Letter Sees Gals Naggings Get Goat

To the editor,

We want to get our view on the naggings that have been going on some of the women who are registered to study at the college. We think that these naggings are detrimental to the women who study here, and that it is necessary for them to be put to an end.

We suggest that the students who are interested in studying should be encouraged to do so, and that the university should do everything in its power to prevent these naggings from occurring.

Sincerely,

James L. Stevens

The Brass Exchange

By Robert A. McGee

The new 1852 date sheet has been inserted for the January 15, 1963, date change. The change was authorized by the 1852 Budget Office.

Examples of the Brass Exchange:

The Brass Exchange is a student-run organization that exchanges brass items among students at the college. The organization is open to all students and is sponsored by the student government. The Brass Exchange provides a platform for students to exchange brass items such as brass keys, brass pins, and brass bracelets. The Brass Exchange also provides a way for students to learn about the history and significance of brass items.
