection to Ray Cizek, chairman of the NAIA district committee.

"We feel that the EWCE basketball team should have been given more consideration on the basis of its Evergreen conference record, the caliber of non-conference opponents met, and the late season record," the protest stated.

"In past seasons, teams were chosen on the basis of their comparative records with others in the same region. On this basis it seems logical that Eastern and Central should have been given equal consideration. We find it difficult to see from the comparative records why Eastern was not chosen."

1960 Grid Schedule Announced

Eastern has scheduled nine football games for 1960, W. B. "Red" Reese, athletic director, announced.

The Savages will play five of the games at home, Reese said, opening the season with non-conference games against College of Idaho at Caldwell September 17 and Humboldt State September 24 at Cheney.

Eastern will meet Whitworth twice during the 1960 season, Reese said, with the first game October 1 on the Savage's home gridiron and the second November 5 at Country Homes. Both are Evergreen Conference games.

Two Evergreen contests with Pacific Lutheran university are also on tap.

The first game will be at Cheney October 8, the second game ending the season November 12 at Tacoma.

The complete schedule:

Sept. 17, College of Idaho, Caldwell; Sept. 24, Humboldt State, Cheney; Oct. 1, Whitworth, Cheney; Oct. 8, Pacific Lutheran, Cheney; Oct. 15, University of Puget Sound, Tacoma; Oct. 22, Central Washington, Cheney; Oct. 29, Western Washington, Bellingham; Nov. 5, Whitworth, Country Homes, and Nov. 12, Pacific Lutheran, Tacoma.

Technical Writing Now Scheduled

A course in technical report writing, designed to meet the requirements of such courses in engineering schools will be presented at Eastern spring quarter.

Dr. Richard F. Miller, EWC language and literature division head, said the class will be taught by Dr. Robert N. Lass, chairman, department of English.

The course was designed by Dr. Miller and Dr. Lass after consultation with Dr. Stuart Chapman, chairman, socio-humanities studies, school of engineering at the University of Washington, and with Dr. S. James Southers, assistant dean of the UW school of engineering.

Eastern To Host Gymnastic Clinic

Eight high schools and colleges will be represented in a women's gymnastic clinic and open meet, sponsored by Eastern's division of health, physical education and recreation, to be held at the Eastern field house Saturday.

The clinic will present physical education teachers the mechanics of various skills in the six women's gymnastic events, Dr. Jack Leighton, EWC division head, said.

The clinic staff consists of gymnastic coaches Rex Davis, Richland high school, who will instruct on the trampoline; Lyle Pugh, Shadle Park, tumbling; Chuck Thuot, Kennewick, uneven parallel bars; Dr. Virginia Hoffman, EWC, balance beam and side horse vaulting and Dave Kaufmann, EWC, free exercise.

Teams competing include Kennewick, Richland, Highline, Port Townsend and Ritzville high schools, plus a team from Central Washington College and the EWC Savage Gym club.

Two outstanding girl gymnasts will take part in the meet, Dr. Leighton said. One is Shirley Arnold, Kennewick, who won five blue ribbons in the January 30 Cheney Invitational meet, and Dale McClemmons, Highline, one of the outstanding women gymnasts in the Seattle area.

Drill Team Meets GU In Competition

Eastern's reserve officer training corps drill team met Gonzaga university in an informal drill competition in the EWCE field house last Saturday.

The meeting was in preparation for the Inland Empire ROTC drill competition to be held at Washington State university April 29 and 30, Capt. Thomas R. Whelan, EWCE assistant professor of military science and tactics, said.

Members of Eastern's Sponsor corps, women's ROTC auxiliary, provided refreshments after the drill.

Dayton 'No's' Johnson As Candidate

The second of the series of panel discussions on the leading Democratic party candidates for the presidential nomination was held last Thursday night in the Capri room, Mike Green, club vice president reported.

Dr. A. A. Dayton, head of the social studies division, and James Ziegler, assistant professor of history, presented stimulating analyses on the qualifications and prospects of Senators Lynden Johnson of Texas and Stuart Symington of Missouri.

Dr. Dayton pointed out that Senator Johnson, who began his career as a liberal new deal congressman, had become more conservative with the change in the economic and political climate in Texas. He also expressed the opinion that the Democratic party would be making a mistake in nominating Johnson and felt that a liberal candidate would fare much better in a race with vice president Nixon, the apparent nominee of the Republican party.

Ziegler, in discussing, Senator Symington's chances, pointed out that he is assuming the role of a compromise candidate, being acceptable to the major wings of the Democratic party. He termed Symington mildly conservative, but

The IMC is located in room 220A in Martin hall. mentioned his liberal voting record as an asset. Symington's rather poor ability as a public speaker was cited as a handicap, if he were to get the nomination.

GOP Plans Rally For Andrews

A rally for Lloyd Andrews, sponsored by Spokane area and EWC young Republicans, is scheduled for March 4 at 8 p. m. in the lobby of the Davenport hotel, according to Dell McVicker.

McVicker, president of the EWCE young Republicans, says speakers tentatively scheduled for the rally are Congressman Walt Horan and Spokane attorney Bill Bantz, unsuccessful candidate for the senate.

Andrews, the present state superintendent of schools, has been mentioned as a candidate for governor on the Republican ticket. He has said he will declare one way or the other after March 1.

"The rally is free and open to all persons," says McVicker, "and tickets may be obtained from either Dr. Kenneth Hosom, of the division of history and social studies or myself."

"Refreshments will be served and I hope that many persons will turn out for the rally. This is, I believe, the first time in 25 years that there has been a possible candidate for governor from this side of the mountains," McVickers said.

IMC Sound Lab Now Ready For Use

The Instructional Materials Center now has its sound laboratory ready for student use, Dr. John Church, head of the IMC, said.

The laboratory now provides a place where students may practice speaking and recording their voices. It is also equipped with materials to listen to for shorthand translations, Dr. Church said.

We feature and have an excellent selection of St. Patrick's day cards on display now.

Workroom Offers New Services

A wider variety of services are now being made available to Eastern students, Don Williams, assistant in student services, said. One such service is the student center workroom located in last year's bookstore, which was made possible through the efforts of last year's ASB activity coordinator, Don Duncan.

After presenting the idea of a workroom to the student council, Duncan headed a committee to buy the necessary items and set up the room.

Created to give campus organizations or individual students a convenient working place, the room contains posters, dance decorations and such other items. The room offers a paper cutter, decoration materials, storage shelves for campus organizations, working counter, some poster materials and a Ditto machine.

There is also a complete line of hand tools for carpenter work. These tools belong to the ASB and can be checked out through Williams or the ASB activity coordinator.

Other items which can be checked out of this room are bats and balls for use by groups for picnics.

Any student interested is allowed to use this workroom, Williams said. But students are asked to follow instructions posted on the wall and to clean up after finishing.

2 Camera Programs Set By Committee

For those interested in camera artistry, the activities and recreation committee has announced two programs for spring quarter, Lee Burgess, in charge of the programs, said.

Color slides in transparency photography, by students and faculty, will be shown at weekly noon sessions, Burgess said.

A contest for black-and-white photography will be held with cash prizes to be awarded to the winners. The contest will be open to both students and faculty, Burgess said.

Plans for these programs are tentative and will depend on the response received in the next two weeks.

Those interested should contact Burgess in Monroe hall or leave names in the Isle-land suggestion box.

Scholarships Available

Any students interested in a Scottish Rite scholarship to George Washington university are requested to contact Mr. Howard Porterfield, 318 Hyde Building, Spokane.

Dr. A. A. Dayton, head of the division of history and social studies, said that graduating seniors in the department of economics, history or political science are eligible.

An EWCE graduate, Phillip D. Grub, presently attending the university on such a scholarship, informed Dr. Dayton of the availability of the scholarship in a recent letter to him.

Dames Set Talk On 'Herbs And Spices'

Mrs. Florence Thompson, owner of the Garden of Herbs in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho will speak on "Herbs and Spices" at the March 3 meeting of the Dames club.

Door prizes, demonstrations and general information on the use of spices and herbs will be the highlight of the program, which will start at 8 p. m. in the Sutton hall lounge.

"We extend an invitation to all wives of students and married women students," said Nancie Griffin, vice president. Plans for the annual fashion show will be discussed and refreshments will be served.

Sadie Hawkins Dance Set For Friday

The Spurs will sponsor a Sadie Hawkins dance Friday night in the Bali lounge from 9 to 12 p. m., Shirley Beaudreau, president, said.

Those attending this girl-ask-boy affair should wear costumes with the theme of Li'l Abner in mind.

The Larry Lael trio will provide the music for this dance. Admission charges will be 15 cents for stags and 25 cents for couples.

"With today's transportation, there's no such thing as a distant relative."

Placement Office Slates More Job Interviews

Harold Potts, assistant superintendent of schools, Olympia, will be on campus to interview prospective teacher candidates Thursday, March 3, at 9 a. m.

"At the present time we have not received their listings on vacancies but they will probably have vacancies in all fields," Ray Giles, director of placement, said.
