Bonfire and Pajama Rally Included in Activities

A Friday night bonfire and pajama rally will provide an opportunity for students to decorate their dorm rooms and to win an award for their dormitory theme.

Sponsored by the Homecoming committee, the rally will form outside Louise Anderson Hall at 6 p.m., form a serpentine line, and proceed to the football field. Students will wear pajamas to dinner and to the rally, according to Helen Hansen, rally committee chairman. The members of the committee have been assigned to the dorm having the largest all-class pajama-clad participants.

That's right—pajamas! "We want to see all you guys and gals out there, and be sure to wear your pajamas," says Wally Kluver, dance director.

Chadwick, accompanied by the Dixieland band, will lead students in singing and cheerleading activities. Special interest groups have been sent to Eastern's football coach Ed Chadwick, and a member of the team.

A dummy, representing a Central Washington college football player and constructed by freshmen boys, will be thrown on the field by Eastern's football coach, Dick Koerner.

"We expect the prom to be really different," Betty Murola, ASB secretary, hopes "It will be the party in pajamas."

THEME OF HOMECOMING

by Don Daniels

Eastern Washington students are the present hosts this week to the students of the past, and in a very profound sense both are hosts to students of the future — for, as they joyously survey the accomplishments of EWC and her "Forecasts of the Future," they determine with even more eagerness to build hereafter on the heritage which they have found, much more.

This heritage that built Eastern from her small but dedicated beginnings with its omnivorous function as a teacher-training college into her rapidly expanding schools of the arts and sciences continues to attract students and alumni and teachers of Eastern are joining enthusiastically with our student legislature, faculty, and staff, and even student voters, to share Washington state to their vision of the increasing growth of our schools and the service we will render by supporting Referendum No. 10, a bond issue for the construction of urgently needed buildings.

Yes, this Homecoming week end will be loaded with nostalgia for the returning alumni and exciting for the present students and their faculty members as they participate in the many thrilling activities so imaginatively planned and ably executed for them by the Homecoming committees. But the future, tangible and bold, will be more, too, giving an added zest and meaning to all that transpires — truly a "Forecast of the Future."

EWC Homecoming History Colorful and Exciting Tale

by Zeko Livingston

"Youth is the best time to get acquainted with Western," declares one of the students. "I've just met old friends. How many of these old friends, though, will remember me?" This question is particularly pertinent to all students graduating each year, for the attachment of alumni to their alma mater is not always a strong one.

Cheney Normal was the school's name when Sacajawea and her band of Sacagawea Nomads were here. The school is still here, but the Homecoming game is still here, and the unforseen date of October 15th is celebrated and met by the students.

Ann Torrance, this year's Sacajawea, who will represent Eastern as official booster throughout the year will be carrying on a tradition popular here since 1919.

In that year, the senior class elected a Miss Martha Hamill as "the woman of the year," who was to "represent the school in the appropriate dates for the Homecoming dance will be set in a "spotless bugle." The students carried the torch for the remainder of the year.

Discuss Plans For Year

by Tom Ennis

A planning session for the associated student council was held last weekend at the Harbor resort at Diamond lake for the purpose of forming a policy council throughout the year.

Fifteen persons attended the session, this number accounting for a large majority of the council members. Various members were unable to attend because of other school commitments.

This session was held for various reasons. One of the primary purposes of this session was to act as a pilot session to discuss the setting up of the student leadership camp to be held sometime later in the year.

This was also a means of getting the members of the council acquainted informally, so that the working of the council throughout the year can be on a more harmonious and personal basis.

Many questions of current interest were discussed at the session. Among these were registration, campus-community relations, parking, council elections, etc.}

Sutton "Madhatters" Harass Freshmen

At midnight, a week ago, a human chain of Sutton hall freshmen, already stiffly harrassed, moved slowly through an obstacle course devised by feyish upperclassmen to prove that they could maneuver the mettle of their manhood.

Sorely tried but not d Mushroomed, the figures passed long enough to joyfully sing a ‘re- quested’ song. Moments later:

More people are loyal to Camel than any other cigarette today. It stands to reason: the best tobacco makes the best cigarette. The Camel blend of costly tobaccos has never been equalled for rich flavor and easy-going mildness. No wonder Camel is the No. 1 cigarette of all brands today!

As testimony, that EWC students and faculty are aware of horizons far beyond their own immediate interests, Governor Alfred Rosellini was invited by the International Relations club to speak here last week on “Problems of Peace in the Far East.” Masako Sawada, exchange student from Japan and IRC president, and Beverly Zier, Wenatchee; chat with Governor Roselli

Faculty members chosen by the Homecoming decorations committee will judge the displays which must be completed by 9 o’clock on Friday evening, Oct. 17.

Rosellini Speaks on Israel

Israel is “here to stay” and America should welcome the strong little country as a friend in a troubled area, Governor Albert Rosellini told an Eastern Washington college audience recently.

Arguing in favor of American and Israeli unity, Rosellini spoke before 275 students and faculty at a tea in his honor sponsored by the campus International Relations club. His appearance was part of an afternoon and evening visit to the Cheney campus.

The governor related his experiences of a tour of Israel and the Middle East last spring. He praised Premier Ben-Gurion as a “dynamic and intelligent” leader and said the Israelis are “confident of the future.”

"The government feels secure against an Arab attack; fears only Russian intervention on the part of the Arabs,” Rosellini said. He said Ben-Gurion felt very strongly that

Storaasli runs 92 yds For Viking Victory

By Al Ruddy

The Savages, although dominating play in the entire second half, came up with their first loss of the 1958 Evergreen football campaign last Saturday when they went down before the Western Washington college Vikings 6-0 in Bellingham.

The Western tally came with less than two minutes remaining in the third period.

Eastern had taken possession of the ball on the Eastern 49, and in nine plays had gotten to the eight yard line. Western was massed in an 8 man tackle to the eight yard line. Western halfback Sam Martin sparked a drive that ended on the Eastern four. Tom Emerson attempted a field goal but it was wide and the Savages took over on their 30.

Eastern went out to the 50, but there the drive stopped and Western took over on downs. In nine plays and a 15 yard penalty, which gave Western a needed first down, the ball rested on the Eastern two, but again the aggressive Savage line held. Eastern ran two plays before the first half gun sounded.

Opposite of the first half, the second half was played entirely within the Western half of the field.

Dewey Van Dinter returned the second half opening kickoff to the Western 29. Bauer managed to take the club down to the 24. Bauer there hit Van Dinter for the first Eastern completed pass, then Van Dinter fumbled to the Norsemen 29.

A third Redman drive, following the Western 92 yard drive, went to the Western 14, but the all strong Viking defense there put a damper on it.

Dick Nearents, in his usual husky of the Savage line, was chosen captain by his teammates the day before the opener against Idaho State college.

Nearents played his high school ball in Pasco, and was a four year lettermen. After leaving high school he enlisted in the Marines where he saw action during the Korean conflict. He played two years before the first half gun sounded.

Nearents, who tips the scales at 285 and stands six feet two inches, is one of the two starters back from last year's line.

Upon receiving his degree in education, Dick plans to go into teaching, but has high hopes of playing professional ball.

Clark Myers Heads List

Hustling Clark Myers, veteran left half of the Eastern Washington college Savages, is leading the squad in yards gained rushing.

The 175-pound Myers, who likes the quick opening, has carried the ball 33 times for a net of 170 yards and an average of 5.1.

Best averages belong to newcomers Stan Rhodes at right half and Willie Jones at left half. Rhodes has picked 11 times for 80 yards and a 7.7 average. Jones carried the ball seven times against Idaho State for 56 yards and an 8 yard average.

He was injured in the second game and played only a few minutes in the third.

Jim Bauer, quarterback, has carried nine times for 47 yards and a 5.4 average.

Two other fine backs return to coach Abe Proffenroth's squad, Jim Nelson and Dan Schwiosow.

Defensive End

The left side of the Central line is all veterans, while the right is made up of newcomers. Mike Flinnigan, Larry Ma- guire, Ruben Rawley and Gary Frederick for the nucleus of the line.

Last year the Wildcats defeated the Savages 13-6, and retained undefeated in conference play last year.

The Wildcats have built their club around 16 returning lettermen.

Competion with Central began in 1922 and since that time Eastern has won 17, lost 13 and the clubs have tied three times.

Eastern should be almost at full strength for the contest, with only minor injuries, bumps, and bruises, resulting from the Western contest.

Roses Sideline

Stan Rhodes, was sidelined in the Pacific Lutheran game, with a chest injury and probably will not see action for the contest.

Bill Palmer suffered a twisted knee last week end and should be ready at his starting tackle post.

Coach Ed Chissus comment- ed, "This will undoubtedly be our toughest game of the season. They have a strong line and some good fast backs. Last week, once we got rolling our defense showed very well, and I think we can get an offense rolling we could come out real well."

Ed Chief Describes Soviet Tour

The pace of education in the Soviet Union is quite fast, according to Dr. Edgar I. Stewart of Eastern Washington College of Education.

Dr. John B. Whitelaw, chief of teacher training in the United States office of education recently returned from a three-week visit in several schools with nine other American educators. Miss youngsters, the Russians are doing in education is breathtaking," he reported.

"The Soviets believe that the key to future lies in education and they are putting no effort and no funds on that for the future," reported Dr. Whitelaw. "Then, in one tent, starts children in the first grade, the students in ten days a week at a rapid pace.

The kind of education Russian children are getting is very similar to the classical American school training of 1910. It is said no effort is made to separate the gifted child until an institution of higher education and then the child is spur to push him along.

Dr. Whitelaw said most intellects are not given to grade work that is put by the government, because the social sciences are very involved in politics.

Dr. Whitelaw is in the North-west to address a series of teacher training meetings in Idaho. He was in Coeur d'Alene, Lewiston and Moscow and also attended.

Despite gas rations, rubber restrictions, and the reality of 11 months of war, the game was played in 1942 in which Rand Killin, now an instructor in industrial arts and former IMC instructor, was an instructor in safety education, played at home and center respectively that year.

An attendance mark of 7500 was set in 1948, with the spectators jamming every seat, cranny, and corner.

First fleet for a homecoming queen appeared in 1950 and the campus celebrated its 60th anniversary as a state institution and to celebrate this anniversary, "Diamond Jubilee" was named as the homecoming theme.
