John Marshall is in his twentieth year as Professor of Cello/Chamber Music at EWU and Principal Cellist with the Spokane Symphony Orchestra. He is also a conductor for the Spokane Youth Symphony. During the summers he teaches at the Interlochen Arts Camp. Marshall holds degrees from Indiana, Yale, and Northwestern Universities, where he studied with Janos Starker, Aldo Parisot, and Hans Jensen. His doctoral dissertation focused on music for two cellos and orchestra. Marshall has recorded two CD's for cello and bassoon with his wife and musical partner Lynne Feller-Marshall - SOAK: The Marriage of Cello and Bassoon, and MiX-5: Premiere Recordings for Bassoon and Cello. A third album will be recorded in the fall of 2014. CELLObration Spokane is an annual festival celebrating the cello and music for cello ensemble. Initiated in 2001, CELLObration Spokane has become the largest annual gathering of cellists in the western United States.

If you would be interested in financially supporting CELLObration and/or cello scholarships at EWU, please contact John Marshall at 359-7078 or jsmcello@gmail.com.
