Kala Christougena! Want to Help Trim the Olive Tree?

Wkle Christougena, a merry Christmas, is the popular greeting wished by the people of Greece during this time of year. "Christougena" is not only set on December 25th, as is Christmas, but is also celebrated on September 16th, the Gregorian Calendar date, given by the Orthodox Church. This date was set by Emperor Constantine the Great and is the day the Gospel was read in the Byzantine Mass. It is also celebrated in Greece.

In September of 2362, he returned to Greece to visit his family. He went through Naxos, Peloponnesus, and various cities in Europe. After graduating, he chose to go back to his own homeland or else work in foreign trade and commerce.

Deaths Make Holiday Sad

Death hasulfed away the holidays for two EWU famil¬ ies. Dr. F. J. L. McLean, assistant university depart¬ ment printer, died December 2, leaving Mrs. Mc¬ Lean. Mr. McLean had a serious heart condition and stayed to pray on the job the few remaining months to qualify him for retirement benefits.

Dr. R. W. Leidig, father of two of the students in the physical education department, died of heart failure December 4. His wife, Mrs. Leidig, who found his body in their home in a sleeping car, has been the two boys who were not married to Dr. Leidig at the time of his death.

James Kennedy, a junior in the journalism department, was killed in a car accident on December 1.

KEOKUK, IOWA—A recent survey of traffic violations among college students indicated that the majority of traffic violations occurred on campus. The survey was conducted by the University Traffic Bureau and included 1000 students from various colleges.

The survey revealed that the majority of traffic violations were for speeding (47.5%), failing to stop at a stop sign (23.5%), and running a red light (15%). The survey also found that 74% of the students had received at least one traffic violation in their lifetime.

The survey further revealed that the majority of traffic violations occurred during the summer months (75.5%), followed by the fall (17.5%) and winter (7%). The survey found that men were more likely to receive traffic violations than women (52.5% vs. 47.5%).

The survey concluded that college students need to be more aware of traffic laws and regulations to avoid traffic violations and ensure safety on and off campus.

Choir Aired OnKXY

The Eastern Washington College Choir made its debut on the radio station, KXYL, on Saturday, December 15, at 7:00 PM, in an attempt to raise funds for their upcoming trip to the Far East.

The choir, consisting of 50 members, performed a variety of songs, including classical and contemporary pieces, to entertain the listeners and raise awareness for their trip.

The trip is scheduled for the month of May and will include visits to various cities in Japan, South Korea, and China. The choir will perform at various events and concerts, including a concert in Tokyo's famous Roppongi Hills Art Center.

Report On EWCMade

A written accreditation report on Eastern Washington College has been completed and will be presented to the board of regents. The report was conducted by the Northwest Association of Colleges and Schools and will be presented to the board at its meeting in February.

The report found that Eastern Washington College meets all accreditation standards and is eligible for full accreditation.

The report also noted that the college has made significant improvements in its academic programs, facilities, and student services. The report praised the college's commitment to student success and its efforts to enhance the educational experience.

Foreign students at our university are enjoying a wonderful experience, learning the language, culture, and traditions of the United States. Many foreign students have become good friends and are an integral part of the university community.

The university offers a variety of cultural events and activities throughout the year, allowing foreign students to participate in the life of the university and interact with other students, faculty, and staff.

Many other foreign students are also forming friendships and participating in cultural activities, making their time at EWU memorable and enriching.

Letters to the Editor

This letter was written by a student at Eastern Washington College and was published in the university newspaper, The Easterner.

The letter focuses on the importance of traffic violations among college students and the need for increased awareness and education in this regard.

The letter concludes with a call to action, urging students to be more aware of traffic laws and regulations and to avoid traffic violations to ensure safety on and off campus.

Eastern's record was managed for

the first time this year to put two fairly decent halving into

even games as they defeated

the Whitman Missionaries, 61

to 55 in Othello last Saturday.

Angeles remained the most temperature on this season's record.

Eastern went on the point system

and they led for eight minutes,

but Whitman took the Redmen

into the lead with eight minutes remaining in the first half.

Bastian scored a point

half-cent for 29-28, but Johnson gave his club back again

and after the second half open.

The lead was changed, however, for Kent Matheson

for the Savages from the photograph.

The Missionaries narrowed

which scores for almost

half of the second period,

but their offense seemed to die

in the Cherty Quash switched from 45-20 to 40-4.

1 Point Lead

Eastern built the lead to 3

points with eight minutes left.

Whitman then began a full court press but was able to cut the lead to only three points.

Bob Anderson hit three
gn shot from about 20 feet out

with his own three-point

jump shot to make the score 35-22.

Matheson hit a gift too, and Johnson finished the evening's scoring with a twenty just before the passing of the clock.

Max Johnson led eastern

with 14 field goals and an average of 17. He also hit four of 17, Matheson took second with 13 for the day and

Anderson was third with 10
