About Tango Volcado

*The Inland Northwest's hottest Tango Band is stirring up a frenzy wherever it plays!
Tango Volcado is a quartet of musicians who play the violin, accordion, piano, and bass.*

Jody Graves, Patricia Bartell, Tana Bland, and Eugene Jablonsky are members of local 105 (Spokane), teach at Universities, secondary schools, play in the Spokane Symphony, teach privately, and perform in a variety of styles and venues in addition to their

Tango Volcado activities.

From the torrid to the tender, Tango Volcado plays classic tangos, Nuevo tangos and their own tango arrangements of pop songs ... this is one show that you certainly will not want to miss!
