Seeing Double Duo

Longtime best friends, Sarah Whitney and Julia Salerno began performing duo violin concerts while studying together at the University of Michigan. Blending the classic duo repertoire with exciting contemporary compositions, audiences have enjoyed their dynamic and interactive concerts in Washington, Michigan, Ohio, Vermont, New York City, and Boston. Though currently residing on opposite coasts, Julia as a violin/viola professor at Eastern Washington University and Sarah as a violinist in the NYC based string quintet Sybarite5, the concerts have continued over the past decade. Visit their website, www.seeingdoubleduo.com for more information about this duo.

Dr. John Marshall has held the joint position of Professor at Eastern Washington University and Principal Cello with the Spokane Symphony Orchestra since 1994. Beginning with the 2017-18 academic year, Dr. Marshall has been named the Director of Orchestra at EWU. Dr. Marshall holds performance degrees from three of the most prestigious music schools in the country: a BM from Indiana University, an MM from Yale University, and a DM from Northwestern University. At these schools Dr. Marshall studied with some of the most distinguished cellists in the world: Janos Starker, Aldo Parisot, and Hans Jensen. Dr. Marshall strives to combine the varying strengths of these three pedagogues into his own teaching and conducting methods.

In 2001, Dr. Marshall initiated the CELLObration Spokane festival. Now an annual event at EWU, CELLObration brings together over 50 student and professional cellists from all over the Northwest for a day of learning and performing music for cello ensemble.

With his wife Dr. Lynne Feller-Marshall, Dr. Marshall has recorded and produced three albums of music for cello and bassoon. In the fall of 2017, Paradox released two unique music videos of their versions of Take Five and Purple Haze. Both videos are available on YouTube.

In addition to his duties at EWU, Dr. Marshall performs over 60 concerts a year as principal cellist with the Spokane Symphony Orchestra, and serves as one of the conductors for the Spokane Youth Symphony. During the summers, Dr. Marshall teaches cello and chamber music at the Interlochen Arts Camp.
