Text

Dubula

The arranger of this piece makes a point to explain that the translation of the piece is muddled at best. But, in English, Dubula's lyrics translate to, "The honey bird carries sour milk. It is no good for my child, so let us chase him away with a big bang."

The May Night

When the silvery moon
Shines through the fluttering leaves,
When her pale, drowsy light
Over the field she throws,
And the nightingale warbles,
I go sadly over hill and vale.

Somewhere hid in the leaves
Two softly cooing doves fill my heart with delight
Yet, do I turn away
Turn to shadows that are darker

In my eye is but one tear
Where, O vision whose smile streams like the rosy dawn Through the depths of my soul, where
On this earth are you?

In my eye is but one tear,
It burns me,
Burns upon my cheek.

Verdurōn

Verdurōn uses a Celtic dance reel named Dans Loudieg. This melody is embellished but returns between each verse as the Verdurōn refrain. The other translations for the fast phrases interpolated throughout are below:
"What are you doing down there, beautiful Belle? Catching fish?"
"Ah, no," she says, the beautiful Belle, "I have fallen to the bottom!"
"What will you give us, beautiful Belle, if we retrieve you?"
"I am a simple maiden. I have nothing to give you."
"Only a kiss upon my mouth, or two, if it pleases you."
When the beauty was pulled out, she ran for the house!
With her head out the window, she sang this song.

Dark Night of the Soul

Text:

1. One dark night,
fired with love's urgent longings
- ah, the sheer grace! -
I went out unseen,
my house being now all stilled.
2. In darkness, and secure,
by the secret ladder, disguised,
- ah, the sheer grace! -
in darkness and concealment,
my house being now all stilled.
3. On that glad night,
in secret, for no one saw me,
nor did I look at anything,
with no other light or guide than the one that burned in my heart.

Ukrainian Alleluia

Craig Courtney - who wrote: in the summer of 2007 I had the privilege of being part of a mission team serving in the Ukraine. Because of its geographical position and rich natural resources, the country has a history of foreign invasion, occupation and oppression. It is estimated that more than 25 million Ukrainians were killed during the 20th century.... This anthem was borne out of the knowledge of these circumstances. It is a musical portrayal of a quiet voice of faith, praise and hope in the midst of suffering and tragedy.

HOMAGE

by Randall Stroope

This piece was commissioned by the Cypress Lake Center for the Arts Cultural Department and dedicated to the loving memory of our three lost fathers.

Inside the doorway, fleeting memories burn and fragile silence speaks at ev'ry turn

Remember me as I remember you,

The muted laughter that our eyes once knew.

Chorus:

Out of his strength I now have life.

Out of his tears I now have joy.

And out of his soul I now see God

Heart sing softly, softly to me.

May nothing harm dissuade the journey's end,

To silent fields where frost has never been.

Here midnight and noon flow in a sea of light.

Drenched by the spray of wisdom and delight.

Chorus:

Heaven fills my lamp with oil and lights a window of my soul.

clinging to my fire in silence or storm and let my heart once more,

if only for awhile walk the same bright earth with him, ev'ning beguile

Chorus:

Fa una canzona

Write a song without a black note
If you ever wanted my favor

Chorus:

Write it so that it will bring me
sleep

Sing me to sleep with a sweet serenading

Sweetly, sweetly from sound to silence fading

Don't put any harshness into it Because my ears are not used to that

Chorus:

With this style lucky Orpheus
Managed to pacify Proserpina, down under.
