John Marshall, conductor

Dr. Lynne Feller-Marshall has been Principal Bassoonist with the Spokane Symphony Orchestra since 1994. She also teaches bassoon at Eastern Washington University and Whitworth University, and is bassoon consultant at Jones Double Reed Products in Spokane. Lynne has a passion for teaching, and for the personal development of each student. As a result, she initiated the BASSOONarama festival at EWU. Now an annual event, BASSOONarama attracts over 40 bassoonists of all ages for a day of bassoon ensemble. Lynne and her cellist husband, John Marshall, have recorded and produced three albums of music for bassoon and cello as Paradox. This past fall, Paradox created innovative crossover videos of two of their own arrangements that may be seen on YouTube: Purple Haze and Take Five. [Search “Paradox” and song title]

Lynne holds degrees from SUNY Potsdam (BME) and the Juilliard School (MM and DMA). She was the first female bassoonist to be awarded a doctorate from Juilliard. Lynne and her husband, have a 19 year-old son and a 16 year-old daughter. When not playing, teaching, or being a Mom, Lynne enjoys horseback riding, gardening, and actively volunteering with her women’s group at Life Center Church.

Dr. John Marshall has held the joint position of Professor at Eastern Washington University and Principal Cello with the Spokane Symphony Orchestra since 1994. Beginning with the 2017-18 academic year, Dr. Marshall has been named the Director of Orchestra at EWU. Dr. Marshall holds performance degrees from three of the most prestigious music schools in the country: a BM from Indiana University, an MM from Yale University, and a DM from Northwestern University. At these schools Dr. Marshall studied with some of the most distinguished cellists in the world: Janos Starker, Aldo Parisot, and Hans Jensen. Dr. Marshall strives to combine the varying strengths of these three pedagogues into his own teaching and conducting methods.

In 2001, Dr. Marshall initiated the CELLObration Spokane festival. Now an annual event at EWU, CELLObration brings together over 50 student and professional cellists from all over the Northwest for a day of learning and performing music for cello ensemble.

With his wife Dr. Lynne Feller-Marshall, Dr. Marshall has recorded and produced three albums of music for cello and bassoon. In the fall of 2017, Paradox released two unique music videos of their versions of Take Five and Purple Haze. Both videos are available on YouTube.

In addition to his duties at EWU, Dr. Marshall performs over 60 concerts a year as principal cellist with the Spokane Symphony Orchestra, and serves as one of the conductors for the Spokane Youth Symphony. During the summers, Dr. Marshall teaches cello and chamber music at the Interlochen Arts Camp.
