Thomas Staples
Director of Bands
University of Lethbridge

Thomas Staples is Professor of Music and Director of Bands at the University of Lethbridge. In addition to regular performance as a horn soloist at the U of L, he has been soloist with several bands and orchestras in Western Canada, most recently as horn soloist with the Lethbridge Symphony Orchestra, and at The Call of the Wild Horn Festival. A keen advocate of music for brass ensembles, Staples has a lengthy background with brass groups such as The U of L Faculty Brass, The Commonwealth Brass, The NewWest Brass, The Southern Alberta Brass and The Bridge Brass. He has been principal horn with the Lethbridge Symphony for over two decades.

Now in his 24th year at the University of Lethbridge, Thomas Staples is in his 13th year as Director of Bands, conducting the Wind Orchestra, the Chamber Band and Brass and Woodwind Choirs. Groups under his baton have received high praise for expressive and stimulating performances. The Wind Orchestra and Chamber Band have traveled throughout Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, B.C and Washington State in recent years. Dr. Staples is in regular demand as an adjudicator and clinician throughout the area.

Dr. Staples holds degrees from the University of Saskatchewan, James Madison University and the University of Iowa.

Patrick Winters
Director of Bands
Eastern Washington University

Patrick Winters is the Director of Bands and Music Department Chair at Eastern Washington University where he conducts the Wind Ensemble, teaches conducting and courses in music education. Mr. Winters combines his broad experience as a university conductor and teacher with his experience as a successful high school director. His high school ensembles in Virginia and California achieved an impressive record of competitive and festival performances, as well as tours through the eastern and western United States, Canada, Mexico and Japan. Mr. Winters has established a band program at Eastern Washington University that is one of the finest and most active in the Northwest. Concert, marching and jazz groups regularly perform throughout the Northwest United States and Western Canada. His EWU Wind Ensemble's compact discs CELEBRATIONS and DANCES, SONGS & CELEBRATIONS have received wide acclaim. The group can also be heard on SOUNDSCAPES, PRISMS and MILLENIUM CD, the EWU Music Department's three compact discs. In 1994, Mr. Winters received the PTI Outstanding Faculty Award for excellence in teaching. In 1998, he was awarded the Washington Music Educator's Association Outstanding Music Educator Award. In 2000, he was inducted into the W.M.E.A. Hall of Fame. Mr. Winters' article Building Ensemble Musicianship For Your Concert Band appears in "Spotlight On Teaching Band," published by M.E.N.C.

Mr. Winters holds a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Elon University and a Master of Music Education degree from California State University. Mr. Winters is in demand throughout the country as a guest conductor, clinician and adjudicator, having appeared in 16 states and 5 foreign countries. Patrick lives in Spokane, Washington with his wife Joyce and their three children Brittany, Danica, and Zach.

Eastern Washington University Department of Music

The mission of the EWU Department of Music is 1) to provide the highest quality education for the music major embarking on a career as a performer, composer, educator or scholar; and 2) to educate the non-major about music within a liberal arts tradition as a part of human culture and experience. The Music Department curriculum is designed to engage students of all cultural backgrounds. In order to enrich the community as a whole, the department offers many musical performances for regional audiences and provides educational/performance opportunities for the general public.

Music Department faculty members combine dedicated teaching with artistic and scholarly excellence. They have succeeded in creating a superior student-centered learning environment. The Music Department is committed to artistic excellence, scholarly achievement, critical thought and clear expression.

Bands At Eastern

The Eastern Washington University Band Program provides a wide variety of exciting musical opportunities for all university students, regardless of their major field of study. About two-thirds of the students who make up Eastern's bands are music majors, but many non-majors find it a rewarding and challenging experience to participate in any of our many bands. These groups include: Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Marching Band, Jazz Ensemble, Jazz Repertory Ensemble, Jazz Lab Band, Jazz Small Groups and Pep Band.

In Addition to these ensembles, there are many other performing groups at Eastern. These include Flute Choir, Saxophone Quartets, Brass Quintets, Trombone Choir, Tuba/Euphonium Quartet, Percussion Ensemble, Symphony Orchestra, Baroque Orchestra, String Quartets, Concert Choir, Symphonic Choir, Chamber Choir, Vocal Jazz Ensembles, Music Theater, Contemporary Ensemble, and Opera Workshop.
