

Music

AT EASTERN

Friday, February 27, 2015
7:00 p.m.
Music Building Recital Hall

SEEING DOUBLE DUO

Dr. Julia Salerno, violin/viola
Sarah Whitney, violin

- Canonic Duo, No. 1 in G Major
Vivace - Adagio - Allegro
Telemann
- Te quiero como loco
Rumba de Mumbai
Aleksey Igudesman
Aleksey Igudesman
- Duo for Violin and Viola in G Major, K 423
Allegro
Adagio
Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
- Danny Boy
Irish traditional
arr. Aleksey Igudesman
- My Bonnie Flies Over the Ocean Traditional
arr. Aleksey Igudesman
- Julie-o
Mark Summer
arr. Sarah Whitney
- Duo in G Major, No. 1
Allegro - Rondo, Allegretto
Ignaz Pleyel
- Three Madrigals for Violin and Viola, Op. H. 313
Poco andante
Allegro
Bohuslav Martinu

Wentao Xing, Audio & Lighting Engineer, Stage Manager
Tim Blaydon, Back Stage Manager

SEEING DOUBLE is a unique concert of all duo violin music, proving that the music of two violins can be much more than the sum of their parts! The audience will be taken on a journey from Baroque to Jazz, with compositions by Telemann, Leclair, Mozart, Halvorsen, Bartok, Prokofiev, Martinu, Rosza, Summer, Chopin, and O'Connor, just to name a few!

Longtime best friends, Sarah Whitney and Julia Salerno began performing duo violin concerts while studying together at the University of Michigan. Though currently residing on opposite coasts, Julia as violin/viola professor at Eastern Washington University and Sarah as a violinist in the NYC based quintet Sybarite5, the concerts have continued over the past decade. This extraordinary opportunity to hear these friends in concert is not to be missed.