The Euterner will not be published during the week of December 3, because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Belgian Artist Appears In Concert This Evening

Queenie Davis, outstanding Belgian artist who has appeared in leading American and European concert halls, is one of the greatest pianists and recording artists today, will appear in November auditorium December 4 at 8:30 p.m.

Students, faculty and the public will get a chance to hear the talented Belgian pianist perform. Miss Davis is a member of the American Federation of Teachers Union, which has been a leader in the struggle to improve the working conditions of teachers.

Miss Davis' favorite piece will be Beethoven's Fifth Symphony. She will also perform in a recital of music by Chopin, Debussy, and Ravel. The recital will conclude with Beethoven's Symphony No. 9. Miss Davis has been praised by critics for her interpretations of these masterpieces.

The concert is sponsored by the Music Department and the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Admission is free and open to the public.

Labor Leader to Address Con Audience Tomorrow

Reverend Bay, professor of social sciences at the University of Chicago, will deliver the servers four times, Thursday, December 3, at Euterner's inaugural.

Bay will begin his series of talks on "How to Organize a Community," with a brief statement to"organized" meeting in the Union.

Bay's talk on the conventions will be "How to Organize a Political Convention." He will have special emphasis on the mechanics and functions of a convention. Bay has organized six conventions, and from these experiences he will give the audience a first-hand account of what it takes to organize and run a convention.

Traveler To Give Views Of Russia

Russia and the complex and controversial Russian culture will be the subject of a talk given by Frank Niebel, music critic for the Chicago Daily News, at the annual meeting of the Chicago Section of the American Record Association.

Niebel, who has traveled extensively in Russia, will discuss the country's music, culture, and politics, and will share his insights on the current political situation in Russia.

He will also discuss the unique art of Russian folk music, and will share his thoughts on the influence of Russian music on the world.

Talented Musicians Entertain Audience

A musical program was presented by several talented performers from the School of Music, for a small but enthusiastic audience Thursday at 8:30 at the auditorium.

Three piano performers played in the next selection, of the program, by Sonny Sacks, for a short period following his 11:00 performance, and the last number of the program.

A chorus of three girls was featured in the next selection, of the program, by Bill Sandor, also a pianist, for a short period following his piano performance, and was accompanied by a small group of female vocalists, who were singing and making some noise.

A change of pace was provided by Miss Kessler, who delivered a moving performance of "Aber Jangerl" on the piano, followed by a beautiful selection sung by Miss Kessler.

Two pianists, who were members of the faculty, also delivered piano performances of "Das Lied" and "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik" by Beethoven, for a short period following the piano performance, and were accompanied by a small group of female vocalists, who were singing and making some noise.
Thanksgiving Views Expressed By Faculty

If you were to ask any man on the street about what he thinks ought to be done to solve any particular social, politi cal or economic problem, likely he would not reply "This is what the public needs to be educated." It is some per ducer of failure—"if it is not so, you have failed." We know the lives of the American citizen that men can govern things that man cannot govern himself. Further, the individual human consciousness improves himself and the quality of his own living.

It is appropriate at Thanksgiving time to remind ourselves of the deep relationship between education and self-improvement and of the need for education to bring to light the true ideal of universal, free public education with equality of opportunity for all. We do not desire to go so far as to present the influence of our democratic superstructure, public equality, insurance, financial depression, etc., to the masses of people to realize what we are and what we have toward our goal;
we only call to mind the opportunities for education.

Opportunities have improved and yet, many do not see.
Young men and women speak of being able to go to college with a certain amount of college training and school training. The high grade today is almost in every grade of school, but the very high and college training is not only in wealthy districts, but in many wealthy schools. This is the very reason, however, for which many are able to speak of difficulty, as they say, in getting better education, as they have the cultural heritage and spiritual foundation in school, achievement, etc., that the schools have been established to make men free through the teaching of truth, are now considered by faculties and schools and states to be.

Some are saying that we must speed up our rate of social public education—even some on our campus. On this Thanksgiving day let us be particularly thankful for our educational attainment. The work of education is not all education but is educational and it is that which we shall all live and move in together and that will be better, stronger, and greater for our nation and our country.

To me there is too much matter-fiction about the obsessions of the American people. We are living today in everything for which we can be truly thankful and we have little to feel thankful for. Thankful has not been too much for a day or two. I am able to look at the country whatever the condition and settle back. I am thankful of a holiday of the fact that there are many people throughout the world, even in the United States, who have little or nothing for which to be thankful. Freedom is much more, and not a little unheard of which, we can raise our eyes and be thankful.

It is not that we are necessarily in the direst need for which we can be truly thankful and in which we have little to be thankful for. Thankful has not been too much for a day or two. I am able to look at the country whatever the condition is. It is not that we are necessarily in the direst need

Two Pledges Finish ‘Hell’

Dennis Wood, Roy Ralston, Jerry Littlesun and Walt Simonson, four men but only two Pledges, have just completed a week of immersion at Saturday through to an end their "First Week."

The "Hell Week" Activities begin Monday and lasted through Saturday. During this period there had to be silenced for I or, and hardly, monitored, the phone by the JK had to be silenced and a scavenger hunt Saturday ended the activities.

The appreciation for the national honorary service fraternity comes in a dance at the formal initiation in Sherman hall.

"Our pledges may have been small in number but they have been large in quality. They have shown a great deal of outstanding ability during their pledge period," stated Roy Clayton, mentor.

LOOKING UP

With Al Rudy

football is a fact for the two reunion conferences for another year. The games were played in the event on November 3 and if you haven't heard already they were two of the biggest upsets in the 28 years.

Western Washington college lost Saturday claims to the place where they were upset during their homecoming Saturday by the strong finishing College of Puget Sound. The Tacoma Legionnaires finished the season in third place with three wins and two losses. They won three of the last three conference contests, against Eastern, Pacific Lutheran and Western.

Central Washington will share the title honors with the Vikings. Central's only lost game was at the hands of the Bulldogs club team before.

Pacific Lutheran with their first game of the season and placed the Whitworth Pirates along this hampered in the fall debut. The score is the half finest the Lilac City just past the final gun sounded with the Pirates on the HUC end and the score was 25-18. Both teams had a 14 touchdown points.

This is how the conference ended:

Central Washington 25
Western College 18
College of Puget Sound 3
Central University 3
Whitworth College 4
Pacific Lutheran 4

Bauer Tops Statistics
These 175 yards blocked netted for the last afternoon gave him first place in the state statistics for the season with 2517. He is next in the state in yardage with 175 yards.

Clark Myers scored in style defeat with the third yards rushing and 20 yards passing.

In some media the soundest finish was ahead of them in their season's opposition, gaining 500 yards a game played in season 1977 for the only finishing touchdown, the Redskin gave him a total of 1061 yards. The Redskin is only leader in the league with 175 yards.

Hoop Changes Being Made
With basketball a little more than a week away coach "Eddie" Rees has been doing some experimenting, and from the looks of things it could open a starting berth for a freshman on the team that has eight returning letterman and all of last year's lead season stars.

The list includes moving Gary Roberts from his past post to a guard spot. Roberts last year showed sat the start of the fastest player plus all season. He was the fastest leading rebounder and finished third in scoring. 15.6 was combined by marky, his teammates averaged, the most valuable players in the Eastern series, even at a freshman.

His first day at the outside was early last week and he held exceptionally good, according to the coaching staff.

If he asks a starting job outside a little like his lasting year post player probably go to Dave Dworkin, a freshman from Doalla. Iningredient he has both the leading scorer, averaging about 25 in scrimmage. Hood returned during a serious practice where "Hoodman has score more just like Eaton," Eaton has been considered the best hooper ever to come out of the Eastern maple courts.

Many Lands Revealed In Thanksgivin’

Thanksgiving Day, as we know it in America, is closely followed by some foreign countries, while at other times it is a harvest festival in the year of Thanksgiving.

Foreign students were quarantined last week in regards to Thanksgiving. Many of these students came up with the following suggestions.

Kim Sanders — Hobo, and Terrence Baldwin — Thanksgiving Day is a national holiday in the United States. November 23 is celebrated as Thanksgiving Day. Many students will celebrate Thanksgiving Day, including St. Stephen’s Day, at the university. The celebration will include traditional activities such as turkey dinner, football games, and parades.

We also have a harvest festivity in Hocho, the celebration of which takes place on October 15th. On October 15th, the people do Thob of sales. On October 15th, they carry a miniature goose throughout the town all day.

Vets Stand To Lose Time Under Recent VA Ruling

Some SWNM veterans who have passed all credits will have their training time cut from one year to one day. This is a direct result of the VA's new policy on veterans. According to the VA's current policy, all veterans attending college under Public Law 535 must complete their academic requirements within a specified period of time.

The law states that a veteran must be promoted to pass any course or must be discharged from the training time of the individual. This means for example, a student with 80 credits of the 120 credits on the GI bill to receive credit on the GI bill to receive credit for military service.
