Finale - O HOLY NIGHT (Cantique de Noël).Cappeau de Roquemaure
English text by Adolph Adam

*O Holy night! he stars are brightly shining,
It is the night of the dear Savior's birth;
Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
Till he appeared and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn;
Fall on your knees, O hear the angel voices!
O night divine, O night when Christ was born!
O night, O Holy night, O night Divine!*

Two Christmas Carols (The audience is invited to sing on second verse of each)

Away In a Manger Martin Luther

*Away in a manger, no crib for His bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down His sweet head.
The stars in the sky looked down where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus, asleep in the hay.*

The First Noel Traditional English

*The first Noel, the angel did say,
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel, Born is the King of Israel.*

Carol Sing The audience is invited to sing

What Child Is This? Words by William Chatterton Dix on the English melody "Greensleeves"

What Child is this, Who, laid to rest On Mary's lap is sleeping? Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, While shepherds watch are keeping?	This, this is Christ the King, Whom shepherds guard and angels sing: This, this is Christ the King, The Babe, the Son of Mary.

It Came Upon A Midnight Clear . . . Richard Willis & Edmund Sears

It came upon a midnight clear, That glorious song of old. From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold:	"Peace on the earth, good will to men, From Heaven's all gracious King." The world in solemn stillness lay To hear the angels sing.

Songs of Christmas The audience is invited to sing

O Little Town of Bethlehem . . . Lewis Redner & Phillips Brooks

O Little town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie! Above thy deep and dreamless sleep The silent stars go by;	Yet in thy dark streets shineth The everlasting Light; The hopes and fears of all the years Are met in Thee tonight.
