“Music is a higher revelation than all wisdom and philosophy. Music is the electrical soil in which the spirit lives, thinks and invents.”

— Ludwig van Beethoven

“Don’t only practice your art, but force your way into its secrets, for it and knowledge can raise men to the divine.”

— Ludwig van Beethoven

“Every great work of art has two faces: one toward its own time and one toward the future, toward eternity.”

— Daniel Barenboim

“Music is enough for a lifetime, but a lifetime is not enough for music.”

— Sergei Rachmaninoff

Acknowledgements

A huge thank you to all the professors in the Music Building, who have so willingly and generously shared their wisdom and knowledge to all the students.

To Dr. Graves, you have been not only a wonderful teacher but also a mentor and friend. Thank you so much for these last three years; I couldn’t have asked for better. Thank you, Kendall Feeny, Dr. Ellsworth, and Dr. Wagner, for all your support.

To Alan McCoy, the irreplaceable piano technician, thank you for not only always making sure that the pianos are in perfect condition, but for also teaching us about the anatomy of a piano.

Tom Wilson, we all miss you so much at the music building. Thank you for coming to all our numerous recitals and events.

To my wonderful friends and roommates, Margaret and Gabrielle...thank you for putting up with me and supporting me! I’ve enjoyed our crazy, late night talks, Harry Potter marathons, and nights at the Symphony.

Margaret and James, it’s been a great experience collaborating with you on the Shostakovich and the Toldra.

To Katy, you are and always have been an amazing friend. These past twenty-one years (!) you have been so supportive of me, coming to all my recitals and concerts despite being more nervous than I was! Thank you!

Last, but not least, to my family who has been with me through thick and thin, through my ups and downs. Thank you so much for all the emotional and financial support you have given to me. I could not have made it this far without you.
