ASB Money Goes To Forensic Class

A new tape recorder has been acquired by Eastern's forensics class. ASB funds provided money for the new recorder which will be used by forensics students for rehearsal recordings, speeches and debates. Money from the ASB fund has also been provided for trips, equipment and books.

Fleming To Europe

M/Sgt. Clifford B. Fleming, Eastern's ROTC supply officer since October 1955, has received orders calling for his transfer to Europe on May 30. Sgt. Fleming is uncertain as to where in Europe he will be stationed, but it will probably be in Germany. He will be overseas for three years.

'Far East' On Slides

A varied program of colored slides will be shown every noon in the old ASB room on the second floor of the student union. Today's program will be the "Far East" with slides from the collection of Herb Rolls. These 45-minute shows are informal with free coffee being served and students can eat their lunch there.

Four Stags Booked For Vet's Sac Show Tomorrow

A new Sacajawea for EWCE is closer to becoming a reality as preparations are now complete for the Sacajawea Benefit show sponsored by Eastern's Veterans club. It will be held in Showalter auditorium tomorrow evening starting at 8 p. m. Tickets for this outstanding event can be purchased at the door, in the rotunda of the student union building, or from any Vets club member. Admission is 75 cents per person or $1.25 for couples. The show, promising to be one of the best to be performed at Eastern in years, features Ollie Schell, KNEW disc jockey from Spokane, as master of ceremonies.

Les Brown Band To Be Here Friday

Les Brown and his "Band of Renown" will appear Friday in Showalter auditorium at 2 p. m. This event is sponsored by the ASB, so admission will be free.

Vets Face Change In Pay Forms

A new pay form for veterans attending college under the G. I. bill will have to be filled out beginning the week of May 2, Mrs. Win Glessner, veteran's clerk, said. The new forms are IBM cards with the names and claim numbers already printed on them. These should be checked for accuracy and veterans should allow more time to check and understand these new forms, Mrs. Glessner said. Forms may be studied in advance at the veteran's office. These monthly pay certificates are the responsibility of the veterans and to insure prompt payment, pay forms should be signed on time and checked for accuracy, she said. There are approximately 30 unsigned pay forms from last month, Mrs. Glessner said.

AMS Vote On Today

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party. Vote Today! AMS elections are today with voting booths set up in the student union. By late afternoon, the booths will be moved to LA hall so voting can be easy for evening meal eaters. Stan Rizzuti and Bill Dick are in the running for president while Larry Graham, Marvin Morasch and Creed Morgan are vying for vice president. In the race for secretary are Peter Link and Dave Lewis; for treasurer, Tom Aris and John Driessen; for social chairman, Larry Liberty and Bob Bruya; for public relations director, Don Egbers and Ernest Shaffer.

HOSSOM IS CHAIRMAN

Dr. H. Kenneth Hossom, EWCE associate professor of political science, served last Saturday as chairman of a group workshop on lobbying and influence in a Greater Spokane Council of Churches legislative seminar workshop.

MODELS SET TO SPRING INTO ACTION—These three EWC Dames club members show a sample of what will be seen in tonight's "Spring Fashions for '60" show sponsored by the Dames club. Set for 7:30 p. m. this evening at Louise Anderson hall lounge, 12—count 'em—12 young women and four children will model a wide variety of clothes ranging from sports wear to evening dress. Tickets at 50 cent each are available from Dames club members or at

UCLA Acts To Curb Cheater

The decision of the University of California at Los Angeles to administer the most severe academic punishment for cheating is welcome.

Henceforth any kind of cheating, helping others to cheat, or plagiarism, will carry a penalty of dismissal if the chancellor and president of the university agree with findings of the faculty committee on student conduct. There will be no second chances, no lesser penalties.

This approach makes sense. One of the strongest incentives for scholastic cheating is the rationalization that everyone else is doing it and getting away with it.

It is this chain reaction in American schools which has led some cynics to speak of current students as the "cheat generation."

We believe this is an exaggeration that itself does great harm. For the use of such a callous expression tends to encourage youngsters who would otherwise shun such behavior to wonder if they are going against the trend.

A recent summary of "the age of payola" in Look magazine pointed out how many current forms of cheating in America—on income tax, on expense accounts, on insurance reports, on local liquor and traffic ordinances, and in school—reflected a loss of moral purposefulness. Honesty was found to be the rule where personal contacts were involved. But where individuals were dealing with such impersonal entities as the corporation, the government or the school—or with large amounts of money—the materialist urge to get as much as possible often prevailed.

The survey further found that much youthful cheating stemmed from the example of parents.

Forceful action such as that taken at UCLA can reverse this trend. Fear of being caught is not the same thing as honesty. But it starts to mend the situation by causing would-be-offenders to think. And by cutting away the impression that cheating is wide-spread and unpunished, it encourages an atmosphere of honesty.—The Christian Science Monitor.

Who Cares About The Stompers?

Your fellow students in the past have created an instrument of student government and you continue to support it, thereby indicating that you have and still do consider such an instrument as necessary and valuable. Furthermore, you have created a democratic government that relies upon your participation for direction and role—a subject recently discussed in this column.

In theory, these two considerations constitute the primary basis for any democratic student government and should set the stage for a functioning organization. But do they? Is the government that each of you contribute $20 per quarter to support, really serving the ends it could and the ends you desire?

I sincerely doubt that it is. If it were, there would be no need for me to have discussed what the role of you as students might be. You would have determined these roles for yourselves and consequently the role of your government.

Difficult To Plan

It is extremely difficult for your elected officials to plan and act without some direction from their constituency, but, if none is forthcoming, they are forced to, and consequently will, act in hopes that their action meets your approval. With the free hand you presently afford them, it is conceivable that their actions will be far from what you consider necessary or valuable.

Still you have not elected tyrants, regardless of some speculation, and one of their primary goals is to gain this student support—your support—that will aid them in determining the course the majority of the students would desire.

But this isn't all they will do. There are many projects ranging from aiding the Southern "sit in" movement to investigating the possibilities of incorporating the Associated Student government, and the officers will act in these areas feeling they have your approval unless they are otherwise directed.

For example, what action can the Associated Student council take on the recent banning of the Stompers if you fail to do anything more than complain to one another?

Good Training Area

Your student government is a wonderful "training area" for the responsibilities of mature citizenship which we must all accept in the near future, so make use of it. Talk or write to your officers and your paper, sit in on council meetings and find out what is going on because it does affect you.

By taking such an interest, you will be helping yourself, the student government, the student community, the nation and the world. If you fail to do so, you will be seriously harming the five areas—perhaps even destroying them in the form that they now exist.

In Student Union

Student Asks OK For Barber Shop

Eastern's chance of getting a campus barber shop, and the decision banning the Stompers (a band composed of EWCE students) from playing in student union building, were two of the main topics discussed at last Wednesday's meeting of the student union board of control.

Earl Benser, a freshman majoring in natural science, recently asked the board about the possibility of running a barber shop in the student union building.

Benser, a qualified barber, has had experience cutting hair in the Spokane Valley, has been a union barber for 10 years, and will be able to give haircuts for as little as $1 if he is given a shop in the student union, he said.

A motion was passed by the board to form a committee to look into the possibility, and contact people of authority about the barbershop. Denny Martin and Ted Shultz were named to the committee.

The action taken by the board on the banning of the Stompers from playing in the student union building, was in the form of a motion passed supporting the decision.

Discussion leading up to this decision was that juvenile acts of vandalism are not committed when other bands play in the student union building.

Letter To The Editor

Union Is Rapped

To the Editor:

Last week's editorial in The Easterner invoked some interesting comments.

A former Gonzaga U student tells that with about 900 students at GU the service in their union is much superior to ours. Hired help cleans up the tables after students leave. At Eastern the students are asked to do it themselves. Food at GU is cheaper and tastes better.

We wonder why, with twice the student body at EWC as GU has, our union has so much trouble operating. In an effort to show a profit the union leaders have cut the quality of the food being served (have you eaten a hamburger lately?)

Maybe if the union leaders were more interested in providing good service and food instead of showing a profit (this gives points toward further employment) things would improve.

(Signed) George Schee

'Minimum Wage' Is Platform-60 Topic

Today's debate in the Citizenship Clearing House's Platform '60 program will be "Extension of the Minimum Wage Coverage," Dr. H. K. Hossom, associate professor of political science, said.

Jack Hamilton, business manager, Spokane retail clerks' union, will speak in favor of the extension; James Doney, manager of a Spokane employment agency (Manpower, Inc.) will speak against it.

The talk will be held in the Harbor room of the student union at 9 a. m.

Smith Attends Meet

Russell Smith, Eastern's assistant professor of accounting, recently attended the annual convention of the Western Business Education association in Phoenix, Ariz.

At this meeting it was decided that Spokane will host the convention in 1961 on April 6, 7 and 8, Smith said.

Know Your Campus...

THE STACK—This smoke stack, situated directly in front of Monroe hall and somewhat north of Showalter hall stands 125 feet high. It provides an outlet for the smoke from the campus heating plant. It was painted its present white color with a big red "E" six years ago.

The Big Question

What is your opinion on the new and "slightly controversial" Easterner series, "Know Your Campus?"

Dean Robinson: "I think that such a feature should appear only in a humor magazine and has no place in a journalistic endeavor."

Gary R. Herman: "What journalistic endeavor?"

Judy Chissus: "The connotative value of the writing under the pictures is tremendous."

Tom Ennis: "The photography could be improved, but I think the column is quite informative."

Government Farm Surplus Programs Hit By Speakers

Commenting that each federal farm program was "the outgrowth of the failure of the preceding one," Merle Sather, Spokane, executive secretary of the Pacific Northwest Grain Dealers association, went on to say that the price support program became "a vote getting issue" following the end of World war II.

Speaking at last Thursday's Platform-'60 program, Sather and George W. Johnson, Ritzville, executive secretary of the Washington Association of Wheat Growers, were in agreement on the failures of the nation's past farm programs.

Johnson said wheat is the state's most important crop accounting for 22 per cent ($138,000,000) of the state's gross income.

He said "we are not saying we must have a subsidy because someone else has one," but "for every $1000 the government spends for subsidies, the farmer gets $5." The rest of the subsidies go to the railroads, airlines, shipping, postal, and other industries, he said.

Sather said agriculture is basic to the economy and we "need realistic controls on production." Sather added that Secretary of Agriculture Benson is trying to accomplish this but "he is a very stubborn man and not willing to compromise."

"Benson will be out of office next year no matter who gets elected and maybe we can look to 1961 for some action," he said.

Johnson said that a marketing bill his group has introduced into congress would "eliminate subsidies and acreage allotments and reduce the cost to taxpayers while starting to reduce the wheat surplus now in storage."

Johnson added that it was rather doubtful in an election year that this program would pass.

Sather commented that this program would eliminate the inefficient "little farmer."

"We are fighting an ideological cold war where the survival of the fittest seems hard, but it is necessary."

Mothers' Day Planned By AMS

Women of EWCE will celebrate the 12th annual Mothers' Day this year on May 1. The program, to which the mothers of all Eastern students have been invited, is planned by co-chairmen Mary Buntrock and Priscilla Bigge.

Committee heads for the Associated Women Students' Mothers' Day are Nellie May Miles, programs, Marilyn Tuten, dinner; Nora Jo Smith, dorm teas; Sharon Perkins and Judy Haydon, decorations; Dorene Rosenbaum and Iris Breider, invitations; Kathy Morris, corsages; Esther Kunitake, publicity, and Marilu Marson, registration.

Registration for the Mothers' Day will begin at 9 a. m. May 1, church attended at 11, a pre-luncheon served at Louise Anderson hall, luncheon in the LA dining hall, and the theme "Mother Is A Jewel" carried out in a program presented for the mothers in Bali lounge at 3. Dormitory teas and receptions begin at 4.

Mothers of Eastern's commuters are especially invited to Mothers' Day, Miss Buntrock stressed, and the tradition of presenting mothers with corsages will once again be observed.

Honorary Pledges 6

Epsilon Iota chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national professional music sorority for women majoring or minoring in music, has taken the following girls for spring pledges: Darlene Fields, Sharon James, Sharron Eaton, Patty Lane, Reynola Harlon, and Marelu Marson.

The pledging ceremony was held at the home of Miss Gwendolyn Harper, club adviser.

Canadian To Speak At Eastern Friday

A noted Canadian psychiatrist and former director general of World Health organization of the United Nations will speak at Eastern Friday, April 29.

Dr. Brock Chisholm, author of "Prescription for Survival" and "Can People Learn to Live?" will talk on "New World—New Methods."

Dr. Chisholm, a Canadian citizen, is past director of the World Health organization, past president of the Canadian National Committee for Mental Hygiene, Canadian Health committee, and the Canadian Youth committee.

In 1956, he was Walker-Ames lecturer at the University of Washington.

The meeting will be at the Bali room of the student union at 10 a. m. Friday.

Book Review Is Set For Thursday

Miss Cecil Dryden, associate professor of history emeritus, will review the book, "Doctor Zhivago" by Boris Pasternak, Thursday evening at 7 p. m. in the Tahiti room of the student union. The book was a 1958 Nobel prize winner.

Students, faculty and townspeople are welcome at the session. It is sponsored by the United Student Christian foundation.

8 Eastern Knights At National Meet

The national convention of Intercollegiate Knights was held in Pocatello, Idaho, last weekend to elect new national officers and set policy for the coming year.

Eight EWC members attended. They are Ray Raschko, Jim Joireman, Roy Clayton, Bill Dick, Finley MacKenzie, Bruce Peters, Dell Boswell and Dave Lewis.

Rifle Meet Set For EW

An Inland Empire rifle conference, sponsored by the Spokane Chamber of Commerce armed forces committee, will be held at Eastern April 30 from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m., M/Sgt. Jack Harlan, head of Eastern's reserve officer training corps team, said.

The host team will be Gonzaga university, last year's winner, but the meet is being held at Eastern because of the lack of proper facilities in Spokane, Sgt. Harlan said.

The meet will draw army ROTC teams from Washington State university, Gonzaga university, the University of Idaho and Eastern. The University of Idaho will also enter a navy and an air force team.

Awards will be given to the first and second place teams, and individual awards will be given to the members of the winning team. Individual awards will be given to the first and second place teams, and individual awards will be given to members of the winning team. Individual awards will also be given to the three highest scorers of the meet.

Refreshments will be served after the meet by the queen and princesses of Gonzaga's military ball.

Demos To Hear Mort Sahl Record

Eastern's Young Democrat club meeting tomorrow evening will feature the record, "Idol Smashing" of comedian Mort Sahl.

According to Mike Green, club vice president, the program will begin at 7:30 p. m. and will conclude with refreshments. "Everyone," Green said, "interested in the Democratic party is urged to attend and get acquainted."

Stewart Appointed

Dr. Edgar I. Stewart, Eastern history professor, has been appointed to the program committee of the Mississippi Valley Historical association for 1961.

Dr. Stewart, author of "Custer's Luck" and other books on western history, will represent the Inland Empire and the field of western history.

Cartooning Humorist In Convocation Tomorrow

History, not cartooning, has been the lifelong interest of Burr Shafer, creator of the cartoon character "J. Wesley Smith" who will speak at Eastern tomorrow morning. He will appear in a convocation in Showalter auditorium at 10 a. m.

"The most interesting thing about history," says Shafer, "is the people in it. The most wonderful human interest stories are buried in fine print footnotes, or cautiously admitted into history books to illustrate a point. History as written in the text books makes the principal characters in it seem like dreary strawmen. They don't seem like real people."

His interest in bringing the people in history to life started Shafer on sketching them, eventually evolving his engaging character, "J. Wesley Smith" whose naive, but often shrewd and penetrating observations are the joy of readers of the Saturday Review of Literature, in which "Mr. Smith" makes his regular appearances.

History students are now likely to come across Mr. Smith too, for, taking his message to heart, text book publishers have engaged Shafer to illustrate certain history textbooks which seem to need a bit of brightening up.

The first collection of Shafer's cartoons, "Through History with J. Wesley Smith," was published by Vanguard Press in 1950; "Louder and Funnier," drawn from Shafer's experiences as a public speaker, and circulated widely among the Toastmaster's clubs throughout the country, was published in 1951. The second edition of "Through History" is scheduled for publication next year.

In his lecture "Through History With J. Wesley Smith," Shafer will illustrate his talk with sketches which he makes while speaking. A humorous man rather than a wit, his own dry remarks and wry commentaries remind one of his own engaging "Mr. Smith."

His philosophy is a simple one:

To those who complain about the strain of modern times, Shafer reminds them that walking down a pioneer road trying to avoid being scalped by an Indian could be something of a strain too.

Placement Office Slates Interviews

Representatives from the Vancouver public schools, Vancouver, Wash., will be on campus today at 9 a. m. to interview candidates interested in this district. They have vacancies in the following areas: Several elementary positions, junior high common learnings, speech and drama, math, art and general language, remedial, occupational therapy and psychologist.

Leonard Jennings, principal of Colfax, Wash., will be on campus Thursday, April 28, at 10 a. m. to interview people interested in eighth grade and girls' physical education, English, journalism and speech, vocal music, eighth grade or 8th grade social studies, math or science.

M. C. Romney, Proctor and Gamble company, will be on campus to interview candidates on Tuesday, May 3, at 9 a. m. They are interested in sales trainees.

Anyone interested in any of the above should make appointments at the placement office.

Student Teacher Meet Is Tomorrow

The general meeting for fall quarter student teachers will be held tomorrow at 9 a. m. in Martin hall auditorium, Dr. Gerald Mercer, director of student teaching, said.

Appointments will be made at this time for interviews with college supervisors concerning student teacher placement. All persons applying for student teaching during fall quarter 1960 must attend, Dr. Mercer said.

Drill Competition Entered By ROTC

EWC's reserve officer training corps drill team will participate in the Inland Empire ROTC drill team competition to be held at Washington State university April 30, M/Sgt. Marvin Wells, drill team supervisor, announced.

Eastern will be competing against 11 other teams representing six colleges from Washington, Idaho and Montana.

Any Eastern rooters wishing to attend the meet will be cordially welcomed, Sgt. Wells said.

Savages Triumph 3-2

PATTERSON'S FIELDING KEY

The EWCE Savages, thanks to the pitching of Don S. Patterson, now school president, defeated the Bellingham Vikings 3-2 in the final game of the 1926 baseball season.

Unfortunately, Dr. Patterson was pitching for the Vikings.

In the ninth frame of the 11 inning game the Savages, who played air-tight ball, were aided by the Bellingham pitcher who muffed a slow grounder, enabling Cheney to run in a tally knotting the game 2-2.

In the 11th inning an error on the part of Patterson's team gave the Cheney Normal players the winning score.

Had radio and newspapers been invented in 1926, Patterson's comments upon the game would have been preserved. It is certain, though, that he was rightfully proud of the superior Savages and that he undoubtedly vowed to someday "get even with the whole bunch."

"Patterson on the mound," will remain a legend at Eastern.

Women Hear Moe

Miss Alice Moe, assistant professor of speech, addressed the Ritzville Women's club in Ritzville last night. Miss Moe gave three readings to a gathering of approximately 40 women.

Weather Stops EWC Tracksters

Unseasonal snow and rain Saturday caused the Eastern-Central dual track meet, scheduled for Woodward field, to be called off.

Track coach W. B. "Red" Reese said that because both schools have full schedules, the meet will probably have to be cancelled.

Eastern's trackmen will face the University of Idaho in a dual meet at Moscow Saturday, weather permitting.

PE Club Set For Women

As a part of the expanded and enriched program of the division of health, physical education and recreation, the Women's Physical Education club was organized during fall quarter.

This club meets each Wednesday from 3 to 5 p. m. and is a requirement for all women majoring or minoring in physical education.

The club proposes to increase group rapport and esprit de corps; develop and increase social skills, motor skills and fitness; encourage personal and professional growth and provide fun. Its activities include teas, professional meetings, practice sessions, splash parties, and sports and play days with other colleges.

At a recent meeting, Miss Elsa Schneider, specialist in health and elementary physical education from Washington, D. C., was the special guest.

Miss Schneider, who has taught on elementary, secondary, and college levels, spoke on meeting the needs of children in the classroom and in physical education activities. She also gave some excerpts from the White House conference on children and youth.

The meeting to be held April 20 will consist of apparatus and trampoline activities in the fieldhouse.

Any woman who is interested in physical education is welcome to attend these meetings, Dr. Virginia Hoffman, club adviser, said.

Tennis Team Splits Pair

Eastern's tennis team brought its season record to 2-3 last weekend, defeating Gonzaga university 6-1 after bowing to a tough Central team, 5-2 on Friday.

Eastern netters had a bad day against Central although now eligible Mickey Soss and Roger Cromer showed good form in winning their respective matches.

Saturday was a different story however, as the Savages avenged an earlier 5-2 pasting from Gonzaga, giving them only three sets en route to their easy 6-1 victory.

Eastern only lost the number one singles in defeating Gonzaga. Eastern winners were Bill Wright, Cromer, Stan Peterson and Joohn Grosshans in the singles matches, and Soss and Wright, and Peterson and Grosshans in the doubles.

Pedestrian fatalities decreased last year, but still 102 were killed.

Motor vehicles traveled 11,401,466,516 miles in this state last year.

Superior Student Speaker Draws SRO Audience

By George Schee

Speaking before a standing room only crowd in the student union last Tuesday, Dr. Glenn Kendall, president of Chico State college, California, talked on "The Goal is High."

Accompanied by the staccato blasts of a gasoline powered lawnmower operating outside the meeting room, Dr. Kendall told the students that the "first duty of EWC is to improve the life and living conditions in the state of Washington."

"We need to meet the needs of all groups," he said.

"The place of the unschooled and unskilled is fast fading in today's world," he said. "The student of today must set higher goals of study."

Mentioning that it is sometimes hard to tell the student from the faculty, Dr. Kendall said, "Education is not a process of passive absorption, but active leadership."

Meetings Suggested

Dr. Kendall suggested that student leaders meet with the faculty in informal discussion groups and talk about some interesting items.

"It is through such discussions that we find the greatest way towards insight."

"The educated person does not close his books upon graduation, but keeps on acquiring knowledge," he said.

One of the goals of higher education should be to shape the character of the students and to develop, not only knowledge, but wisdom.

Dr. Kendall said that the current system of eight years of grade school, four years of high school and four years of college has made us victims of the system.

"We should be freed of tradition; we will make no progress sticking with tradition, and if you break it, maybe you won't make any progress, but you've got a chance.

New Demands

"New demands are being placed on the colleges today. Students are finding a new way to by-pass the old set of formulas on the road to knowledge. The problem of meeting the needs of superior students is certainly one of the main roads," he said.

"The teacher must identify the superior student and then stimulate and maintain top quality work to further his development."

Bowlers Place 4th In PNW Meeting

EWCE's bowling team placed fourth in the Northwest Regional Bowling tournament last weekend, held at the University of Washington, in Seattle.

The Eastern team bowled 2760 and 2788 for a total score of 5488, which gave the Savages fourth place in the regional championship.

Dick Burger, Eastern sophomore, finished in a tie for fourth in singles high game, with a score of 243. Other members of the team include Bruce Wong, Larry Pember and Calvin Greenaway.

Art Work Deadline Set For Festival

Eastern artists have until May 10, to enter work for the art exhibit, which will be a major part of the college's fourth annual Spring Arts Festival, to be held from May 15-20.

Robert L. Hanrahan, festival coordinator, said two pieces can be entered in one or more media, including drawing, prints, oil painting, water color, sculpture, ceramics, crafts or weaving.

All entries must be labeled, Hanrahan said, and must include the artist's name, title of the work, media, school and sale price. Entries may be made any time before May 10, in the art department, Showalter room 401.

Whit Doubleheader This Afternoon

Three baseball games were cancelled over the weekend, when winter-like spring weather failed to cooperate.

Eastern's Friday game with Gonzaga has been postponed, but yesterday's game against the 'Zags was still on the slate.

The double-header against Whitworth has been re-set for 1:30 this afternoon at Eastern, again weather permitting. The Savages will meet the Pirates in another double-header Saturday at Whitworth.

may be necessary for the show committee to eliminate some pieces from the show, Hanrahan said.

Economic loss attributed to traffic accidents in this state last year totaled $69,979,960.

Nilsson Will Attend Strategy Seminar

Col. Erwin G. Nilsson, professor of military science and tactics of Eastern's reserve officer training corps unit, is attending the Asilomar national strategy seminar, sponsored by the Sixth army with the participation of the Western Sea Frontier and Fourth air force, from April 24-30.

"Purpose of the seminar is to study and discuss the elements of a national strategy appropriate to the spectrum of conflict between the free world and the communist block during the 1960's with appropriate emphasis on military and economic factors," Col Nilsson said.

The 1 out of 20 that didn't get smoked

There's a lot of satisfaction in pointing out something good to a friend. That's why it often happens that one cigarette out of a pack of Dual Filter Tareytons never does get smoked.

People break it open to demonstrate its unique Dual Filter containing Activated Charcoal. They may not know why it works so well, but they do know this: It delivers far more than high filtration . . . it brings out the best taste of the best tobaccos—as no single filter can!

Try a pack of Tareytons. We believe the extra pleasure they bring will soon have you passing the good word to your friends.

HERE'S HOW THE DUAL FILTER DOES IT:

1. It combines a unique inner filter of ACTIVATED CHARCOAL . . . definitely proved to make the smoke of a cigarette mild and smooth . . .
2. with an efficient pure white outer filter. Together they bring you the real thing in mildness and fine tobacco taste!

Contest Starts May 1, Cash To Winners

"Spring Comes to the Campus" will be the theme for the student-faculty photography contest which begins May 1, and is sponsored by the student union. Prizes of $20 and $10 for the best overall photograph and best photograph in each of the categories, respectively, will be awarded.

The categories will include (a) people and animals and (b) still life and landscapes. All photos submitted will be displayed during the arts festival, May 15 to 20.

The following rules will prevail for the contest: (1) prints must be black and white, (2) prints may be either glossy or mat finish, (3) minimum size is 5 x 7, (4) all prints must be submitted unmounted, (5) a contestant may enter one or both categories, (6) the school is not responsible for loss or damage of any print, (7) prints may be picked up anytime after May 23, 1960, (8) prints will become the property of the A and R committee after June 2, 1960, (9) a minimum of 10 persons must enter to classify as a contest and (10) two entries per person only.

When submitting photos put name and address on back of print, put technical data such as type of camera, settings, etc., on back of print, address print to: Photo Contest, Box 888, EWCE. Entries may not be submitted after noon May 13, 1960.

HUMORIST IS GUEST

Marcel Hillaire, French humorist, was the dinner guest of Eastern's French club last week before his performance in Showalter auditorium.

EW Cites Attend Regional NSA Meet

Five Eastern students attended a Great Northwest Regional National Student association conference at Washington State university recently. During the two-day conference, most attention was focused on the domestic and international issues that affect, or perhaps will affect, students during the coming year. Attention was also directed towards regional organization and projects.

Perhaps one of the most significant developments to come from the conference was the idea that we as students should educate ourselves a bit more thoroughly on the subjects we are discussing and to not neglect the many problems in our own "backyard" as subject matter.

Attending the conference were Maggie Jefferis, "Davy" Simons, Irene Sherwood, Garth Wheeler and Paul Hooper, who was elected executive vice chairman of the region for the following school year.

Leaf Heads IRC

Larry Leaf has been elected president of EWCE's International Relations club, and will be aided by vice president Ron Wolfe and secretary-treasurer Carolyn McCulloch in the 1960-1961 school year.

The club will present a panel discussion on the Model United Nations issues of 1960 at a meeting on May 10 at 10 a. m. at the Koffee Korner. The meeting will be open and all discussion welcome.

Poland, Ghana, and India have been chosen by the EWCE organization for representation by the group at the Model United Nations to be held in 1961 at University of Oregon in Eugene.

Miss. History Meet Attracts 2 Profs

The head of Eastern's history and social studies division, Dr. Aretas A. Dayton, and Dr. Edgar I. Stewart, professor of history are attending the annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical association.

The meeting is in Lexington, Ky., April 26-30.

The worst time of day for traffic accidents in this state is from 4 to 6 p. m.

SMITH ELECTED

Russell Smith, assistant professor of accounting at Eastern, was recently elected to the executive board of the Eastern Washington Business Education association. He is one of three members on the board.

Music Camp To Be Held On Campus

Eastern Washington College of Education's seventh annual Inland Empire Music camp will be held this summer on the college campus at Cheney.

Camp director William L. Maxson, EWCE assistant professor of music, said the camp was moved to the college to permit more students to attend. Previously enrollment was limited to 100 students, but as many as 150 can be accommodated on the EWCE campus.

The two-week camp, which starts June 19, is for junior and senior high school musicians.
